York Summit Apple Day Coming Saturday

Scout officials point out York Summit District is outside Metro and doesn't receive any funds from the United Appeal there like Metro

Scout organizations do. York Summit includes all of the new regional town of Richmond Hill plus the Markham and Vaughan areas from Steeles Avenue north to Bloomington Road, between Bathurst Street and Highway 48.

Apple Day donations are equitably distributed among member Scout groups and the district council itself doesn't benefit financially. Cubs, Scouts, Rovers, Venturers, Scouters, Group committeemen and district council officials all join in the Apple Day campaign, the only district-wide fund raising effort of the year.

Mainy On Softball

You could call this a final round-up on softball just before the winds of winter start to howl. Mmmmm, winter. Where has the summer gone? Get a hold of yourself, you fool. We're all on the same raft. Talk about anything, talk about softball, anything to fight off the waves of depression.

Maybe if I owned a snowmobile or a pair of skis or an ice hut? No matter, I'm going to get ready to throw a log on the fire and down a tot of rum. See you next summer.

Anyway, chatted to a couple of youngsters who had themselves quite a season of softball in 1972. I'm referring to 11-year-olds Paul Philip and Dale Moreland who were the Domiks and Drennans of Richmond Hill Peewee Lions.

The Lions blew the scene when they lost a tough OASA finals to Owen Sound but they redeemed themselves by knocking off Stouffville to win the York Simcoe Softball League championship last week. Who wants to be perfect, anyway?

TWO-MAN COMB.

Dale and Paul were a two-man pitching combination for the Lions and the record shows they did themselves up proud.

Dale fashioned 21 wins and five losses while striking out 260 batters. This (sort of) puts him in a class with Robert Domik of the Jewellers who he confesses to patterning himself after.

He'd even like to play for Dynes some day which should be somewhere around the year 1982 and I just don't even want to think about that far ahead.

This is Dale's second year with the Peewees and, along with Paul, his final one. The two will move up to Bantam next season along with a number of their teammates.

Paul didn't get as many starting assignments as Dale but he was always there to spell him off when the going got rough. He did it well, too. Paul's record was 17 wins, one loss, and a tie which was better than I was ever able to achieve.

I always get shaken when I talk to Paul simply because he reminds me of those crazy, hazy years which keep beating their way past my gnarled body.

REMEMBER WHEN?

This is the same Paul who I first saw having a difficult time picking up bats some eight years ago when he debuted as batboy for the Richmond Hill

Craig Terry Raps In Six Goals Rams Win 7-2, 7-3 Rangers, Nats

Karl "Unflappable Mac" Brimblecombe isn't one to get excited even when his Richmond Hill hockey Rams win their first three games of the 1972-73 Junior "A" Tier Two season.

Maybe it's because he's done it all before. "I'm happy, we're right on schedule with our condition," he said following the Rams' 7-2 win over North York Rangers Friday night and their 7-3 victory over Vaughan Nationals Sunday night in Woodbridge. It was their third win in a row and second over the Nats.

"The veterans are carrying us right now," observed Brimblecombe, "but I expect the youngsters to come on as the season gets older."

By "veterans" Brimblecombe had to mean high scoring Craig Terry and second year Goalie Gary Carr. Both were key men in the two victories.

Terry went on a six goal scoring binge in the two games pulling two hat-tricks against the Rangers and The Nats.

Carr was nothing less than sensational Sunday night against the Nats who threw everything but the arena clock at him in the first two periods only to have him get in the way in unbelievable fashion.

The Nats outshot The Rams 54 to 32 on the game but just couldn't solve the antics of Carr especially in the first two periods.

Their big edge came in the first and second when they drifted 21 and 23 shots at Carr while The Rams were answering with 9 and 13 respectively. The shots were even at 10-10 in the third.

Despite the shot advantage the Rams came out of the first period leading 2-1 and held a 4-2 advantage at the close of the second 20-minute session.

