Rams On Win Track Shut Out Ajax 5-0

A two-game losing streak isn't the end of the world but when you're not used to that kind of action it kind of worries you.

So be it with the Richmond Hill Rams who snapped that two-game losing streak Sunday night with a well-earned 5-0 victory over ninth place Ajax in a Provincial Junior "A" game in Ajax.

The game also saw the Rams' Goalie Gary Carr picking up his sixth shutout of the season which is by far the best record in the league. Carr was ably assisted by his teammates who came up with a tight defensive effort all the way.

Coach Karl Brimblecombe still isn't about to smile too broadly because his team has run into a rash of injuries combined with recent flu attacks that have inspired nothing but grimaces from him the past two weeks.

"We've got seven players carrying injuries of various kinds," he said. "We're playing five of them simply because we need their bodies. We try to take turns resting them but you're limited to what you can do."

Out of the line-up with a back injury is big Alex Pirus. He was joined after Sunday by fast-skating Pat Hughes.

"Pirus has been trying to play with the injury and, of course, it's affected his movements out there. Sometimes he doesn't appear to be going all out but that's not a fair observation. He's been hurting and can't go out. He'll be out of the line-up for two or three weeks."

So it goes. Coach Brimblecombe has been forced to juggle his lines and on Sunday night it turned out to be just what the surgeon ordered.

The Rams came up with a good game led by the newly formed line of Glen Sharpie at centre, Dave "Digger" Dunkley at left and Craig Terry at right wing.

Sharpie responded with two goals and two assists with Terry getting the other one on that line including three assists to go along with it. Dunkley chipped in with a goal also with the "Fish" Story And A Half!

Thirteen-year-old Dan Lang, who "hardly ever fishes" found himself with a whale of a fish story to tell following a Christmas Holiday visit to Fort Lauderdale, Florida, to visit his grandmother. Dan, who lives at 444 Marybay Crescent, Richmond Hill and is a grade 8 student at Crosby Heights Public School, is shown with his 31½ pound 45-inch Amberjack catch which he hooked himself. Dan went deep sea fishing about the "3T's" with Captain Bill Tims out of Bahia Mar Yacht Basin. He will receive a citation from the Fort Lauderdale Annual Fishing Festival for his efforts.

Nats Maintain First Place Pace Tie Rangers, Wallop Fronts 8-1

The Vaughan Nats are riding high in first place with a four-point bulge but Coach George Storey isn't flourishing the trumpet over it.

"We're playing pretty good at the moment but anything can happen in this kind of a tight league," he said following Sunday night's 4-4 tie with the lowly North York Rangers at Maple. The tie followed an 8-1 thumping of Kingston Frontenacs in Kingston Saturday night in an earlier-postponed game and a 7-5 defeat of Weston Dodgers Thursday of last week.

"We had a rather easy win over Kingston and the team seemed to have a letdown against North York especially in the second period."

"We led 2-0 in the first and then sat back and watched the Rangers pour four goals behind us in the second period."

The Nats' outshot North York 24-12 in that opening period but were outshot 19-5 in the second which is indicative of the turnabout edge in play. Vaughan came on again in the third to score two goals to tie the game while pouring 19 shots on North York and receiving only five in return.

The scoring for Vaughan was evenly divided between Charles Hughes, Glen Barnett, Robbie Harris and Bob Osborne. Doug Herdridge, Glen Balfour, Bruce Anderson and Craig Chandler scored for North York.

"We were leading 2-0 when the flood-gates opened at 6:04," stated Storey. "They put three goals in on Bob Volpe in the space of two minutes and 41 seconds. It was a case of our defence failing to clear the puck from in front of Volpe's doorstep."

Chandler's goal at 19:20 was the fourth unanswered one of the middle session.

The Nats came to life in the third as Robbie Harris scored at 5:52 from Paul Clark. Harris jumped on a loose puck from 10 feet out and wheeled it home to make it 4-3.

The tying goal came at 19:02 when Roy Koopman outtraced the Rangers' defence to get to the puck on the end boards. He tossed it out into the slot and Bob Osborne was there to fire it home.

Storey was happy with his team's showing over all noting that "we seem to have the ability to come back. We only seem to play as hard as we can and we've been able to win that way."

The coach was happy with the play of Defenceman Glen Barrett as well as newly converted forward Ron Bobbette.

"We moved Ron up front and it's working out well. With him up there it gives us a balanced offensive with three good lines."

"Another player who has been going great of late is Mike Hammond. He has picked up some 19 points in the last few weeks and is playing a hard-nosed game which he can."

Storey figures his steady line has been the Cook, Bobbette and Clark one.

It was Bob Osborne leading the way Saturday night in Kingston with two goals with singles going to Mike Hammond, John Cook, Doug Barnett, Ronnie Harris, Paul Clark and Glen Barnett.

Thursday night of last week it was John Cook and Ray Koopman leading the way with two goals each. Hammond, Paul Clerk and Gary Gill scored the others.

Tonight (Thursday) the Nats go against Downsview in Downsview and then go against Seneca in Seneca Friday night and close out their road-trip with another game against Dixie Beehives Sunday night. Their next home game is February 1 against Aurora Tigers.
