LEE MYERS — GOOD AT EUCBRE TOO

Tennis Not Only Goal Of Young Maple Champ

By JIM IRVING

When a 14-year-old girl has just finished winning the Quebec Girls Singles Championship, partnered another 14-year-old to a title in the Canadian Girls Doubles Championship, and won the singles crown in the Georgian Bay High School Tennis Championships last year, you start having great expectations as to what her next goal might be.

A single berth on the Canadian Davis Cup Team? The centre court at Wimbledon? A win over some of the top-seeded players anywhere in some upcoming Rothman's Open in Toronto? Worthwhile goals all. But to Lee Myers, the slender and graceful young tennis prodigy from Maple, her most important project right now is talking her parents, Bill and Jan Myers, into getting her a pair of contact lenses.

Lee plays with her glasses on, and besides somewhat hindering her movement and peripheral vision, they also, although she didn't say so, help to cover a pretty face.

They don't, however, hide a determined chin that asserts itself whenever she considers her possibilities along the tennis trail, the trail she first laid out when she started trouncing her fellow 10-year-olds at Southampton on Lake Huron, where the family spends its summers, and stowed anyone who dared to watch that she was definitely coming in the tough and tight little world of tennis, where love is just part of the game's jargon and not something you dispense to your opponents along the way.

SPOILED SUMMER
After spoiling the summer for her fellow tennis hopefuls in Southampton, she looked for other tennis worlds to conquer and found them in Galt, where she won the Galt and District Tennis Tournament for 12 to 14 year-olds, three years in a row. Now she's engaged once again in the Georgian Bay High School Championships, where she and sister Lynn, 16, disposed of two other sisters, Merry and Judy McLean of Thornhill Secondary School in a close match played on a cool but sunny afternoon last week in Richmond Hill, to reach the Southern Georgian Bay Play-offs.

Lee, who says her best shot is her backhand, is also developing a hard and accurate service, as well as a deadly, sling-shot return style at the net, where she stands in a semi-crouch, giving her racket a slow turn every now and then as she awaits the ball.

Lynn, on the other hand, stands almost upright at the net spinning her racket furiously as she gets set for the shot. When it comes and she has to move it, she brings her arm well back in textbook style before slamming the ball across the net in a well-placed return.

IN THE VILLAGE OF MAPLE

of their Silver Wedding Anniversary October 11, at the home of their friends Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cormes of Gormley.

Eileen and Ken are well known in the Maple and King City area. Over 30 guests were on hand including Mrs. Walker's mother, Hilda Allen from Maple, Mrs. Lorne Wells also of Maple and Mrs. George Armstrong of King City. They were bridesmaids at the wedding 25 years ago.

We would like to join with their many friends in the community in wishing Ken and Eileen many more happy years.

Our community was saddened last weekend to hear of the death of Mrs. Joseph Snider, life long resident of Vaughan, recently residing in Richmond Hill.

Mrs. Snider is survived by her two sons, Don of Richmond Hill and John of Toronto and daughter, Lois (Mrs. Morell) of Fergus, as well as four grandchildren.

Mrs. Snider was a faithful worker and beloved member of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Vaughan, serving until recently as president of the women's group.

The service was held on Monday from the Marshall Funeral Chapel in Richmond Hill, Rev. Berton Andrew in charge. Interment was at St. Paul's, Vaughan.

Congratulations to the lucky winner of last week's Maple Plaza draw, Mrs. Barbara Barnard of Warren Road, King City.

The new draw, for $50 in vouchers or coupons, redeemable at any of the Plaza stores, was drawn last weekend by Victor Gibson of Richmond Street, Maple.

The attendance at the second of the Tuesday Morning group dropped considerably from the first due to a number of illnesses. It was most successful, however, and the ladies all enjoyed their morning.

As promised, the program began with Mrs. Pat Little directing the ladies in a few exercises. At the same time, two of the mothers organized the children and kept them together. The informal discussion period brought out several interesting topics, contributing greatly to the planning of a scheduled program.

Mrs. Sheila West, in collaboration with the chairman, Mrs. Eva Hawkins, have both put forth a lot of effort and came up with a most interesting schedule.

Among the topics to be dealt with in the near future will be mental health in children, Local Elections, a Halloween party, candle making and Christmas decorations all to be presented by qualified persons.

The first item is a presentation by a representative of Pollution Probe on October 17, with a good turnout anticipated. Please watch for the artistic posters in the local stores and this column to keep up to date on events.

Those who would be interested in attending only certain meetings as guests will be most cordially welcome.

For further information call Mrs. Mary Norcliffe at 832-1324.

By the time this is read there will be less than two days left to obtain tickets for the fall dance held by the Maple Home and School Friday evening at 9 pm.

Anyone still hoping to go but not having tickets, must contact Mrs. Eleanor Brown, home and school association president. Advance sale tickets are required for proper preparation of food, etc. We understand some tickets might also be available at the European Delicatessen, Maple Plaza.

Speaking of home and school, the first movie for the season is being shown at the Joseph Gibson School Friday evening from 7 to 9 pm. "In Search Of The Castaways" is a family type movie, admission 50c.

The men of the Lions were out in full force Saturday canvassing door to door in search of items to be sold at their annual fall auction sale to be held this Saturday at the community hall from noon.

We feel that men will welcome any used articles that our readers might wish to donate at the last minute and just about anything will be most acceptable with the exception of clothing.

A call to Ron Rout 832-8821, Doug Chalmers 832-1551, Dominic Azzolin 832-1086 or John Kuchera 832-8863 will have someone ready to pick up donations.

The Maple Branch of the arthritis and rheumatism society is pleased to announce that Peppercorn's Magic is coming to the Joseph Gibson School November 3.

