Domik Signs With Dynes

It's official now. Richmond Hill Dynes Jeweller Manager Russell "Casey" Cripps can breathe easier. He'll have a team after all. Reason being the signing Thursday night of last week of Ace Hurler Bob Domik to an OASA Card for 1973. Big Domik had been rumored contemplating turning professional this summer with the proposed new Toronto entry but decided to stay amateur. Domik is shown "borrowing" Coach Cripps' back as he signs the magic card. Domik was chosen World's Top Pitcher with the Jewellers when they won that same universal title last season in Manila. It's his seventh season as a Jeweller. It's his seventh season as a Jeweller.

Kings Lose, Tie

The Oak Ridges Kings tied Cobourg in a Central Junior "C" game at Cobourg Arena Monday night by 3-3.

Ricky Hartwick, Dave Van Nostrand and Jeff Wood scored for the Kings.

The Kings kept taking the lead during the game only to see Cobourg roar back and tie it.

Sunday night the Kings dropped a 6-3 game to Bowmanville.

The Kings were slated for a return game against Cobourg last night (Wednesday) at 8:30 pm.

Tonight (Thursday) they travel to Port Hope for an 8:30 game and round out their 1972-73 regular schedule next Monday playing host to Port Perry at the Bond Lake Arena at 8:30 pm.

All About Louise

There's one special thing I'm adverse too. Adversity. I hate it. I want to be happy all the time. But I hear it comes to us all sooner or later. When it does you just hope it's one of those temporary cats. Takes a small bite out of you and then flies away for good.

Which is undoubtedly the sentiments of young Louise Brewer of 371 Alper Street in Richmond Hill. Louise was a star pitcher for the Richmond Hill Juvenile Mic Macs Softball Team this past season.

Car Talk

By IAN NEILL

Our new baby . . .

We call it the 610, although it says "1800" on the car. That's because it has a 1.8-liter engine. The 610 is Datsun's new baby, the first new Nissan model in five years. It's longer, wider and heavier than the 510, and has what Motor Trend calls "mini-supercar styling". Under the hood, it has a single-overhead-camshaft 4-cylinder engine — 108 cubic inches, compared to the 510's 97.3. The 610 is powered by a bigger (bored and stroked) version of the 510's powerplant, with 13 more horsepower. Four-speed gearbox standard, three-speed automatic optional; fully independent suspension, with coil springs all around; disc brakes in front, drum brakes on the rear.

Motor Trend's test driver drove the 610 two-door hardtop. Here are some of his findings:

"With independent suspension on all four wheels — an expense few economy car makers are willing to go to — Datsun could have provided the 610 with either a better ride or better handling than most of their competitors. Their choice — and from our viewpoint we cannot help but agree that it was the right choice — was for handling. It's way ahead of most everything else in its price range.

"Ride suffers little by contrast. The 610's front bucket seats have adjustable backrests, giving the driver a wide variety of positions to choose from for maximum comfort.

"With a preponderance of weight over the front wheels, we expected the 610 to lose some directional stability in our brake tests, but even with maximum braking at 60 mph, the rear wheels hardly slewed out of line.

"We like the 610. It's tight, solid, well made . . . rare qualities in today's car market. And if Datsun can keep the price in the $3000 range, it'll be a bargain in the bargain."

We have the 610 hardtop, sedan and station wagon, in an excellent collection of colors. Come in and check one out yourself. I've been whizzing around in a hardtop stick-shift, and it's a kick.

Rams Lose 5-1 Aurora Tigers, Slide To Third

The failing Richmond Hill Rams were rudely shunted to third place Sunday night for the first time this season when they lost a bruising 5-1 Provincial Junior "A" hockey contest to Aurora Tigers in Aurora.

Richmond Hill slipped into third behind the now second place Wexford Raiders who walloped North Bay 11-3 Saturday night. Riding high in first place at the moment are Vaughan Nats with 60 points to Wexford's 54 and Rams' 52.

"They came up with a real fine game," commented Rams' Coach Karl Brimblecombe. "They were just hungrier than us particularly in the first period."

It was the fourth game against the Tigers and the fourth consecutive time that the Rams have failed to win against Goalie Gordie Woolnough.

Woolnough, who was peddled to the Tigers from the Rams at the start of the season, was again a thorn in the side of his former teammates.

"Woolnough played well," acknowledged Brimblecombe, "but then the whole Tiger team came up with a strong effort. They're going to be tough in the playoffs. They've added four players, some of them with Major A experience, and they're tough. I wouldn't want to be the team to meet them in the first round."

Aurora, who outshot the Rams 34-27 on the game, opened fast to take a 3-0 first period lead on goals by Paul Bennett, Tim McGregor, and Ike Makos and in general toyed with the Rams.

Aurora's Tim McGregor made it 4-0 at 4:28 of the second and increased their lead to 5-0 at 6:03 on Makos' second goal of the night.

A fight between Rams' Mike Hartman and Tigers' Ron Shepherd at the 9:48 mark of the same period seemed to lift the Rams and they played on at least even terms with the winners for the remainder of the game.

Richmond Hill had a number of good chances early in the final period but were unable to beat their nemesis Woolnough. The Rams eventually became obsessed with trying to break the shut-out and finally did on Alex Pirus' low shot from the point at 18:28 on a power play with Brad Rhiness in the penalty box. Tony Belavance and Dave "Digger" Dunkley received assists on the play.

I just haven't had a chance to rest them." The Rams are eight points ahead of fourth place Dixie with only three games remaining and seem assured at this point of finishing no worse than that position.

This Sunday they travel to North Bay for a game with the Trappers and then are at home to North York Rangers Tuesday night in the final regularly scheduled game of the season. They close out their 1972-73 schedule against Vaughan Nats February 11 at Maple.
