Maple, please phone Mrs. Louise Cooper, 832-2408; in Concord, Mrs. Carol Cole, 889-4379; in Kleinburg, Mrs. Gayle McCormack, 893-1856; in Teston, Mrs. Connie Brown, 832-8817.

LOOKING AROUND

Again this week, we ask those who have items of news to contribute to this column, to be sure to get their material to us by Friday morning before the New Year's Holiday weekend. We also urge any of our readers who have been away visiting, or who may have had out-of-town visitors during the holidays to give us a call.

We would also like to wish our readers a happy and healthy New Year for 1973.

Last week, the piano students of Mrs. Ron Wilson of Netherford Road, put on their first piano recital.

The children have been taught the composition of music, and each presented an original of their own, then played solos and duets, and played for Christmas Carol singing.

Cindy Jane Cook, Laura Wilson, Bruce Murray, Paul Wilson, Valerie Stephenson, Michelle Fortin and Kerry Wilson enjoyed their participation in the recital, with Chris Cook, confined with chickenpox, missing the event. We do hope that Chris has completely recovered, and will be able to enjoy his holiday.

Senior Citizens
An excellent number of seniors turned out for the Christmas Program, December 18.

The afternoon began with two minutes of silence in memory of Ed Borrett, a member of the club, who had passed away on the weekend. Mrs. Noble at the piano, followed the silence with a verse of "For All The Saints".

While still at the piano, Mrs. Noble opened the meeting, leading the singing of The Maple Leaf and then a happy birthday to Mrs. Miriam Lepper as well as to herself.

Following the business portion of the meeting, when reports were heard that Mrs. Gladys Maginn, still in hospital in Peel Memorial, Brampton, was holding her own and that Mrs. Ethel Kerswill, also still in Our Lady of Mercy Hospital in Toronto, appreciated the cards, letters and visits, apologized for not being able to answer them all.

Also during the business, the group voted unanimously to reject the invitation received by the United Senior Citizens to join the federation. The Maple folk seem quite happy to remain in their present state.

A Christmas Program was presented with Mary Errington reading "A Prayer For Today" and a second reading followed by a guessing contest. Florence Marwood gave an excellent reading, followed by one by Barney Bryan on the Christmas "Ideals". An impromptu period of story telling followed when several members were courageous enough to tell of humorous incidents they had experienced.

A surprise visit from Santa Claus was the highlight of the afternoon, when bags of fruit and candy were given out as well as gifts. The seniors expressed their appreciation to Barry Young, recreational director of Vaughan, who filled in as Santa, adding a lot of fun to the meeting.

Following the fun, Santa began the singing of Christmas Carols, while Rev. Stanley Snowden revealed still another talent when he, accompanied by Mrs. Noble at a piano, played the violin and sang.

The members were told that there will be no meeting during the holiday season, and meetings will resume January 8 at 1:30 pm.

Guides and Brownies
The girls enjoyed Christmas Parties last week with the Brownie Pack and their Leader Mrs. Doris MacCallum, holding their Monday afternoon.

The girls had made their mothers corsages for Christmas gifts, and exchanged gifts among themselves. Each pack performed, with four packs doing plays and one singing "Away In A Manger".

Refreshments followed. After supper, the Guides with Captain Mrs. May Fortin held their party with mothers on hand.

The Guides exchanged gifts and presented their mothers with gifts and then each patrol put on a play for their parents. A game was played in which the parents participated and a Christmas Carol was sung before refreshments were served.

While the children led in the singing of Christmas Carols, Santa was on his way, entering while Robbie Hudson played "Jingle Bells".

Monday, December 18, the ladies enjoyed Christmas get-togethers in each team, and then bowled the following contest—The Hobos and Rogues each took seven points leaving the Beggars and Scoundrels with none.

The Rascals and Tramps each took five points, leaving the Scamps and Rogues with two each.

This leaves the teams standing for the winning of the second series with the Rascals on top with 37 points, The Hobos in second place, and actual winners of the second series, with 36 points. The Tramps followed with 26, the Scoundrels with 23, Rogues 20, Rogues 19, Beggars 18, and Scamps 17. Alice Abraham took the honors with a high single of 313 and Barb Gauthier took the high triple with 717, bringing her high average up to 211.

Winners of the Christmas cheer were Det Palmer, Donna Azzolin, Pat Johnson, Marsha Ulrich, Katie Snider, Lorraine Lariviere, Bonnie Prince, Doris Roberts, Marg Passer, Ann King, Bertha Ingram, Brigitta Weidenfelder, Pat York, Joan Slusarchuk, Betty Prince and Marg Crook.

