Social
 A speedy recovery to John Bordignon, of Garden Avenue, who injured his leg in soccer when Langstaff played Woodbridge, October 26. He plays quarterback for the Bolt Bombers football team, Richmond Hill.

On October 28, about 15 residents of Richvale attended the coffee party at Ross and Irene Shuter's home on Pearson Avenue to meet and talk with Dave Schiller, who is running for mayor.

He showed sympathy to their problems, especially to the lack of safety in crossing Yonge Street for Senior Citizens, children and Langstaff High School students wishing to reach Richmond Hill by bus.

With the inconvenience of only a two hourly local bus, necessitating use of TTC, re-routing of TTC was suggested.

He said a walkway was being constructed from Carville to Spruce on existing town property, and that road widening and eventual improvements on Carville would not affect taxes of those living thereabouts. The BAF developers would be financially responsible.

Library
 Don't forget Story Time for pre-schoolers every Tuesday from 10:30 to 11:30 am. The Richvale Nursery School will be visiting the library on November 8.

A group of some 25 students, under the direction of Doug Black, attended a performance of the National Ballet at the O'Keefe Centre on the evening of Wednesday, November 1st. For many, it was a new and pleasant experience to visit the centre and to view a ballet performance.

Elections of class representatives for the student council have been completed.

Under the guidance of staff advisors, Iain Craig and Corinne Ross, the council will undertake many projects during the school year. Dances, trips, sales, films, intramural competitions and special days are some of the planned activities.

The student council acts as a voice for the students, developing a school spirit and providing a further link between staff and students. The council also works in very close co-operation with the Roselawn Association in many of its fund raising drives during the year.

Executive appointments for the student council for the 72-73 year are: President Lorene Eldridge, Vice-President Randy Muccioli, Secretary Heidi Stegma, Treasurer Gretchen Kemsies.

In addition to class reps on the council, each class has one assistant representative. The assistants act as a sub-committee of the council, working specifically as a recreation night committee under the leadership of the students from Humber College on recreation night.
