

Monday, October 30th,
you can replace arrogance
with responsibility,
promises with action,
bad government with good.

If you are as concerned about Canada's future as Stephen Roman is — and you want to do something about it, as Stephen Roman does — then vote Progressive Conservative on Monday and make a change for the better. Our unemployment, welfare and economic problems can be solved with new thinking, new people and new policies. Vote for Stephen Roman. He'll do the job.
