Christmas Season Child Safety Threat Says Fire Chief

"Christmas brings temptations to many parents, while visiting with neighbors or completing last-minute shopping, to leave small children unattended for short periods," says Richmond Hill Fire Chief Robert Kennedy. "At the same time, decorations, trees and wrapping paper bring an increased threat of fire danger unless constant care is exercised."

Richmond Hill Free Methodists Honor Pastor Rev. David Dyer

It is not easy to surprise Rev. David Dyer, but family and friends succeeded in doing so November 24 at the Richmond Hill Free Methodist Church on Hillview Drive. What the pastor thought was to be the first night of a missionary conference turned out to be a program on the theme, "This Is Your Life — Rev. David Dyer".

One of the biggest surprises for him was the presence of Mrs. Lil Hall, Weyvale, his primary school teacher. Also taking part in the program were many friends, schoolmates and family members from Windsor, London, Kingston, Belleville, Athens, Timmins, Verona Welland, Barrie, Weyvale, Peterboro and Toronto. The honored pastor was presented with a plaque commemorating the occasion and bearing the words, "We appreciate you. Friends and members of the Richmond Hill Free Methodist Church."

Richmond Hill High School News
By DIANA COOK
Third Year For "OPTIMUM"

The school newspaper "Optimum" is this year celebrating its third year of publication. Three years may not seem a very great length of time to some, but considering the amount of student support the paper has received in the past, it is an accomplishment worth noting.

Tim Buell, who along with Steve Tennant, founded the paper in grade 9, hopes to turn out approximately six issues this year. But their existence of course will depend on the number of people who voluntarily put pen to paper. Just to alleviate any fears of literary incompetence, the finished article definitely need not be a polished work of art, and the range of topics is wide open.

The drama club, after three weeks of readings, has decided to do "Berkeley Square" by James Bolderston. Rehearsals will begin immediately and continue for the next four months. The play revolves around a young man who travels back in time to the England of the 1800's.
