REMEMBRANCE DAY
THIS SATURDAY

The brave young men who gave their lives in two World Wars that we might continue to live in freedom and comfort sleep among the poppies of Flanders Fields. In remembrance of them we wear a red poppy on Remembrance Day, November 11, as we re-affirm our determination to "carry the torch" we received from them. We must not break faith with those who died.

The annual service of remembrance is scheduled for this coming Sunday at 3 pm at the Cenotaph in front of the McConaghy Public School, Yonge Street South, Richmond Hill. The parade forms at 2:30 pm at the Richmond Heights Centre.

WHAT THE POPPY MEANS!

The poppy should inspire in each of us the spirit of sacrifice. The poppy is the emblem of sacrifice and reminds us to remember those who gave of their service — even unto death.

The poppy fund is a blessed service in providing for the destitute and handicapped veterans, the widows and children of our departed comrades, that they may know a helping hand is waiting to serve them in the absence of a loved one in the hour of need.

The poppy fund bridges the gap in the lives of those in need that no other service accomplishes and as we that are left honor and cherish the memory of those who left us an incomparable heritage of Freedom, Liberty and Peace.

May we, as comrades of that "Great Host of Gallant Souls", do everything in our power to keep green their memory and great achievements by supporting the poppy fund on November 9, 10 and 11.

A cordial invitation is extended to all Canadians to participate with us in this noble and worthy cause.

Legion Reports

Branch 375, Royal Canadian Legion
By Chris Ratchford — 884-5260

It would seem that the news runners have all taken to the hill—so—this time around we will just have to give you dates for coming events.

November 11—Annual dinner and dance to honor all vets, especially those of World War I. Admission $5. per person.

November 15 — Closing date for all paid up members to get the forms in for Children's Christmas Party.

November 20 — General meeting in the Legion Hall at 8 pm sharp.

The Friday night socials are still rolling along though small in attendance. This past week Bob Thomas was the mystery winner. Why not come out some night and see for yourselves just what cooks.

The Legion sick parade is getting smaller these days for which we give thanks. It sure is nice to be able to say "welcome back" to our comrades again. It is our sincere wish that all our comrades are soon well enough to be with their families once again. These sentiments go double for any of our friends. If you know anyone that might be ailing, why not send a card or drop by and give a cheery word.

November 11—Each year the peoples of the world stop for a minute or two at 11 am to honor those women and men who gave their all that we might have the precious gift of Freedom. Ceremonies are held in all cities to pay respects to those gallant ones. Why wait for ceremonies. Why not give your homage in your own way! Pause in your daily tasks long enough to give a prayer of thanks for their efforts in your and our behalf.

This week, November 6 to 11—is Poppy Week. This is one week in the year when the Legion asks your assistance to help others. Can you deny help to those whose motto is "Service" to others. When you see a Legionnaire or in the locality, an Air Cadet, selling Poppies, won't you donate to this worthy cause and make this year's campaign the biggest one ever. We do not and will not forget. If you cannot remember—just think. Let us carry the Torch for those who can no longer carry the Torch themselves.
