

Hisey-Luck

St. Mary's Anglican Setting For July Wedding Ceremony

St. Mary's Anglican Church was the setting for the July 28 wedding of Donna Mae Luck to Robert Bruce Hisey with Rev. John Coneybeare officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Luck, 239 Anzac Road, Richmond Hill, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hisey of Holland Landing.

The church was decorated with pink and white gladioli with satin ribbons marking the guest pews. Wedding music was played by organist Mrs. Estelle Markham.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white dotted Swiss over nylon taffeta. The floor length gown was Empire style with a mandarin collar and a row of small white satin buttons to the waistline. Her veil was of tulle bordered with white lace and topped with a tiara of rhinestones and her bouquet was a spiral arrangement of red roses, white daisies and white satin ribbon.

Bridal attendants were Mrs. Mary Hawkins as matron of honor, Miss Kathy Nicklas and Miss Colleen Treat as bridesmaids. Flower girl was Miss Traci Ingles.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids wore princess line long dresses of blue and pink cotton Swiss eyelet, trimmed with ribbons of pink and blue satin. Completing their outfits were white picture hats, surrounded with pink and blue ribbons. They carried nosegays of pink and blue chrysanthemums with streamers of ribbon to match. The flower girl wore a long dress of pink and white cotton with short puff sleeves and empire waistline. She carried a basket of tinted blue and pink daisies.

Attending the groom were Bob Hawkins as best man and Cliff Dunbar and James Zaeszer as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a long dress of mauve chiffon with underlay of mauve taffeta with a corsage of pinky-mauve orchids. She wore matching rosebuds in her hair.

The groom's mother wore a long dress of printed chiffon with a corsage of green-tinted orchids with matching rosebuds in her hair.

A reception, wedding dinner and dance followed in the Black Hawk Motor Inn for 45 guests. Among them were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Willis from Toronto.

For travelling the bride chose a red and white pant suit with a white wide brimmed hat, a red carnation and matching accessories.

Newmarket Merchants Want Main Street Turned Into Mall

Forty-one Main Street merchants recently petitioned Newmarket town council to turn the three-block area from Park Avenue to Water Street into a permanent shopping mall.

Frank Hempen, a Main Street jeweller, presented the petition. He said the 41 names make up 80 to 90 per cent of the merchants in the three-block stretch.

Target date for starting the mall would be sometime next spring, said Mr. Hempen. "It can't be done overnight. It needs careful study and planning," he said.

6-MONTH TRIAL
If, after a six month trial, the mall works, Mr. Hempen said he would ask the town to level the street area from storefront to storefront.

He also asked for municipal backing in the form of more parking areas, flower boxes, benches, potted trees and signs pointing to the downtown area.

Mayor Bob Forhan agreed with the petition, but warned extensive studies will be required to determine the solution to traffic re-routing problems and to determine shop-

Art Show, Car Rally Fall Color Journey

An addition has been made to the Centennial events scheduled for the fall, according to a report of Richmond Hill Centennial Committee meeting July 24. This will be a Fiat 124 plus 124 Rally sponsored by the Toronto Chapter of the Fiat Auto Club. Included will be a parade beginning at the Dominion Store and proceeding north to Richmond Heights Centre before the rally gets underway at 11 pm. The cars will be away from the town all night returning to the plaza in the morning, and breakfast will be served at the Black Hawk Motel.

Also planned for October is a color train trip to Gravenhurst October 14. Cost of 10 coaches to carry 600 people and a diesel engine would be $3,993, plus $220 for extra cars. A steam engine would cost an additional $900, it was reported. Adult tickets will be available at $10 each and children's (12 and under) at $5 each. A 5% commission will be paid the senior citizens for sale of tickets.

September 15 and 16 will bring the Canadian Artistic Art Festival to Don Head School. Miss Elizabeth Flood is in charge of the event.

per reaction before a final decision is made. He challenged the petitioning merchants to get a little action in this area, and called on them to bring in interim reports between now and spring on the backing the project can expect "when it gets down to a dollar investment by property owners in the shopping area."

COUNCIL COMMITTEE
Peter Hall, Bob Scott, and Randy LaMorre were the councillors named to work with the merchants.

Councillor Doris Blair, who totally agreed with the petition, said she feels council and the merchants should hold meetings, but not public ones, on the matter.

Councillor Tom Taylor said council was already working in this direction.

HI Co-ordinator Gets Green Light

Approval for Helpmate Information Services to hire a co-ordinator as requested in their budget presentation was given by Richmond Hill Council August 13 on recommendation of its finance committee.

Seven months salary and benefits, commencing September 1, have been provided for in the form of a grant.

Helpmate Information Services, which operates from the basement of the public library, combines Helpmate services of referrals to agencies which can provide assistance for those in need of it with a comprehensive information service.

By phoning 884-2727 residents can obtain information on almost every subject from files which have been prepared and are kept up to date. Much of the work of compilation of this information and co-ordination of the work has been made possible by a federal government LIP grant which has now expired. The phones have been and will continue to be manned, by volunteers who have been trained to handle emergency calls.

AURORA: Regional government with its plethora of professional experts has left town council with less work and more pay than ever before, Mayor Evelyn Buck announced in a speech to the Aurora Rotary Club. "The agenda is ridiculous," she said. "We manage to spin it out and just talk about the few things we have on the agenda."

The colourful new shows are coming. Watch them in colour.
