NORTH YORK—A total of 1,124 cars were stopped during the New Year weekend for spot checks by a full complement of men on duty from Friday morning until 6 am Tuesday. Only three people were charged with drinking and driving offences but 195 others were given tickets for a variety of less serious offences and 123 accidents were investigated. The 195 offences were generally defective lights and horns or missing licences or insurance certificates.

Senior Citizens
 The seniors had their first meeting of this season January 3 with only 16 members present; some of them being still on vacation with families. However, the few that were there had fun!
 Next meeting will be January 17, 1:30 - 3:45 pm. Newcomers are most welcome.

During the holidays, the seniors learned with regret of the passing of Mrs. Sybil Donaldson, Carrville Road, a longtime resident of the area. They express their sympathy to Mr. Donaldson, who was once a member of Richvale Senior Citizens.

Lions & Lionettes
 The New Year's dance at the hall, 31 Spruce Avenue, was a huge success, attracting people from as far away as Detroit, Northern Ontario and Toronto, and of course the immediate area.

Tyke hockey starts up at the rink on Spruce Avenue January 14, at 10 am. This is being run by the Lions, as one of their many services to the children of the area.

The new majorette corps is attracting many young girls from this vicinity. There has been continuous registration for these classes which resumed January 9. The Lions are very happy to sponsor this and to find it growing in popularity, especially with the Centennial celebrations and parades taking place in Richmond Hill during the spring and summer of 1973.

The Rangers had their first meeting for 1973 January 3. They have decided on a mother and daughter banquet to be held some time in February, and to include the Guides and Brownies as well as themselves. This will be an annual event. A card party is also in the planning stage.

In June, the Guides in the York area will have a float in the parade for Richmond Hill Centennial Celebrations. The Rangers will be in charge of making the float.

Cathy Norton, Anna Ricci, and Marg Schramm are now working on their pre-enrollment.

Church News
 January 7, members of Emmanuel Anglican held a luncheon reception for Rev. and Mrs. George Young in the parish hall. This was the last service for Mr. Young as rector of the church. The members were anxious to show their appreciation of his great contribution to the parish during his ministry with them and to express the affection they felt for both Rev. and Mrs. Young for their guidance, friendship and availability.

People's Warden Ralph Day presented a "purse" from the congregation and Michael Reeve a gift from the Sunday School, Wednesday evenings.

The ACW will be holding their annual meeting and election of officers at 8 pm, January 16.

The two afternoons of free family skating arranged by the Richvale Minor Hockey Association during the holidays provided a lot of fun for all who were able to go; a pleasant diversion from sitting at home watching TV. The damp, foggy weather did not afford the ideal outdoor recreational facilities. The usual enjoyment of skiing, tobogganing, or pond skating were out of the question between Christmas and New Year's.

School Bulletin
 January 8, the Richvale Nursery School mothers held their meeting at Emmanuel Church. Just prior to the holidays, the nursery school children enjoyed a visit to the dental clinic on Church Street. Each child was given a toothbrush.

There will be a film in the library, Pearson Avenue, at 10 am, January 30, of which the school has been invited.

YWCA
 Winter program brochures may be obtained from the library, Pearson Avenue, or from the YWCA, 25 Yonge Street.
