WHAT DOES A HOME

Harry Sadler, F.R.I. Typical home buyers are not just buying bricks and mortar and a lot; they are buying a HOME that suits them emotionally and financially and meets decides how valuable a service he supplies his clients. This means more than simply knowing the price. number of bedrooms, probable financing and whether the listing price is firm or open to an offer. Unfortunately, this limited information is frequently an unprepared salesman's total store of information. A competent Realtor should be able to furnish his clients with reliable information as to the age of the house, square feet of living area, exact room sizes, lot size, tax bill, utility bill for heating, nearest
