

Faces Weapon Charge In London

2½ Years Jail For Selling "Speed"

A sentence of 2½ years in penitentiary was handed out by Judge Russell Pearce in Richmond Hill Court November 9 to a young man convicted on a Richmond Hill trafficking charge involving the killer thrill drug "speed" (methamphetamine).

A charge of possession of a stolen .32-calibre Schomberg revolver was dropped by Assistant Crown Attorney John Kerr. He said the accused man faces another gun charge in London and other charges in Metro, where the evidence is better.

USED DRUG HIMSELF
Thomas McRobb 23, of 11 Calvington Avenue, Downsview, in court previously admitted having the drug June ting an impaired driving charge.

WRECKED HIS CAR
Sizer in Markham at 12:20 am was leaving a driveway in his 1966 Pontiac when he was in a collision, wrecking his own vehicle and knocking the other car into the ditch. His breathalyzer test reading was 2.00, the court was told. He needed his license to get a job, the court was told.

One of the first girls remanded from Richmond Hill Court to the House of Concord Salvation Army residential school in Vaughan was teenager Patricia Lillie of 8557 Bayview Avenue, South Thornhill.

ment 2, Downsview was fined $10 or two days jail when he appeared in court here November 9.

Gordon Barnes, 18, of 29 Riverside Boulevard, Thornhill was given a suspended sentence and two years probation on conviction after being charged with break-in and theft offences at Thornlea Secondary School in Thornhill earlier this year.

TERMS OF PROBATION
Judge Pearce placed Barnes under the supervision of a probation officer, ordering the youth to keep the peace, stay in the court's jurisdiction, avoid associating with the two other youths charged with him and to avoid drinking, stay away from places where alcoholic beverages are sold and avoid weapons and illicit drugs.

A Gormley youth who admitted wrecking a Markham apartment September 30 with two other young people, was convicted November 16 and remanded in custody for a week for a pre-sentence report and sentencing. He had a criminal record and was serving four months for robbery, YRP Detective Douglas Tribbling told the court.

$300 WILFUL DAMAGE
David Pierce, 18, of RR 2, admitted a charge of causing mischief by wilful damage over $200 to the 128 Main Street North apartment owned by Douglas Thompson and leased by Elizabeth Ilott. His co-accused were Edward Ferrell, 19, and Bonnie Peters, 17, a girl absent without leave and sought by police.

Detective Tribbling said the total cost of repairs to the apartment had reached $306 and there were fixtures and a wall yet to be repaired. Furnishings, ceiling tiles, doors and windows were smashed at 7 am, he said.

Simon Thomas, 44, of 32 Church Avenue, Willowdale admitted having a part bottle of sherry in his car November 8 in Vaughan Town. He was fined $15 or four days in jail and the liquor was confiscated by the court.
