KING CITY, OAK RIDGES LAKE WILCO X interest regarding people and events in the Oak Ridges Lake Wilcox and King City districts. Our news correspondent for King City is Norman Matthews, 832-1579; and for Oak Ridges - Lake Wilcox is Mrs. Louise Gore.

"The Liberal" is always pleased to publish items of Community Life In King City Area

Showbiz

for lead parts in its upcom- ers and cheese to please the rather rambling in his speech said that growth must be ing production of Cole Por- palate, 18 people had a most delivery. ter's "Kiss Me Kate" Nov- enjoyable evening. Guests The third mayoralty can- Murray Sheardown for should contact Ms. Cassel at the Beaupres. Pearce at 727-9125.

Women's Institute

Avenue. Mrs. Bruce Hall gave a Mrs. Austin Rumble was Heart. elected to the board of di- Donna's Bits & Pieces ed the guest speaker (Mrs. ing, "it lent itself to the mind. Trustee". She feels that fices at 1 pm school system. It was noted Hollingsworth Crescent. ies, Cubs, etc. At the con- December 2.

refreshments were served. | Kingerafts annual sale of Achievement Day for 4-H from 10 am to 4 pm. Girls was set for January 6 | A spiritual life retreat will at 1:15 pm at All Saint's An- be held from December 1 to glican Church.

Hospital Auxiliary were hostesses at a dessert Lewis Garnsworthy. Cost is luncheon, fashion show, and $19. many admirers and buyers, at the Royal York Hotel on The card tables were decor- the weekend of November ated with sand candles and 18.

delectable and very high in purchase of a return ticket calories and there was before departure, so they plenty for all the approxim- will be back.

ately 250 ladies present. On to the fashion show, This is the age . . . Of the presented by "The Parlor" half-read page . . . And the of Orangeville. The first model appeared dash . . . The bright night wearing a long red plaid kilt | . . With the nerves tight by Goray of Scotland with . . . And the plane hop .

frilled white blouse and red And the brief stop . . . And tailored blazer, followed by the lamp tan . . . And the a willowy brunette in a full span . . . And the big sport length flowing black jersey | . . And the good spot . . gown with a collar/hood. The brain strain . . . And The only accent was a gilt the heart pain . . . And the belt buckle. The gown was cat naps . . . 'Till the spring priced at $115.

ished pewter and very unus- and love. ual and attractive.

the fashions was the inclus- and Mary Lou of Martin ion of outfits for the older Street. and more mature woman. Some misprints which ap-One specific outfit was a full peared in our November 16 length pink hand-crocheted column were almost humorgown, custom made to meas- ous, but we apologize to ure in either Venetian wool those involved. Under or a cotton blend. It was "Church News", Mr. Ellis repriced at $85, and worn by ferred to "Outreach" not a charming grey-haired mo- "Outstretch"; and "On the ing which over 30 outfits Ward 1, not War 1. were shown, strong basic On the Political Scene: colours such as red, white A meet - the - candidates and black dominated the meeting was held at All fashion scene, with some var- Saint's Anglican (busy place, iations into shades of plum, these days) November 22.

grey and oatmeal. shown were by Beverini of Ted Rowe, all running for Aukie-Sant. One intriguing accessory Forhan, Ward 4; William was a full-length apron in Long, Ward 1; Doug Marchred and white printed cot- ant, Ward 3; D. Patterson, ton with matching pot holder | Ward 4; Ben Rough, Ward 5; and oven mitts priced at Murray Sheardown, Ward 2; $6.50. Several maxi-coats Robt. Strathy, Ward 2; Jack with tie belts were shown to VanLuyk, Ward 6; and Hugo complement the longer Walker, Ward 1.

fashion parade, several development of King Towngroups began to form four- ship should be carefully consomes for card playing. One trolled along the lines of ongst the tables seeking po- principle set out by the proker players. To each her vincial government's Toronown! Church News The CWL of Sacred Heart King City Senior Citizens, Church held a wine and and careful use of land and cheese party at the home of water. She spoke well and Paul and Sophie Beaupre on with confidence. Mrs. Brit-Melrose Avenue November nell was narrowly defeated interesting gallery of family King's history.

