"The Liberal" is always willing to publish items regarding people and events contributed by its readers in Maple, Concord, Teston and Kleinburg. Maple, please phone Mrs. Louise Cooper, 832-2408; in Concord, Mrs. Carol Cole, 889-4379; in Kleinburg, Mrs. Gayle McCormack, 893-1856; in Teston, Mrs. Connie Brown, 832-8817.

LOOKING AROUND

Neighborhood Notes
A sure indication that Christmas is little more than a month away is the following note received from Dr. Ramsay Armitage of St. Stephen's Anglican:

"This Christmas, among your happy Christmas Gifts, give one little gift to a patient in one of our mental hospitals.

"Buy just one gift in this store and it will be gayly wrapped by the Canadian Mental Health Association and a Hospital Patient will be gladdened by it.

"Buy one now. It may seem early, but they must be sent to the Distributing Centre early in December."

The above is the notice and invitation set up in the Maple Plaza by Perry's Pharmacy, European Delicatessen and Coffee Shop, Maple IGA, Corner Shop (at the four corners) and Yake's Dry Goods.

Readers of "The Liberal" who have the privilege of shopping in Maple are invited to participate in this worthwhile gesture of goodwill.

Congratulations to the lucky winner of last week's draw at the Maple Plaza, Mrs. Lorne Langley, a recent resident of Maple, now of Richmond Hill. The $50 voucher draw was made by Frank Holzner of Kleinburg at the European Delicatessen. Next week the draw for $50 in vouchers redeemable at any of the plaza stores will be made at Thacker's Humber Valet Cleaners around 8 pm on Friday.

Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kyle of Teston are eagerly looking forward to being on hand to congratulate the happy couple on the occasion of their Diamond Wedding Anniversary December 11. An invitation is extended to all

Currie - Hadwen

Century Old Teston Church Scene Of September Wedding

Baskets of giant white chrysanthemums and red carnations decorated the century-old Teston United Church September 23 for the marriage of Alma Christine Hadwen to Wallace Henry Currie. Rev. William Reid was the officiating clergyman, Gloria Bowes of Maple was the organist. "Praise My Soul" was the wedding hymn and Mrs. Charles Robson was the soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Hadwen of RR 2, Cookstown and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Achibald Cooper of RR 4, Cookstown. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional white organza over peau de soie gown fashioned with mandarin collar and daisy and ribbon trim. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white stephanotis.

Church News
Due to lack of space last week a few lines were omitted from my column in connection with the evening anniversary service. So, I'd like to say at this time, thank you to our own choir who did a splendid job and also to the Centennial Girls Choir and Soloist Kathy Ella for their excellent performance.
Don't forget the Teston Pioneer Market tomorrow night (Friday) at 7:30 pm.
The Sunday school concert will be held Friday evening, December 19, in the Sunday school.
Special Christmas Decora-

THOUGHT FOR TODAY
One hundred years of service
To God and fellow man,
A century of toiling
Since first this church began,
They realized the body
Lives not by bread alone
And so they built an altar
Of faith, and wood and stone.

They brought their gifts to Jesus
And laid them at his feet,
A simple trust, and reverence,
And music soft and sweet,
And when life's tribulation
Seemed more than they could bear
They sought this house of worship
And found their solace there.

Years bring to life their changes
But timeless things remain
We still need strength of spirit,
Still suffer grief and pain,
Our fathers' faith unyielding
Was left to us, a trust
For future generations
Passed on to them by us.
In memory of my Father Frank Scott Rumble.
—Frances L. Diceman.

I just want to share with everyone the Centennial Hymn that Frances Diceman worked so hard to compose for the Centennial year at Teston United Church. It is written to the tune of Aurelia.

IN THE VILLAGE OF MAPLE

their friends to join them at the United Church in Teston December 9 from 1:30 till 5 pm to help celebrate the occasion.

Keep in mind the dance Friday evening at the Community Hall in conjunction with the monthly draw for the Lions Arena Fund 1st and 2nd prize tickets. Dance to the music of the The Hi Hats and join in the excitement of the draw. Admission is $4 per couple.