Sharing the scoring with Craig Terry's three goals were Dave "Digger" Dunkley with two and singles by Tony Bellevance and Alex Pirus. Max Carter, Ron Harris and Jim Tyrrell scored for the Nats.

"I would have to say Carr played an outstanding game in the nets," acknowledged Brimblecombe. "He seems to thrive on work. But I don't feel we were ever in that much trouble. We never let the game get out of hand."

Brimblecombe was also pleased with the all-round play of Bellevance who starred in a two-way effort and topped off his opening goal with an assist.

"Bellevance is a veteran of three years in junior hockey and he settles everyone down out there. You need someone like that to round out a young defence."

He added that newcomer Jack Guest and returnee Bill Stephenson also came up with

Joe's Lead Finals

Town Auto Body is in deep trouble after two games in their Richmond Hill Industrial Softball League playoff series with Joe's Garage who appear to definitely have their number.

The auto body crew are hoping that lightning will strike twice as in the past two years the ultimate champions have lost the first two games in the final series.

A week ago Monday Joe's shutout their opponents again winning by 8-0 and restricting Town to only three hits.

Gord Woolnough singled in the third and scored on Peter Hannans double. Hannan then scored from second as Bob Howard got on via a two base error.

The champs drove in five more big runs in the fifth inning and another in the ninth. They had only five hits in the game.

Four errors contributed to Town's downfall plus they chose a bad time for a hitting slump.

Doug Webster hurled a great game for Joe's while Gary Oliver started for Town and was replaced by Bruce Sim in the fifth.

Jewellers Oust Oshawa Tony's Rapid Robert Domik One - Hitter

Rapid Bob Domik threw a one-hitter Tuesday night of last week as the Richmond Hill Dynes Jewellers bounced Oshawa Tony's out of the 1972 Toronto and District Major Fastball playoffs.

The score was 3-0 and it was another brilliant Domik effort all the way as he struck out 21 batters over the nine innings. Only three batters reached base, two of them via a walk and being struck by a pitched ball. He struck out the first six batters.

The other was Phil Solomon who lashed a wrong-field doubled in the fourth inning which just missed nipping the foul line. He languished there as Domik got the next batter to ground-out for the third out.

It was Domik's third straight impressive showing as he has allowed only two hits in three games. His first game against The Tony's saw him tossing a no-hitter.

Losing pitcher was Barry Timbers who went eight innings before being replaced by a pinch-hitter in the eighth inning. Paul Wannamaker took over and was tagged for two runs and two hits in one inning. The Jewellers managed one run and five hits off Timbers.

The Jewellers opened the scoring in the seventh as Les Downing singled. There were two out when Donnie Lee hit a long single scoring Downing all the way from first base.

Richmond Hill pounced on Wannamaker for their final two runs in the ninth as Bob Smith led off with a walk after replacing Bob Kennedy at third in the seventh. Joe O'Neill then

Car Talk

By IAN NEILL

The flat of the future won't be the dangerous or inconvenient problem it is today, thanks to the development of a new "total mobility tire" by Dunlop. The new tire was designed to allow the motorist to continue his journey for as much as 100 miles at speeds of up to 100 miles per hour, without any major effect on vehicle stability.

The new tire owes its effectiveness to three basic factors. First, the tire bead and the wheel rim are designed so as to hold the bead in place on the wheel at all times. Secondly, the tire contains an amount of liquid lubricant. The third design feature is the relationship between the width of the tire and the rim to which it is fitted.

The rim is only 60 percent as wide as the tread of the tire, and this relationship contributes an important part to giving the tire its unique properties. The stabilizing beads ensure that the tire will not dislodge if it loses air pressure due to a puncture; consequently, the tire cannot be displaced from the wheel, making it much safer in the case of high-speed deflations. The beads also maintain the handling qualities of the tire even letely flat. Anyhow, more about this next week.