na Matthews; Brian and itics for almost 8 years, ment is the only answer.

red Heart Parish.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gilham was pal Heating Company in east to Highway 27. her talks on local history in Alcan News published mon- surance salesman. He has fill. King. Mrs. Gilham spoke to thly by Alcan Canada Prod- no past experience in poli- At this point the meeting A donation was given to fers to Principal's use of a concerning the gravel pits doughnuts with a question the campaign to prevent new flexible duct manufac- must be enforced, and that period following. Alcan material.

there should be a set time | December 1 is the 21st dates. and place for parents to dis- | wedding anniversary of | Ward 4 offers Dolly Pat- Laskay WI Euchre clusion of Mrs. Coburn's talk, The third Saturday of the villages". The Creative Block Print work will be December 2 3 at the Aurora Conference Centre. The retreat will be The King Branch of YCHA conducted by Right Rev.

card party November 21, at | Mrs. Mary Scott of Jane All Saint's Anglican Church. Street attended the 16th an-A Christmas Boutique of nual convention of the Counhand-crafted items drew cil for Exceptional Children

Christmas tree candles in Paul Jones and Don varying colors. The person Brooks, both in their 19th who was facing west (with year, left for Madrid, Spain, her back to the stage) was November 21. They flew by allowed to claim the centre- way of Iberian Airlines and piece. At our table, Mrs. hope to find employment Jean Hardy was the lucky and get to see and know Spain. The Spanish Gov-The assorted desserts were ernment insists upon the Words to remember .

quick hash . . . And the mad snaps . . . And the fun's Much of the jewellery done! So slow down and worn in the show was of pol- enjoy this time of festivity

Get well wishes to Myra One of the nicer points of Smith, daughter of Dave The appointment was ap-

Political Scene" Mr. Long Throughout the show, dur- hopes to be representing

Present were Margaret Many of the fashions Britnell, Donald Findlay, and Montreal, a new division of mayor of King Township. Bill Wilson, Ward 1; William

First to speak was Margar-At the conclusion of the et Britnell and she believes lone woman wandered am- the Official Plan and the to-Centred Regional Plan. She proposes housing for in the last election by the The Beaupre home is a now retiring Ken Mactaggart. warm and comfortable resi- She also proposes to be the dence; the living room an first full-time mayor in life with pictures of their Don Findlay was next on seven children over the the agenda. He proposed to keep control of taxes. He Ben Rough, an acclamation The Aurora Musical The- Enjoying cold duck, rose, leant heavily on his past vote in Ward 5 has 20 years atre Society held auditions and other wines, with crack- political experience and was experience in politics. He amongst other issues.

she attended at the Royal time on November 19 for teacher at St. Patrick's Rom- said council was all ready to York November 8, 9 and 10. Michael O'Brien and Gius- an Catholic School. He study recycling. He does She was one of 544 delegates. tine Rocca, both of Sacred spoke of controlling pollu- not like the policy on develtion but was not too know- opment. He said "trust ledgeable on the gravel pit brings obligation"

Church News

ember 27, 28 and 29. Held included: John and Philo- didate to speak was Ted Ward 2 spoke of water conat Emmanuel Hall in Aurora, mena Gilmour; Sandy and Rowe who is very conscious servation and called Schomthe auditions were scrutiniz- Brian MacDonald; Lorne and of his youth. He is only 23, berg River a "floating cessed by Musical Director Cathy Mary Scott; Norm and Don- but has been involved in pol- pool". Proper sewage treat-rectors for subdivision 8 at Norman Baird of King, question. He proposed the Last speaker for the evened pointer-stick for use in the November issue of the liam Long, a King City in- favor of recycling and land blindness through malnutri- tured by Flexmaster Comp- to move senior citizens from The question period was tion in India and South Am- any of Richmond Hill from King "is a shame". He is loud and voluble. Resentagainst paving the 17th al- ment over the closed meet-Mrs. Bruce Hall introduc- Norm was quoted as say- though time may change his ings was shown. There was no shortage of questions ask-Fred (Marg) Coburn, Board systems-building approach". On to Doug Marchant for ed and it appeared everyof Education Trustee. Mrs. | Council meeting on Dec- Ward 3. He also lacks ex- one present, including those Coburn spoke on "What is a ember 5 at the township of perience and agreed basic sitting on the stairway, were, ally with the other candi- for the moment anyway, cuss the problems of the Lorne and Vada Brown of terson, a concerned citizen Winners at the Laskay for 27 years, which is "why Women's Institute Euchre that school buildings are Cathy Eaton, daughter of I Am Here". "What is mor- November 10 were Pearl now being used for commun- Russell and Joyce of Dew ally right shall be done", he O'Brien, Eileen Hare, Jean said, and "we must remember the farmers and not just Jim Doneral and Fred Oak Ridges - Lake Wilcox ity projects such as Brown- Street will be 12 years old said, and "we must remem- McDonald, Thomas Walker, O'Brien.