We still haven't heard where that stage coach is for the badly needed transportation from Maple to Richmond Hill????

Those running for office in the pending municipal elections, take note!
The parents of the Home and School are showing the movie of the month Friday evening at the George Bailey School at 7 pm. The Walt Disney production of "Now You See Him, Now You Don't" will be shown. Admission is 50¢ for all with only one showing.

Arthritis Society
A great deal of thanks goes to the people of the community from the Arthritis Society. With the campaign nearing an end, Maple is very close to the goal of $800. A total of $771 has been received from the canvassers, industries and the proceeds from the theatre night. The canvassers have done an excellent job and the society would like them to know how much it was appreciated.

Many thanks also go to the children in the area who sent in entries for the poster contest, the five merchants in the Maple Plaza who gave window space to display them, also the donors of the prize money who made the contest possible.

Leaving the best to the last, an extra special thanks goes to John Hayward Lown who has given freely his time and talent to do a wonderful job of our posters, judging our contest and presenting the awards to the winners.

Tuesday Morning Group
The ladies of the Tuesday Morning Group express their thanks to Mrs. Reva Fox from the Mental Health Clinic for coming out Tuesday of last week and giving a most interesting talk on children's problems. She suggested some excellent books as references and gave some important rules for childproofing a home.

Along with her qualifications as a child counselor, Mrs. Fox has the experience of being a mother of two teenagers. She mentioned how important it is to spend time with our children in their early years. She described the 'do's and don'ts' of bringing up a child, all of which help to establish a rapport and give a favorable development.

Following Mrs. Fox's talk the group had a very enlightening discussion which helped give answers to a few of the problems posed. Time passed quickly as the meeting was so interesting and it was most difficult to terminate the discussions.

For the meeting on Tuesday the ladies will be exchanging ideas for Christmas gifts, etc. Anyone who is making something for Christmas is asked to bring along the item or the instructions to share with the group. The ladies are looking forward to some very interesting projects. For further information call Mary Norcliffe at 832-1324.

Senior Citizens
With other members of the Vaughan Senior Citizens Club, members of the Maple Club headed out in the stormy weather Tuesday of last week for the Royal Winter Fair.

The Senior Citizens Monday at noon will celebrate their Fourth Anniversary with dinner at the United Church Hall served by the ladies of the church. This is quite an occasion, as this is now four full years that the Senior Citizens of Maple have had the privilege of meeting together for fun each Monday afternoon, with the exception of holidays and the summer months. Special speaker for the event will be Stanley Snowden of Maple United. He has become a treasured friend of the seniors, rarely missing a meeting since his arrival in Maple. His special efforts have not gone unnoticed, although thanks may not have been too vocally expressed.

The "Welcome Home" signs on the doors of the church hall when the members have arrived home from their longer trips, as well as all the other personal and thoughtful things are truly appreciated.

In the excursion department, at least one, if not two, shopping and colored light tours are in the planning stages for December 5 and December 12. These dates are the first two Tuesdays in December, and all interested in an afternoon at a shopping plaza followed by supper and then a tour of the colored lights of the residential and commercial areas of the city should have their names in as soon as possible. The group is now able to travel with members from Woodbridge

Kleinburg - Nashville and King City as well as Thornhill. Passenger lists should be organized as soon as possible. Because the actual mileage has not yet been determined, cost cannot be set. But we expect to do this trip for less than $4 per person bus only. Meals at the discretion of the individual.

WI
The November WI meeting was at the home of Mrs. Carrie Reade with 18 members present and one visitor. The roll call was responded to with "What good deed did you do this week?"

It was decided to hold the euvres again this year, beginning after the New Year, with the ladies making up their own tables. Mrs. Gertrude Stephenson is taking care of the general organization and getting the program underway and Mrs. Margaret Jackson is to be responsible for scores.

Mrs. Jean Robson was secretary for the meeting in place of Mrs. Doris Payne, who was attending the WI convention at the Royal York Hotel in Toronto.

After the Opening Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect were sung, all joined in singing happy birthday to Mrs. Lulu Leece.

