Neighborhood Notes

Winter already, with snow to prove it. Roads and traffic during the first storm Tuesday of last week were hectic. Don Mills Road south of Highway 7 is very bad right now, with soft muddy shoulders. Culverts into properties are a real hazard, and many drives are below grade. It should add up to a lucrative season for tow truck operators.

Rev. and Mrs. Allen Hallett were pleased to have Allen's parents visit them last week, en route from Edmonton to their home in New Brunswick.

Recent guests at the home of Mrs. Garnet Francey were Mrs. Elmer Hesse of Niagara and Mrs. Elmore Hill of Markham.

Early in November Mrs. Francey attended the WI Convention at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto.

'Tis the season of bazaars. On Friday of last week a number of Buttonville women attended one at Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church where Mrs. Russell Boyington was a hostess. A hot luncheon was served and craft tables were laden with handmade articles for the home, toys, etc.

Among those attending were: Mrs. Jim Rodick, Miss Elizabeth French, Mrs. Lloyd Baker, Mrs. Ken Stots, Mrs. John Donaldson, Mrs. Elmore Hill, Mrs. Joe Robinson, Mrs. Ernie Johnson, Mrs. Walter Craig, Mrs. Edgar Fuller, Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson, Miss Della Stephenson, Mrs. William Allen, Mrs. Irene Potts, Mrs. Garnet Francey and Mrs. Fred Leaf.

Saturday several local ladies attended the sale at Central United Church, Unionville, and this coming Saturday they look forward to the one at Union Villa. Mrs. Alfred Miller has been helping with crafts for the Villa bazaar.

On Friday evening of last week Rev. Hallett conducted the chapel services at Union Villa, and the junior choir, led by Mrs. Marguerite Jones sang.

Those attending the Royal Winter Fair last week were particularly disappointed at the lack of roses, which, with chrysanthemums used to mark the flower show but they noted displays from Tim Clark's at Markham and Eunice Denby's where our own Adele Carruthers is a prize arranger.

For one local lady the Royal Winter Fair has a special nostalgia. Fifty years ago, when the fair was brand new, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hood (the former Gertrude Brown) were on their honeymoon and stopped by the coliseum to see the first show.

This year Mrs. Hood and daughter Isobel attended. She missed the flowers.

Glen Stephenson is sporting a broken thumb after an injury in a hockey game with Sutton at Unionville a week ago Saturday. Glen is a member of the Unionville Midget All-Stars. PS—they won the game.

Friends were sorry to learn that Mrs. Russell Burr is in Centenary Hospital. We wish her a rapid return to health.

When Buttonville WI members met Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Fred Leaf, the guest speaker, Mrs. Margaret Lowe, gave a nature talk.

Mrs. Lloyd Baker chaired the meeting, and delegates to the WI convention Mrs. George Barker and Mrs. Richard Pralet gave reports.
