

Conservation Tour
Rural Landowners

Rural landowners looking for ways to improve their acreage will find The Metro Conservation Authority has some sound ideas for assisting them.

The authority's land management staff will hold its annual conservation assistance tours at Palgrave Forest and wildlife area on June 9 (between 10 am and 3 pm). The program is for property owners with 10 acres or more within the watersheds of this authority.

The comprehensive conservation program will offer property owners opportunity to discuss their problems and ways that they can implement a program similar to that being carried out by the authority in its conservation areas. The program will cover such things as reforestation, shrub row planting, stream bank stabilization and stream and pond management.

Many farm properties in the Toronto area have been purchased for non-agricultural purposes and the assistance program will be of particular help to these owners.

For more information please contact Metro Conservation at 630-9780.

Figured In Hill
Stabbing, Charge
Man Child's Death

A one-time Richmond Hill resident who figured in a bizarre stabbing incident here in 1967, has been charged in the death of an eleven-year-old Cobourg area girl.

Gary Leo Genereaux, 29, of Trenton, was charged by Ontario Provincial Police with the stabbing murder of Michelle Keogh, who was found dead by her parents several hours after leaving a school bus last week near their home in the Grafton district.

The child had been strangled and stabbed through the heart.

In January, 1967, Mrs. Evelyn Thompson of Richmond Hill, was working in the Village Pizza Bar, Yonge Street South, when a lone customer attacked her, stabbing her three times in the neck.

Mrs. Thompson fought off her assailant, but not before he tried to knock her head against the wall. Mrs. Thompson screamed, and Bill McMullen, a security guard, and now court attendant at the Provincial Court House in Richmond Hill, who was coming to the pizza bar to pick up an order, chased the man, but lost him.

Police picked up Genereaux the next day at his Lorne Street rooming house and charged him in the stabbing incident.

He subsequently was convicted and received eight years. He was out on parole from a federal penitentiary at the time of the Cobourg stabbing.

Gambol'g Lamb
Gives Welcome

A pet lamb greeted about 50 women, composing the executive and all presidents of United Church Women within York Presbytery as they met at the home of Mrs. Jean Nauta, Lemonville, May 23. It was a perfect start to the meeting held in the beautiful country home with its many early Canadiana antiques.

In the chair was President Mrs. Jean Rumble of Headford and the worship service was conducted by Mrs. Marion Starr of RR 1 Gormley.

It was announced that a bursary fund has been started for Camp Big Canoe, that June 12 will bring a rally in Ravenshoe Church with the theme to be "Good News, Let's Proclaim It". The ladies were urged to do something about Sunday shopping. "Write your MP and let him know how you feel about it," was the advice given.

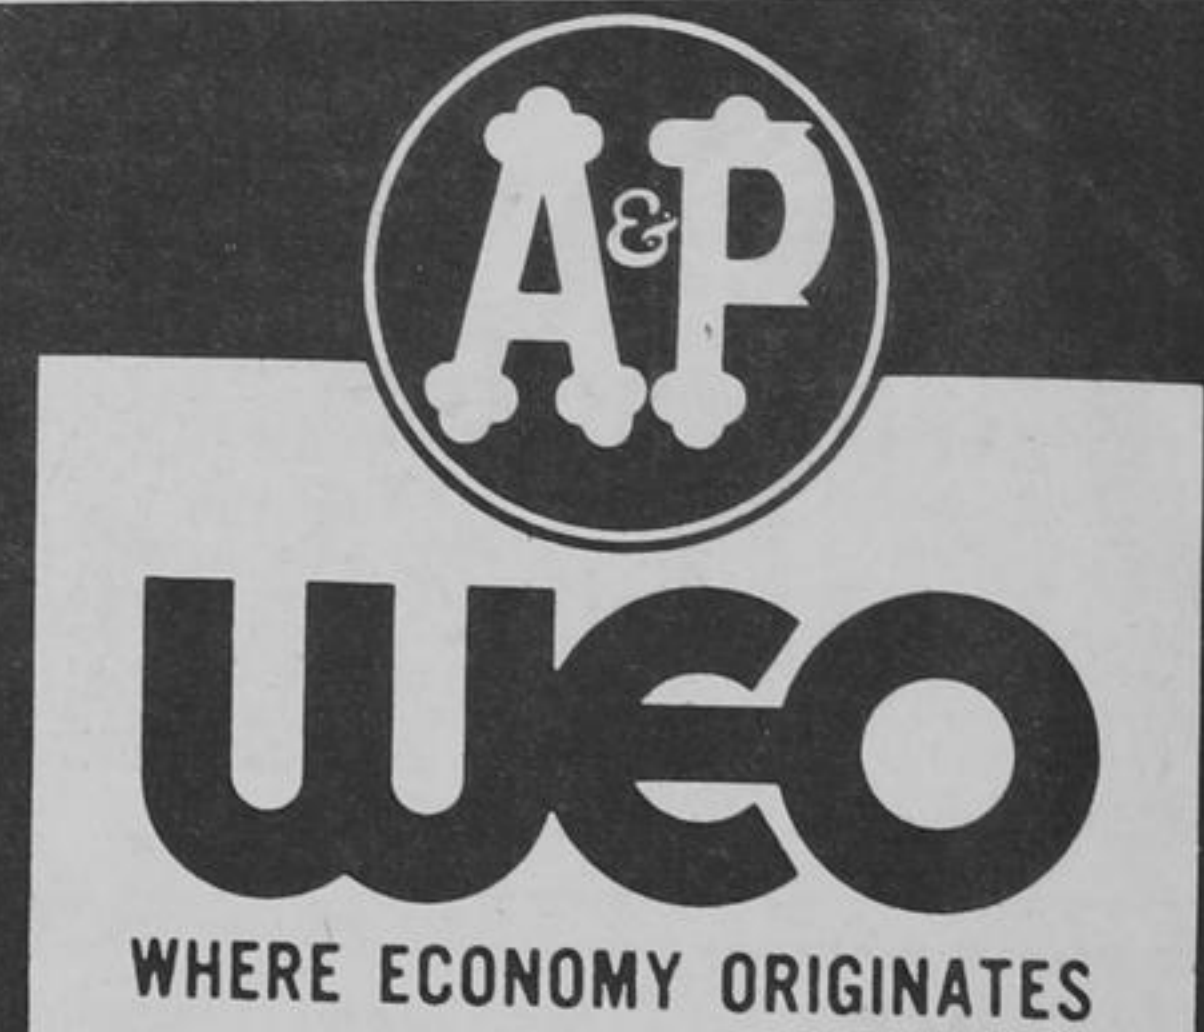

Smaller groups under the leadership of prospective vice-presidents—Dr. Margaret Arkingstall of Queensville, Mrs. Liz Flucker of King City, Mrs. Marion Starr of Gormley and Mrs. Mary Warren of Zephyr—were formed for discussions. Ideas from each UCW were exchanged and discussed, including free will giving, family services, Bible study, Key 73, mission study and money-making events.

At noon a delicious pot luck luncheon organized by Mrs. Margaret Jeffrey and Mrs. Iva Evans was enjoyed. Mrs. Muriel Graham of Aurora extended the thanks of the group to the hostess and those who contributed to the luncheon.

After reports by members of the executive, the group was reminded that for the next two years the mission study is to be "Mission Impossible — Unless".

NEWMARKET: Traffic lights for the intersection of Lorne Avenue and Eagle Street will be installed as soon as the reconstruction of Lorne is complete, regional councillor Ray Twinney told council. Lights for two other town intersections, Main and Walter Street, and Lundy's Lane, Prospect and Davis Drive, are under study.