Mrs. Ethel Hardwick and Mrs. Pearl Jarrett were responsible for the interesting program. Mrs. Hardwick gave a reading on Modern Education and a poem was read about "The Disgruntled Teacher".

Mrs. Hardwick introduced Miss Betty Jackson who played a recording of school days as they were 100 years ago and as it could be 100 years from now. The general feeling was one of relief and satisfaction all had completed their schooling by now. Betty then showed slides of Maple and some of the Senior Citizens on trips that they have enjoyed.

Mrs. Stephenson thanked all for taking part in the evening program and everyone enjoyed a lovely lunch served by the hostess and the lunch committee.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Det Palmer, 26 Church Street, Maple, December 13. The Roll Call at the Christmas meeting will be the exchange of gifts and the program will be under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Andrew and Mrs. Florence Marwood. Lunch will be prepared by Mrs. Pearl Brown, Mrs. Margaret Penlington and Mrs. Lulu Leece.

Mystery And Horror Pervade A Quiet Village When Mergrimum Wails

Young Canada's Book Week was celebrated at the Vaughan Public Libraries from November 15 to 22. Young Canadians are encouraged to browse through these suggestions from the Junior and Young People sections:
NON-FICTION
Carolyn Meyer, The Bread Book—A funny and exciting story about the history and tradition of bread and bread-making.
Jo Christensen, Needlepoint Simplified—These easy needlepoint ideas are great as Christmas projects.
Virginia Ellison, The Pooh Party Book—Lots of Pooh-bear ideas here to sparkle party food, favors and games.
Jack Prelutsky, Toucans Two, and Other Poems—Quick and clever verses about unusual animals.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FICTION
Louise Montgomery, Anne of Green Gables—The whole series of 'Anne' books are perennial favorites, encompassing the charm and local color of rural Prince Edward Island.
W. E. Butterworth, Crazy To Race—Professional car racing is the theme of this fast-moving story for boys.
Mary Stolz, Leap Before You Look—'Jimmie' has to grow up when her family life suddenly changes.
Eloise Jarvis McGraw, Greensleeves—Tired of travelling through Europe and the USA, Shannon finds herself sleuthing around an Oregon college town.
Benjamin Capps, A Woman of the People—With very little prejudice, the Comanches, captors of a young girl, are portrayed as the unique people they are.

JUNIOR FICTION
Frances Hodgson Burnett, The Secret Garden—Always a favorite, this story is about a young girl and a crippled boy who happily restore a hidden garden of an English manor house.
Judy Blume, Freckle Juice—A little boy tries to discover the recipe for making freckles.

Laura Fisher, Charlie Dick—A young boy grows up out West during the Depression.
Patricia Beatty, Hail Columbia—Set in the 1890's, a family is upset by a visiting aunt who is involved in 'Women's liberation'.
Ursula Moray Williams, The Three Toymakers—Old Peter Toymaker and evil Malkin compete for the King's prize in this 'modern' old-fashioned fairy tale.
Martha Bacon, The Third Road—The Craven children have exciting adventures with a unicorn and an eccentric grandmother.
Natalie Babbit, Kneeknock Rise—Mystery and horror pervade a quiet village when Mergrimum wails, and Egan tries to find out why.
George Panetta, A Kitchen Is Not a Tree—Tony finds a sick old black bird to be his pet.
Charlotte, Baker, Cockleburrr Quarters—When Dolph accidentally finds eight hungry little puppies, he and his sister are the only ones to look after them.
Mel Ellis, Caribou Crossing—Adventurous and hardy, two young men tackle a mountain pass to build a fishing lodge.
Bernard Waber, Nobody Is Perfect—Being perfect isn't easy, and maybe it's more fun not to be.
Jean Callan King, Miss Mehitable's monster—Miss Mehitable's monster fools everyone when it isn't so monstrous after all.
Carl Barton, Robber's Roost—Thea and Carol become detectives on an island off the coast of British Columbia.
Barbara Willard, The Sprig of Bloom—Mystery and riddles take Medley to the Tower of London in England's medieval days.

