REV. CHRIS DUGAN

Saturday morning of last week friends gathered at the Dugan Family plot at Aurora Cemetery for a committal service for Mr. Dugan's son Rev. Chris Dugan, former minister at Brown's Corners United Church, who died in Vancouver September 19.

The funeral service was held in Montreal September 23, and afterward there was cremation. Saturday Rev. Bradley Cruikshank of Ashburn, a very old friend and former classmate of the deceased spoke simply and beautifully of one who was greatly loved by all who knew him.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craig returned home last week from a six-weeks' tour which took them to the British Isles and the continent. They report a wonderful trip with wonderful weather.

Friends were happy to see James Dugan of Montreal in the neighborhood last weekend. Mr. Dugan was the guest of relatives at Stouffville.

Mrs. Douglas Hood is getting about again after a recent indisposition.

Miss Rhea Scott and Mrs. Milton Sherman have both been ill recently. We wish them a rapid recovery.

Friends were sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. John McCague's mother, Mrs. Joyce, at Princess Margaret Hospital early last week. We extend sincere sympathy.

Mrs. Alf Miller has been busy again with craft demonstrations, at Melville Church for Brownies, and at St. Andrew's United Church, Markham, for senior citizens.

Church News

Sunday morning at Brown's Corners United Church Rev. Allen Hallett spoke on "The Healing Ministry Of Jesus", and the junior and senior choirs sang. Mrs. Don Reesor was organist, Mrs. Marguerite Jones led the junior choir, and Miss Regina Allen was piano accompanist with the junior choir.

Sunday night the MOBUS, the newly formed young people's group at the church, met at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Hallett to see a film on Hinduism, and for discussion.

If you are interested in donating a new hymn book for use in the church worship services, please attend a brief meeting following service this Sunday. Books may be placed in memory of relatives or friends.

Visits Markham Museum

Members of the Buttonville WI travelled back in history Wednesday afternoon of last week, when they visited the Markham Museum, and went on a tour with Curator John Lunau and Mrs. Gordon Lunau as guides. There is a pioneer bedroom and livingroom, with handwoven rag carpets, quilts, china and primitive furniture. There are wooden tools and utensils dating back to the early 1800's. There are all kinds of intriguing avenues to explore.

The Buttonville group was particularly interested in the wealth of old photographs depicting family groups, Sunday school picnics and school pictures. Most of these were from the Markham, Unionville, Buttonville and Cedar Grove areas.

Later, the members were guests at the home of Mrs. Tim Paterson, where a brief meeting was held and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Lloyd Baker conducted business and among items discussed was purchase of an exhaust fan for the kitchen; and the annual convention which will be held at the Royal York Hotel early in November.

Delegates will be Mrs. Richard Pralet and Mrs. George Barker.

TURN SPARE ROOMS INTO SPARE CASH BY USING LIBERAL CLASSIFIEDS

Inflation hasn't changed the price of ashes.

But it has changed the price of your home. For example, if you bought an $18,000 home in 1963—today it's worth about $24,200. Don't be left with a costly pile of ashes. See me about a State Farm Homeowners Policy that will cover your home for all it's worth... and keep it that way with automatic Inflation Coverage.