of the King City Lions Club

elected at the recreational

(Susanne Levison) and baby artists.

cerned Citizen Of King continue until 4 pm.

son Mark of Vermilion,

GET OUT AND VOTE.

very active couple.

Our best wishes to Mr.

Correspondent: Mrs W. G. Jennings

Phone 773-5892

at the church service on Miss Judy Cooper was UCW have completed the Park from November 15 to plans for their trip to Nathan 19, to sit on the Society Of

Phillips Square; date, Dec- Directors For Municipal Recember 2, bus will leave the reation In Ontario. Judy is 5:00 pm. This has become an for this position in 26 years.

Alberta.

annual outing planned by Congratulations Judy.

the unit, and one that has proven very popular with the

Remember the toy drive

toys to be left at the church

Members of the UCW catered for the regular meeting

Correspondent

Is Honored

to report that Norman

Matthews, our news representative in King City, has been appointed to the directorship of the Construction Group of the

Purchasing Management

Association of Canada.

proved at a November 22

Hotel, Toronto.

meeting at the Park Plaza

Mr. Matthews, his wife

The new chairman of the

Donna and their young association will be chosen

from and by the directorship before mid-December.

family live in Maple.

"The Liberal" is happy

by December 10.

Rev. Lors Carlson of Rich- on November 21.

mond Hill was guest speaker | Neighborhood Notes

Many openings are still Margaret East; Denise and working with his father, Gor- Ward 2 is also the conavailable for persons who John Jones; Tony and Ruth don and with Sinclair Stev- cern of Robert Strathy. He would like to be in the VanDen Heuvel; Marilyn ens MP in the last election, said that we will have popchorus or assist in the stag- Magner; Naomi Degano; Jim He proposes a day care cen- ulation growth whether we Persons interested and Lorraine Peloquin and tre for working mothers like it or not. More trees planted will help with water 832-3269 or Tim Baker- A small auction sale was The first person running conservation. He said we

"concerned citizens"!

held with Brian East as the for councillor to gain the must look at recycling proauctioneer who had fun play- floor was Bill Wilson, run- gress. He was against the The regular monthly meet- ing husband-against-wife in ning in Ward 1. He spoke extension and paving of the ing of King WI was held the bidding. Making a brief about the hydro and sup- 17th. He said it was shame-November 21 at the home of appearance was Father Fred- ported the "no lines" policy. ful to realize that six senior Mrs. Ted Munroe on Hambly erick Brossler, priest of Sac- He said that hydro must be citizens have had to move compelled to look again. out of the area recently due Next was William Forhan to lack of accommodation. report on the Central On- Banns of marriage were of Schomberg, running for In Ward 6 Jack Van Luyk tario Area Convention which read for the first and last Ward 4. Mr. Forhan is a received an acclamation. He general manager of Princi- paving of the Concession 17 ing was Hugo Walker for Ward 1. He is very much presented with an illuminat- Weston, was mentioned in Following Forhan was Wil- against tree removal but in

Parents of children at Lake Wilcox Public School gathered recently at the school for the year's first Home and School general meeting and to meet the new principal Bob Anderson.