Area pre-schoolers are invited to story hour Thursday at 10:30 am for films, records and, of course, stories.

KLEINBURG KLARION

Municipal Elections
Richmond Hill Channel 10 has had some very good coverage recently on the coming municipal election. Several candidates were interviewed Thursday evening of last week and there is another Vaughan program arranged for today (Thursday).
There will be an All Candidates Meeting at Langstaff Public School at 8 pm November 22. This school is located on Yonge Street at Uplands Road in the north end of Thornhill.
Clothes Collection
A reminder that a used clothing department has been set up at Kleinburg Junior School. Please keep this in mind when cleaning out drawers and closets. It will be appreciated if clothes are clean and bundled according to size. A rack is provided at the school for hanging suits and coats, etc.
Bazaar and Bake Sale
There are two excellent chances this Saturday to stock up on Christmas goodies for the festive season ahead. Kleinburg's Humber Club is holding a bake sale and variety booth at Kleinburg United Church at 2 pm. A quick trip down the road to the Anglican Church at Woodbridge will give you plenty of time to see the bargains available for Christmas gifts, etc. This bazaar and bake sale is being organized by Mrs. Mary Kidd with proceeds going to HELP.
Scouts
Leon Richardson, secretary of 2nd Kleinburg Scout Committee, reports that there will be an annual meeting November 20 at 8 pm at Kleinburg United Church. Included will be a film, a question period, refreshments and election of officers.
The lucky draw for free gas at Hall's Gulf will also take place November 30. This draw is in association with the recent pumpkin sale.
Pioneer Village
Students from the open space at the junior school recently enjoyed a trip to Pioneer Village. Christine Hughes, grade 4, reports that she found the general store, owned by H. Baldwin of particular interest. Inside the store was a place to get your mail and since Mr. Baldwin was one of the few men who could read and write, he would read people's mail upon request.
High single flat with handicap was earned by Jack Kersey with 265 and 276 and high three flat was taken by Lorne Lloyd with 610 and with handicap by Clarence Brown with 672.

The ladies of St. Andrew's are busy as bees preparing for their Christmas Bazaar to be held December 2 at 1:30 pm with special notice to be paid to the location. Because of limited space in the church hall, the Bazaar is to be held in the Masonic Hall, Keele Street, just north of the stoplights.
With the amazing assortment of hand work, baking, preserves, special tables of interest to children and those on the Christmas theme, everyone should find something to attract their attention. For further details see the "Coming Events" column of "The Liberal".

Ladies' Bowling
The ladies' teams showed a big change in the standings Monday of last week. The Scamps and Rogues each took all seven points from the Scoundrels and Rovers. The Hobos and Rascals each took five points leaving the Beggars and Tramps with two points each. The standings are as follows: Scamps 11, Rogues and Rascals 10, Hobos and Tramps seven, Scoundrels five, Beggars 4 and Rovers 2.

The high single for the week was accomplished by Muriel Rose, with a score of 282. Det Palmer took the high triple with the top score of 773 and she now has a fantastic high average of 212.
The Pioneers Thursday of last week ended with Alex Bishop's team in top spot with 28 points, followed closely by Jim Craibe's team with 27 points, and Mel White down with 16, followed by Pete Craibe with 11. Obviously both Alex Bishop's and Jim Craibe's teams took all seven points from their opposition.

High single flat with handicap was earned by Jack Kersey with 265 and 276 and high three flat was taken by Lorne Lloyd with 610 and with handicap by Clarence Brown with 672.

ELECT ALBERT "Ab" HOLLINGSHEAD FOR GOOD LOCAL GOVERNMENT

VAUGHAN TOWN COUNCIL TO WORK FOR:

1. Greater citizen participation
2. Imaginative, controlled growth for Vaughan
3. Better communications between electorate and council
4. A ward system for Vaughan (as the best means of representation)
5. Improved law enforcement in built up areas
6. A continuing probe to relieve local property tax (especially for senior citizens)
7. To extend services: water, sewage, transportation, in areas of proven local need.
