Church News
The annual Anniversary services of the United Church were held on Sunday.
At the 11 am service the guest speaker was the Rev. Lora Carlson, who is Executive Director of Cedar Glen Conference Centre.
The guest soloist was Mervyn Pickering, who was winner of three singing awards at the recent CNE. Mrs. Coral Barker was guest organist and accompanist.
At the 7:30 pm service the members of the Teston Centennial Choir and their leader and organist Roy Robson, provided an evening of music which was greatly enjoyed.
Following the evening service the ladies of the church served light refreshments in the Sunday school room.

Does a 19 year old girl really know where she is heading?
The job market is tight. Competition for interesting jobs is tough. But the opportunities are still available. Don't risk your future on the chance that you might find the right job. What you need is basic business knowledge. And extra skills. Like typing. Or shorthand. Something to set you apart. Forget the excuses. No one is interested. You've got to make potential employers sit up and take notice. Show can help! But you must make the first move.

A SHAW "CAREER COURSE" could help you make the right decision, too!
