The Poinsettia Tea and Bazaar at Emmanuel Anglican Church last Saturday was very successful. The ladies of the ACW who sponsored it wish to thank everyone in the community who contributed time or goods for their efforts.

The first prize of a blender was won by Mrs. Mary Boos. The second prize of a spice rack went to Mrs. Doris Davies and the third prize, a toaster, went to Mrs. M. Gladding.

The next meeting of the ACW will be a pot-luck supper on December 7. We have a new post office in our area, just in time for the Christmas mailings. It is at 6 Westwood Lane and will be open from 9 am to 5 pm Monday thru Friday.

There will be an all candidates meeting in the Parish Hall of Emmanuel Church, 15 MacKay Drive, November 26 beginning at 7 pm. The meeting is sponsored by the men's club of the church and it is hoped to have all the candidates for this ward there.

It is the hope of the men's club that there will be a two-way dialogue between the citizens and the candidates and that the residents of the ward will express some of their concerns to the candidates as well as learning what the candidates have to say.

The committee arranging the meeting is composed of Ralph Dav, Don Simpson and John Poulet and they extend an invitation to all the residents of this ward to attend this meeting.

These will be the people making decisions that directly affect all of us. We should be there to ask some questions and get some answers so that we can vote for the people who will make the kind of decisions we want.

The first meeting of a new youth group at Emmanuel Church will be on November 24 at 7 pm in the Parish Hall. This group sprang from the discussions the young people had on the two Sundays of parish plans and will be run by them with adult guidance.

Any youngsters in the area who are interested may call 889-4553 for more information.

THESE 4 INDEPENDENT CANDIDATES FOR VAUGHAN COUNCIL ASK YOUR SUPPORT TO KEEP VAUGHAN GREEN

They have no axes to grind and nothing to gain personally as councillors. They have no backing from developers, real estate or commercial interests. They want gradual, planned development which will maintain Vaughan as a progressive greenbelt community.

BILL KING

FOR REGIONAL COUNCILLOR

Bill King was active in forming the Maple Ratepayers' Association, of which he is president. Since that time he has kept a steady pressure on Council for improved conditions in his community. A carpenter by trade, he rose to become Toronto manager for the country's biggest cash register firm. His executive experience in both community work and the business world is extensive. Because he has lived for seven years in Maple he has come to believe that the quality of life is more important than haphazard development and he will work towards that end at the regional level. Mr. King has five children.

MIKE BEVAN

A high school administrator and former television producer, Mr. Bevan was Vaughan's choice for the recent nationwide conference on Man and His Resources. A resident of Kleinburg for 16 years, he has served as District Commissioner of the Boy Scouts, president of the Kleinburg Rotary Club and Secretary of the Binder Twine Festival. Keenly interested in maintaining the rural atmosphere of his community, Mr. Bevan is currently vice-president of the Rotary Committee on the Environment for District 407. He is 52, is married and has four children. Long known as an inspiring leader and a man who gets things done he will bring a tough, inquiring mind to council.

JAMES CAMERON

As a professor of geography at York University, James Cameron brings to the Vaughan Council a much needed expertise on regional planning — his own special subject. He has for some time been working in his home town of Maple on a Citizens' Plan. His roots in the community go back for more than a century when his forbears first arrived in Vaughan and he himself is interested in studying and writing about the history of early settlement in the community. Active in the Maple Ratepayers' Association he is known for his independence of thought and dedicated public spirit. Dr. Cameron is married with two children and at 30 is the youngest candidate seeking election to the Vaughan Town Council.

CLAIRE COATES

A social worker and a housewife in Woodbridge, Mrs. Coates is the only woman candidate for Vaughan Council. Her qualifications are impressive. In her former capacity as president of the Kitchener-Waterloo Chapter of the Consumers' Association of Canada she learned the needs of ordinary people. As former Parliamentarian for the Canadian Federation of University Women she gained a first hand knowledge of government. As first president of the newly-formed Vaughan Branch of the University Women's Club she has been a regular attendant at Vaughan Council meetings. Mrs. Coates' experience as a social worker convinces her that sudden high density development in Vaughan would cause insurmountable social problems.
