LOOKING AROUND

Neighborhood Notes

We would like to remind our readers who shop in the Maple area that the appeal is out for a gift to be purchased and left in the box provided in several of the local stores for the mental health association to distribute to hospital patients in the area.

In the Maple Plaza, the Maple IGA, the European Delicatessen and Perry's Pharmacy are participating and at the four corners stop light the "Corner Shop" as well as Yake's Dry Goods are adding their bit to this gesture of goodwill at Christmas time. The feeling from having given to someone probably with no one of their own to remember them at this happiest time of the year is a part of the joy of Christmas.

Please keep in mind that these donations must be in before December 11 as they must be wrapped and distributed, a process which takes considerable time.

Congratulations to Mrs. Ella Mummery of 54 Nether-ford Road, the lucky winner of the Maple Plaza Draw for a $50 voucher, redeemable at any or all of the plaza stores. The draw last Friday evening was made at the Maple Drapery by Miss Betty Kucheraway at 8 pm and the draw this week will return to the Maple IGA, still at 8 pm Friday evening.

We would like to join with our friends and neighbors in extending a hearty Maple welcome to Katherine and John Coats who have moved to Maple from Alderwood. They will be living with Mrs. Coats' brother Paul Snider, who has moved, with them into the home at 3 Welton Street. Paul has been a lifelong resident of Vaughan and we feel sure that it will be a real change for him to be living in the village. We also know that he will feel right at home in no time. Welcome to all three.

The energetic people at the Maple United Church have organized an adult social group, which meets occasionally for an evening of fun.

A group of 20 or more enjoyed an evening of bowling at the community hall bowling lanes November 17 and the highlight of the evening was the discovery that Rev. Stanley Snowden is an excellent bowler, topping even Det Palmer by one point. Those who read the weekly bowling reports will know that Det holds the high average in the ladies' league.

Following the bowling the group returned to the home of Jim and Alice Darlington for a social hour and lunch.

This group, which is open to all adults in the community, and not restricted to United Church members, plans a skating party December 9 at 8 pm at the new arena, with those not wishing to skate, remaining at the United Church for games, and then all will get together for refreshments afterward.

A group of friends who make a point of enjoying each other's company once a month for an evening out, last week decided to take their husbands out for supper and an evening downtown. Ann Snowden, Kay Lighthouse, Marg Thacker, Marg Crook and Det Palmer enjoyed their dinner at Ed's Warehouse with their husbands, Stanley Snowden, Harry Lighthouse, Reg Thacker, Roy Crook and Lloyd Palmer, and then took the elevator to the top of the Toronto Dominion Centre. They were assured that they had chosen one of the very few evenings when the view had not been obscured by fog, smog or bad weather, and found the view truly breathtaking.

The only regret the group had was that Betty and Pete Rumble were unable to be with them for the evening of fun.

Members of the Tuesday Morning Group brought articles which they had made for Christmas Gifts to the November 28 meeting. Each gave their individual instructions to the group, resulting in some very interesting exchanges. Sheila West showed her patterns for men's ties, which she makes out of material scraps. The attendance was rather low, but was expected to pick up considerably December 5 when the group had a visit from Mrs. Ann Wilson on Christmas decorations.

Mrs. Muriel Yates and Mrs. Valerie Tinline are going to be giving the ladies some instructions on candle making December 12. With everyone in the Christmas Spirit, candles will add that finished look for the festive season. Non-members are invited to join in the fun and interesting discussions. Just call Mary Norelliffe at 832-1324.

Senior Citizens
An excellent turnout of senior citizens made the efforts of the ladies of the United Church to serve a delicious roast beef dinner well worthwhile, on the fourth anniversary of the founding of this most active group. Guest speaker was Rev. Stanley Snowden of the United Church, who filled the bill to perfection with his message of wisdom, tempered with his excellent sense of humor.

The seniors have received an invitation to the Christmas pot luck supper of the Maple UCV December 7, at 6:30 pm. Plans for the Christmas Shopping and colored lights tour are going ahead for December 12, leaving the United Church at 1 pm. Any other seniors not having their names down for this trip please feel free to call Mrs. Louise Cooper at 832-2408 this weekend in case of cancellations. Passengers need not be members. The cost of the trip to a shopping plaza in Oshawa and the lights tour will be approximately $3.50, with a stop for supper, at the discretion of the individual.

The Woodbridge and Kleinburg groups have not finalized their plans at time of writing, although they expect to co-ordinate with those of Maple, possible running the Woodbridge tour December 13 with Kleinburg either on December 11 or along with Maple December 12.

Church News
The young people of St. Andrew's Presbyterian presented the entire morning service Sunday with an entirely different approach.

The service was short and very much to the point with singing accompanied by the guitars of Gary Forrest and Michael Hills. Christine Burnett assisted on the organ. The congregation was unanimously in agreement that the effort should be repeated again before long.

The ladies of St. Andrew's would like to extend their sincere thanks to all who turned out on such a snowy stormy afternoon to help make their Christmas bazaar and bake sale such a huge success.

An apology is also extended to all those who were unable to get inside the hall, and to those who, although inside the hall, were unable to reach the tables. It is a wonderful example of the spirit of co-operation among the Maple churches that offers have come from both the other village churches to use their halls in the event of another such effort, since the Presbyterian Sunday school room is much too small, and prospects of expansion are impossible. Our thanks to those who offered their help and facilities.

The ladies of St. Andrew's have purchased a new Santa suit, and would like to take this opportunity of extending an invitation to Santa to call 832-2408 if he needs to rent a suit this season. For further details see the classified section of "The Liberal".

Bowling
The Pioneers on November 30 bowled for the following standings: Jim Craibe's team is out in front with 39 points, Alex Bishop following closely with 33 points, Mel White slipping with 19 and tied with Pete Craibe for bottom spot.

Horticulture Winner
Congratulations once again to Mrs. Olive Watson for her recent accomplishments with the Woodbridge Horticultural Society.

Members total their points won at flower shows throughout the year and Olive achieved the most number of Pete Craibe's team tied a game with Mel White's and each team won a game. With total pints, 4 points went to Craibe and 3 to White.

Jim Craibe's team took five points from Alex Bishop's.

High single for the evening was taken by Jack Kersey with 250 and high single with handicap by Al Rumble with 258. High triple also was taken by Jack Kersey with 655 and Cal Miller came up with the high triple with handicap with 698.

Ladies—On November 27 the ladies had four repetitious contests. The Beggars and the Rascals each took all seven points from the Rogues and the Scoundrels, while the Tramps and Hobos each took five points leaving the Rovers and Scamps with two each. As the teams are just past the halfway point of the second series the standings are becoming important: Rascals 20, Tramps 19, Hobos 17, Rogues 14, Scamps 13, Scoundrels 12, Beggars 11, and Rovers 6.

It was mentioned last week that at least 20 games were scored over 200 points. Well, the ladies have topped that with over 30 games of 200 or more, with some marvelous totals for the evening showing that this ladies' league has a terrific potential. Keep those strikes coming ladies.

With one game totaling 271 and three games totaling 773, the high single and the high triple for the week were accomplished by a new member of the league, Mrs. Audrey Ro's. With her high triple she managed to share top honors with Mrs. Det Palmer who attained the same triple just two weeks ago. Det still holds the high average of 209.