Officers of the organization include (from left to right), the WI at its June meeting. ducts Ltd. The article re- tics. He said that bylaws broke up for coffee and Sub-Committeeman Mike Naaposo, Program Chairman Mrs. Mary Ensor of 10 Willowbank Avenue, Second Vice-President

(Photo by Fawn) Ernest Ensor, Principal Anderson, Membership Chairman Mrs. Vanessa Collins of Park Crescent, Secretary Joseph Tanzos of Wilcox Street, President Mrs. Eileen Cable of Bayview Avenue, Treasurer Mrs. Eva Heide and 1st Vice-President Joe Heide of Bayview Avenue, Social Convenor Mrs. Linda Parker of Wilcox Road and Public Relations Officer Mrs. Penny Hunter of Fairview Avenue.

Lake Wilcox Home And School Meets New Principal

recent organizational meet- these); ing of the home and school association by the new principal Robert Anderson. These were as follows:

for Lake Wilcox Public (particularly these two skills the school;

• To stress listening

Neighborhood Notes

For the pupils to enjoy the home and school meeting included: Mrs. see their children's class-

To stress the basic skills To encourage pupils to gripe committee, but should son, Mrs. Marion McNeil, school environment.

night skating from 8:30 to 773-5929. 10 pm. Guest fee is $1.50. Tickets are available from Tickets are on sale for the Oak Ridges Lions are cur- Councillor Gordon Rowe was present Ward 5 Councillor members of the Guild of Our | candy house draw sponsored | rently holding a cheese sale. | a guest at the meeting held | Stewart Bell, who is seek-the New Year's Dance. Scouting Auxiliary. The any Lion and they will be Lions Hall in Oak Ridges on Bailie, one of the town's Music will be provided by price is 25c and they are glad to show you their book- behalf of Mayor William Laz- three trustees on the York the Wilket Creek. There will available from the Cubs and let and take your order. be a door prize and a buffet. Scouts. The draw will be The YCHA, Lake Wilcox- A meeting was held at also seeking re-election. Tickets are by reservation held December 11.

Oak Ridges Branch, is hold- Lake Wilcox School Novem- Many topics of interest to only. They may be obtain- The ORMHA wishes to ing its Christmas Party Dec- ber 22 at which several candi- people in the area were dised by phoning Ann Marshall thank all who turned out for ember 20 at the home of Mrs. dates running in Ward 5, cussed. Refreshments were at 773-4103. Dress is optional. their Christmas Bazaar, rum- Wendy Van Der Voort, 10 Richmond Hill, were present. prepared and served by mem-The UCW of St. Paul's mage and bake sale. Thanks Gallagher Avenue, Oak Regional Councillor Rowe bers of the Wilcox Activity United Church will hold their go to the many people who Ridges. They will be stuff- answered questions from Group.

The Evening Unit of the conference held at Geneva Christmas Meeting at the donated articles and who home of May Watts, "Hum- gave time to help make this berview". Nobleton, Decem- event a success. The Tudor Art Shoppe ing a Christmas Dance church at 12:00 noon and the youngest member, and Show and Sale, sponsored by December 16. Admission will should arrive home around the third lady to be chosen St. Paul's UCW recently met be by advance ticket purwith a good reception by chase only. For tickets about 300 people from the please call Connie Bestard at Mr. and Mrs. Milton Wells area. Winner of the draw for 773-5881. had a busy weekend, when a pair of paintings was Linda New members are invited they attended the final per- Parker of Oak Ridges. to join the YWCA TAB Proformance at the Royal Win- Twenty-four paintings and gram which has just begun for the Saugeen Indian Re-ter Fair on Saturday evening, about 440 tickets on the draw at the Lake Wilcox Public and on Sunday attended a were sold. The response to School. It is held every family reunion dinner at the this show and sale was so Thursday afternoon from home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph great the ladies are giving 1:30 to 3:30. For further Levison of Shanty Bay. Mr. thought to holding another information, call 773-5868. and Mrs. Walter Misick in the spring, featuring local A baby sitting service is provided. Come out and