Valerie Stephenson began the program with a piano solo of "Silent Night". Jamie Carter gave his recitation of a "Ford Car".

With Nancy Snider at the piano, the grade 7 class sang "Jolly Old St. Nicholas". Lindsey Creighton played "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen", and Kim MacCallum read "The Night Before Christmas". Lisa Hudson played "White Christmas" and brother Robbie played "Rudolph, The Red Nosed Reindeer".

The Explorer girls gave a presentation with the letters in CHRISTMAS and Kellie Hudson played a piano solo of "Winter Wonderland".

Highlight of the evening was a presentation of "A Christmas Carol" by the grade 8 class and their leader, Mrs. Bruce Snider.

Kleinburg Klarion

Congratulations to Joan and Murray Todd of Kleinburg Estates on the birth of their first child, a boy, Jason Murray, weighing in at 8 pounds, 13 ounces.

The staff of Kleinburg Junior School enjoyed a luncheon at The Doctor's House on December 21.

If Gayle Watson is seeing double these days, it may be because she has recently gone from helping her parents sort huge mounds of Christmas mail at the post office, to counting fish at the Department of Lands and Forests in Maple. It seems that they are developing a species of hybrid fish, and it is Gayle's job to keep track of the fish through to the adult stage.

Many thanks to George and Dorothy Watson for "getting the mail through" at least in and out of Kleinburg.

Christmas Concert
There was a large turnout on December 19 when students of the senior school entertained families and friends with excellent performances of Scrooge, directed by Mrs. Linda Kelly, and the Christmas Story, directed by Eric Jacobs.

Grade 6 students, plus those grade 7 and 8's in the music elective performed in the Christmas Story, while Scrooge was played primarily by students in the drama elective.

The Star Santa Fund is approximately $200 richer, due to the efforts of Mackenzie School pupils over the past few weeks.

Students have organized and participated in a series of marathons, plus two marathons. The marathons were a Talkathon, Silenceathon and Chewathon, in which participants were sponsored for every 10 minutes of talking, silence and chewing gum.

Winner of the cake in the bake draw was Mrs. Benson, school secretary. Jim Turnbull was the lucky winner in the draw for a radio.

Despite a very heavy fall of snow December 15, every member of the Humber Club made it to the Christmas Party at Kleinburg United. Ladies of the church served a delicious dinner, after which Santa Claus surprisingly appeared and left a candy cane beside each plate.

Winner of the door prize, a Christmas Cake, was Mrs. Farr of Nashville. Mrs. Homer Elliot of Woodbridge, won the quilt draw. Tickets for these were sold at the recent bazaar and bake sale.

The next meeting of the Humber Club will be January 2, with bowling in Nobleton on January 4.

Reminders
There will be a luncheon HELP volunteers on Thursday, January 4 at 12 noon. Guest speaker will be Mrs. K. Clancey from the Alcohol and Drug Addiction Centre.

A trail ride and cook out have been organized for adult members of the Snow-drifters on December 29 at 8:30 pm.

Don Head Secondary School DON HEADLINES

Fitness Awards Assembly

Written by the students of E. 35

On the morning of November 21, all staff and students of Don Head Secondary School attended a special Canadian Fitness Presentation. Awards from the Canadian Government were given to students who did well on the six fitness tests.

These tests involve speed sit-ups, standing long jump, shuttle run, 50 yards, 300 yards and flexed arm hang, which give a fair indication of general fitness. Awards are given to students who have four scores in an award category. The categories are: Bronze, Silver, Gold and the Award of Excellence.

In the assembly, Tom Prier, head boy of the Student Council, led in the opening exercises. Some of the best students demonstrated the fitness tests. They were: Mark Morrison, Merle Jackson, Charles Brown, Pam Fehr, Julie Parish and David Polley. Following the demonstration of the tests, other students participated in some enjoyable activities to show that "Fitness is Fun".

After the demonstrations were finished, the awards were given out by the physical education department staff. An Award of Excellence was presented to Mark Rogerson by Principal Charles eath, who read a letter from Minister of Health and Welfare John Munro. The letter congratulated Mark for his outstanding performance on the tests; not many people can receive an award like this and therefore it was a honor for Mark.

This was the first year the school had an assembly for these tests and we hope they will continue to do as well in the future.