This is a live production by four professionals that is "sure to warm the cockles of your heart" to quote Mr. Peppercorn. The group is currently playing at the Colonnade Theatre in Toronto and is listed in this week's Star Week under "What's On For Children".

The reviews on this show have been very good and we are very lucky to have engaged them.

Cubs and Scouts
Don't forget to keep saving all your old newspapers for the boys of the Scout group who have begun work on a newspaper re-cycling drive to help raise funds for the visit this coming summer of the Scouts from England, with whom an exchange visit program has been begun.

The barn on the south side of the Major Mackenzie Road 100 feet west of the stop lights is the central collection point. Contributors in outlying areas where it is difficult for the boys to get out to collect, are urged to drop their newspapers off on Saturday mornings from 8 am to 1 pm.

Senior Citizens
On Monday of this week a Travelways bus loaded with Maple Senior Citizens headed for Stratford for a full day's outing. Details next week.

Members of the Maple representation of the New Horizons Program Cabinet October 11 met with members from Woodbridge and Kleinburg to hear Barney Danson, MP York North, speak briefly on the program and to introduce the regional director for the program Jim Allman.

The only concrete decision or point that came out of the meeting was the fact that the Vaughan Senior Citizens were away ahead of the government, who had, in fact released the details of the program before they were ready to handle the scores of applications received.

Also, a further meeting was to be arranged for this Wednesday morning in the Town of Vaughan offices, so that an executive can be formed from the existing cabinet in order to handle funds held in reserve for the Senior's clubs, etc. This will also give members from Thornhill an opportunity to get themselves up to date on the results of the last meeting when their representation was missed.

Church News
The ladies of St. Stephen's Anglican are making plans for their annual Christmas bazaar.

Discuss Beef Breeds As Edgeley WI Topic
Mrs. Jack Snider, 24 Irwin Road, Rexdale, was hostess to the Edgeley Women's Institute for its October meeting. President Mrs. Earl Jackson presided and Mrs. Cameron Boake, convenor for agriculture and Canadian industries, was in charge of the program.

Roll call was well responded to by six names of beef breeds and many new breeds were named. This served as an introduction to Mrs. Boake's talk on the cross-breeding of cattle to produce the type of beef demanded by the consumers. Mrs. Boake also spoke on the new grading system on beef, again the result of consumer demands. She concluded her talk by reading a poem on the visit of a city family to the farm, which was very humorous.

The branch decided to sponsor a child in an underdeveloped country for another year. Mrs. Bruce Snider and Mrs. Earl Jackson reported on their day at the local leader training class on "Ontario Fruits". A training class for members will be held at the home of Mrs. Bruce Snider October 19 at 6:30 pm. Achievement day for this course will be held at Victoria Square November 28.

The door prize was won by Mrs. Joan Bagg and lunch was served by Mrs. Boake and Mrs. Charles Summerfeld.

The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. James Darlington, Netherford Road, Maple, and Mrs. Peter Lewis will be in charge of the program. She will give a talk and exhibit on Old English glass and china.

Renovation of a vertical core of washrooms through all four floors of the main building at the Ontario Hospital, Aurora, will be done by Brown & Huston. This firm's bid of $83,300 was the lowest of three received, the highest being $92,600. Brown & Huston are located at 220 TorYork Drive, Weston.

Work is already well underway on this project which is expected to be completed by the end of the year. It includes removal of existing fixtures and piping; installation of new fixtures and piping, partitions and doors; a new ventilation system and electrical alterations to provide lighting for the revised room layout.

Back for the occasion from Alliston were Mr. and Mrs. Earle Magee, and the congregation were most happy to have Earle sing two solos "The Stranger From Galilee" and "Bless This House".

Anniversary Sunday will be observed at Maple United Sunday with Rev. Douglas Davis of Richmond Hill and Cedar Glen present for the evening service.

The Scarborough AOTS choir will give the musical worship at the evening service.

Although the ladies did not bowl on the Thanksgiving Holiday Monday, the Pioneers got going, even though a good representation were away for the day on a color tour with the Maple Senior Citizens.

Alex Bishop's team took five points from Pete Craibe's and Jim Craibe's took two and Mel White's team took five.

The success of Mel's team is explained by the Captain's high single score of 272 flat and 320 with handicap.

More Work Planned Highway 27 In 1973
A half million dollars will be spent next year by the provincial government for grading, drainage, granular base and hot mix paving on Highway 27 north of Kleinburg, according to a report from William Hodgson M.L.A., York North. The $499,650.44 contract has been awarded to Warren Bitulithic Limited of Downsview and work is scheduled to get underway May 1, 1973.

The reconstruction work will stretch from half a mile north of Kleinburg to the Schomberg Sideroad, a distance of 11 miles.

Mr. Hodgson also reports that McKay Excavating Limited of Downsview was awarded a contract for grading, drainage, granular base and hot mix paving at the Newmarket "GO" Transit bus station parking lot. Amount of the contract was $27,400.50. This work began September 5 and is now completed.

Teston Tidings

Church News
The annual bazaar will have the theme — Teston Pioneer Market on November 24 at 7:30 pm. Everyone welcome.

The Church anniversary services will be on November 12. The morning service will begin at 11 am with Rev. Martin Jenkinson and Douglas Davis as guests.

It will be at this service that the new window will be dedicated. This window is in memory of all pioneers in this our centennial year.

The evening service will be at 7 pm in the form of a special gospel service.

Everyone is welcome to this service. The official board will meet at the church at 8 pm October 23.

Don't forget this Sunday the Centennial Girls Choir will be in concert at 7 pm.