Saturday there will be a "Take A Break" Alberta, were home on holi- sale of jams, jellies, pickles The Lake Wilcox Home preserves and baking in the and School Association will The Jennings Families re- upper room of St. John's Ang- be holding a Christmas ceived word on Sunday last, lican Parish Hall (Jefferson), Bazaar and bake sale Decemthat their Uncle Bert Coutts sponsored by the 125th An- ber 15. At the present time had passed away in Calgary, niversary Committee under members are desperately in the direction of Liz Flood. need of help from parents in The auditorium of all Proceeds will go towards the the area. If anyone has any Saints Anglican Church, King | church's celebrations which | donations for the white ele-City, was well filled on begin in January. The sale phant table or any baked November 22, when the Con- begins at 10 am and will goods or homemade items, they would certainly apprecsponsored an "All-Candi- Thursday, December 7, late them. For information dates" meeting. Remember there will be a general meet- or donations please call 773-

voting day, December 4. ing of St. John's ACW at 8 5868 or 727-1418. Vote as you wish, but DO pm in the upper room of the Due to uncontrollable circumstances the Bond Lake Each Monday night from 11 | Skating Club will have to and Mrs. Frank Bell of King to midnight the men of St. change the location of its Sideroad, Oak Ridges, who John's play either hockey or Saturday dance to Our Lady

UNIFORMS

Nurses, Beauticians, Waitresses

179 MAIN ST. DOWNTOWN NEWMARKET 895-4621

OUR FUEL OIL IS

Our quality Fuel Oil can mean the difference between a heated home and an economically heated home. Our Fuel Oil gives you complete combustion.

RAMER FUELS

189 CENTRE ST. E. 884-1313

The special aims this year of reading and mathematics have pride in their work and involve a sharing of ideas. Mrs. Carol Bolender, Gary The home and the school Grundy, Mrs. Sarah Hoover School were outlined to the because others enhance on To encourage individ- should work together for the Doug Kyte, Mrs. Marie Dunuals to respect themselves betterment of the child's ed- can and Mrs. Ruth Harbard. After a meeting lasting

> TEACHER INTRODUCED about an hour, parents visit-Principal Anderson said Teachers introduced to the ed throughout the school to Bond Avenue. More adults trics ward. New members Rowe said he thought that all shouldn't be defined as a Glenna Collins, Rod Ander- rooms to get to know their of the Annunciation Hall, ing stockings for the pedia-, those in attendance. Mr.

are needed for the Thursday are always welcome. Call candidates should be treated equally. Richmond Hill Regional | Also attending were the Lady of the Annunciation for by 1st Oak Ridges Ladies' If you are interested contact Wednesday evening at the ing re-election, and Warren

The ORMHA will be having a Christmas Dance | LIBERAL CALENDAR OF EVENTS FOR DECEMBER

For easy reference, cut this handy calendar of events out along the dotted lines and pin it to your kitchen bulletin board. Friday, December 1, 7 pm - King City United "Twelve Days of Christmas" Bazaar. Saturday, December 2, 10 am - 4 pm — Third Saturday of Kingcraft

Annual Sale of Work. Monday, December 4 — Municipal Elections. Get out and VOTE. Tuesday, December 5 - King Lions' Ladies' Night.

Tuesday, December 5, 1 pm - Council meeting at township offices.

Wednesday, December 6, 9:30 am - Good Morning Group Elections. Thursday, December 14, 8 pm — Council meeting at township offices. Saturday, December 16, 1 - 3 pm - Good Morning Group Children's Christmas Party. Tuesday, December 19 - King Lions' Son and Daughter Night.

Sunday, December 24 - CGIT Vesper and Candlelight Service and Christmas Eve Family Service. Monday, December 25 — Christmas Day.

Sunday, December 31 - New Year's Eve Hockey Association Dance, $15. couple.

Tuesday, December 26 — Boxing Day.

VOTE DECEMBER 4th

WILLIAM (BILL)

COUNCILLOR

FOR RESPONSIBLE REPRESENTATION

VOTING DECEMBER 4th 11 a.m. to 8 p.m.

parish hall.

son per week.

on December 5 will celebrate | broomball at the Bond Lake

61 years of married life. We Arena. All men of the parish hope for many more years of are included (young men, health and happiness for this too). The cost is $2, per per-

KING TOWNSHIP

ADVANCE POLLS NOV. 27 & DEC. 2

11 a.m. to 8 p.m.

MAYOR

COUNCILLOR DONALD

CANDIDATE FOR Widely Experienced

> ☆ Up-to-date on new systems Years of Service Work to the communities