NEWMARKET - Subdivision agreements have been finalized for two major developers. One is the second phase of Schickendanz Developments Limited's Quaker Hill subdivision, with 414 single family lots, 300 apartment units and commercial frontage on Yonge Street. The other is the Swanek subdivision (inherited from East Gwillimbury) for 209 single-family lots west of Sutton Road and north of Davis Drive. The latter will construct a new municipal community centre and the former will enclose the new municipal swimming pool in Quaker Hill.

In The Spotlight

Les Nicholls, Paliser Crescent South president of the executive committee said, "Church choirs have improved the calibre of their singing through the training they have received with this large choir. And the choir is raising the standard of music appreciation in our community."
I asked if the choir had a uniform dress. Mr. Nicholls said the ladies wear long black skirts, long-sleeved white blouses, and the men wear dark business suits, white shirts and black bow ties.
When I asked if Richmond Hill roses would be in evidence, I jumped the gun. Because until then Mr. Nicholls had been withholding a delightful surprise from Director Luka. Yes, courtesy of Mills Florist... one greenhouse which has made this the "Town of Roses"... all members of the choir will be wearing red roses from Richmond Hill at their concerts this year.
Just one last note, Mr. Luka advised me, "We can still accept applications from new members, particularly in the male section". Call 884-3825. This would, of course be for the Centennial Year Concert planned for Easter.

Break - In, Motorcycle Theft Convict Youth, Jail Juvenile

A juvenile was jailed three months and a 16-year-old was convicted of break, entry and theft over $200 and ordered to report weekly to the Richmond Hill Police Station until sentenced after an August 10 break-in at Greenwood Garage, 16 Industrial Road, Richmond Hill.
The 16-year-old James Derry of 168 North Taylor Mills Drive, Richmond Hill, in Provincial Court here Thursday last week, admitted the 10:30 pm hammer break-in and theft of a 1968 Triumph motorcycle.
7 Concession 9.
Leclair was ordered to report to the nearest police station every Wednesday and report back to court in a week to arrange a trial date.
FACED REVOLVER
Police reported the Penny couple returned home from the doctors to face a revolver and have their car plus two revolvers and $15 in coins stolen. Previously in two separate incidents they'd had Christmas Boxes and a hi-fi stolen. Their car was recovered in Scarborough and York Regional Police arrested

Court NEWS

14 YEARS JAIL
Ordering a pre-sentence report on the youth, Provincial Judge Russell Pearce noted the offense was serious and was a crime that could mean 14 years in jail. He told the youth to report back to court December 28, to report to the police station every Wednesday evening and to reside at home with his mother.
Police told the court a juvenile companion had been jailed. The boys had to be arrested and resisted instead of co-operating. They hid the stolen motorcycle valued at $750 near Bayview Avenue and 19th Sideroad where it was found and they were identified.
Gary Leclair, 22, of 126 Belamy Road, Scarborough faced a bail hearing Thursday and was released from custody pending trial on charges of break, entry and theft and robbery. The charges involved a November 30 Markham incident at the home of Roy and Margaret Penny of Lot

Stevens Asks End To Expropriation

Sinclair Stevens MP York Simcoe last week told a hearing in Toronto on the expropriation of lands for the proposed Pickering Airport, that the expropriation should be suspended.
The hearings, which have been called by the Federal Minister of Public Works are being conducted by J. W. Swackhamer, Q.C. the federally appointed officer hearing objections to the airport.
Stevens said that the results of a private survey showed that 63 percent of the residents in the Whitchurch-Stouffville area were against the airport, 31 percent supported it and 4 percent were indifferent.
He said he felt his election victory in the York Simcoe Riding was partly due to a protest vote against the airport.
Stevens also filed a letter from Opposition Leader Robert Stanfield, who said he "remained convinced that the case for a second airport has not been made".
In the event the Trudeau Government persisted in building the airport, there were five points it should consider, Stevens said. These were: Residents within the neislands ought to be given the option of selling their properties at a fair market price or retaining them, those who choose to retain their property should be entitled to soundproof them at federal expense, the Town of Whitchurch - Stouffville in particular, and the Region of York in general, must be given assurance from the federal government regarding the amount of federal aid to be made in the form of administrative and other federal buildings, an airport authority should be established at federal expense to deal with future complaints from residents in the area regarding noise, pollution, property damage, etc. from the airport, York Region must be given the right to approve all runway locations, flight patterns and hours of airport operation. Also regional representatives should be invited to attend planning sessions with airlines using the complex to ensure that a portion of future airline facilities will be built in York Region.
