SQUIRT GIRLS
Thornhill Paint 23, Granada TV 17

The Thornhill Paint princesses, who dominated this division, wound up their regular schedule on a winning note, turning off the Granada TV gals. Thornhill Paint finished with an astounding 12 point lead over the second place finishers, Fry Basket and Keffer Realtors.

The Paints got a bye in the playoffs as the two second place clubs meet in the semi-finals this week. For Granada TV, "better luck next year".

Donna Flynn and Patricia Mallett each pounded out five consecutive singles to lead the league champs to this victory. Michelle LeFebvre starred for the departing TV gals, collecting four hits, including a homer.

Fry Basket 25
Keffer Real Estate 12

This could be a preview of the semi-final playoff game being played this week. However, the Keffer cuties will hope for different results. The win for the Fryers gives them a share of second.

Linda Nobert led her team to the second place slot by coming up with six big hits for a perfect night at the plate. Kim Miller and Sheila Goulet sparked the losers.

PEEWEE GIRLS
Dotties Copies 21
Gateway Mercury 4

Hats off to the Dotties Dollies as they crossed the finish line in first place. And they wound up their schedule crushing the second place Merces.

Kary Silverberg had three hits, including a triple, for the victors, while JoAnne Adams homered for the losers.

ALLEY CATS 6, 17
Copper Kettle 2, 8

In catching up their rained out games to settle third and fourth spots, the Alley Cats snatched a double header from the Kettle Kutures to sew up third place and the last playoff position. For the Copper Kettle players, well, they will have some extra time to prepare for school.

This week the Alley Cats and the Gateway Merces clash in the semi-finals, while Dotties wait in the wings for the winner of this week's game.

Anne Rozycki homered for the Cats in the first game and Sue Henry hit two of their five homers in the second go. Linda Skinner sparked for the Kettle Kidds as she had a total of four hits in the two games, including two circuit clouts.

BANTAM GIRLS
Parkway Hotel 14
Shoppers Drug Mart 7

The Shoppers Drug gals closed out their season, bowing to the league champion Parkway. The latter, sparked by Ann Marie Michkowsky in this win, will now await the outcome of the semi-finals being played this week between Thornhill Pet and Laureleaf Texaco.

LAURELEAF TEXACO 16
Thornhill Pet Shop 14

These clubs are meeting today (Thursday) in the semi-finals. The winner will meet the Parkway Princesses for the championship next week.

Their game last week had a dramatic finish as the score was tied 14-all in the bottom of the sixth and final frame as darkness was setting in. Sue MacKay smashed a clean triple with one out and she tried to stretch it to a home-run. She was thrown out at the plate. Next Fay Leroy doubled and Wendy Macpherson settled matters but good as she blasted a homer.

Linda Veijola starred in a losing cause for the pets, with a homer, a double and a single.

MITE BOYS
Royal Bank 7
Thornhill Building Supply 0

This game was defaulted by the Builders and the victory of the Bankers gave them first place to keep, one point of Fisher Brothers Sports. These two teams being first and fourth place finishers were to clash this week in one of the two semi-final contests.

FISHER BROS. SPORTS 22
N.S. Cyclones 5

For Norm Smith it's back to the old drawing board for next year. For Fisher Bros, it's tangle with the Lions who have not been hot as a pistol lately. Sorry, no details available on this game.

THORNHILL LIONS CLUB 17
Bill Best Tires 14

Gallant Bill Best Tires came to life late in the season. But it was too late to save their "rubber", even if they'd won this last game.

The Lions have a firm hold on third place and they met Fisher Bros. this week in the other semi-final. The Loos are being paced by David Gryfe who gained two RBIs with his triple, as did Ricky Reuse. Ricky Dionne homered. Ian Gregor homered and had two singles for the "retiring" Best team.

MINIMITE BOYS
Evertune 5, York Printing 4

Steven Issa's homer in the third inning sparked Evertune to nail down first place from York, their only rival. This also gives Evertune a bye in the first playoff round. York Printing, meanwhile, must go against Baker's Sales and Service this week. The winner will advance to the finals against Evertune.

Neil Thomas was the second place York's big stick with a single, triple and homer.

BAKER'S SALES & SERVICE 7
Sandgate Construction 0

It was their last chance to win a game this season but the Sandgate crew failed to answer the bell at the starting time. Thus they finish out their season with a perfect record—all losses that is.

This week it's Baker's and York in the semi-finals.

PEEWEE BOYS
Laurentide Finance 22
Gateway Mercury 4

It's congratulations to the money men as they are officially "top dollar" in their division. They cemented their lead by cashing the Merces, but good.

Dave Maxwell was the big gun for the winners, with two singles, a double and a homer. Many of the other runs resulted from Gateway errors. Shawn Craig had two hits for the losers.

GRANDVIEW BP 7
Dale's Discount Pharmacy 0

It seems that the Dale's boys wanted to get an early start of the off season because they failed to show up for this last game.

JAPAN CAR SALES 16
Golden Star Drive-In 13

This winning effort by Japan Car Sales created a two-way tie for the last playoff spot. Presumably fourth will go to Japan Car as they have more wins than the Stars. It's a tough way for the Stars to lose out, but the playoffs must start this week.

Assuming this is the case, Japan is going against Laurentide while Grandview and Gateway meet in the other set. In the final game Japan came up with six big runs in the third to shoot down the Stars. Kelvin Green starred for the winners and John Ibister featured for the losers.

BANTAM BOYS
Plaza Pontiac vs. Baythorn Power Equipment

In a different situation these teams were ready to play, but the ball park was out of order. Stan Rowe, division manager, declared the game cancelled and awarded a point to each team.

One more game in this division was to be played. This was between Thornhill BP and Baythorn. The BP boys require a win or tie here to go into a final playoff series with the Pontiacs. Otherwise it's curtains for them.

Metz boys who will now leave the scene until next season. Meanwhile the Flower fellows will rest up while Armstrong Hodge and PSA fight it out this week for the honor of being in the finals with the Florists.

Paul Howson was tops for the winners while Kevin Foster starred in the Metz last filing.

ARMSTRONG-HODGE 15
Provincial Service Agency 4

If this was to be a preview of the semi-final game played this week, PSA is in trouble. Armstrong-Hodge demolished the Agency quite handily.

Ian Morrison and Lindsay Pearlman featured for the winners and Lon Deyong shone for the losers.

TYKE BOYS
North York T.V. 30
Marshall's Shell 11

For the winners here it was the league championship crown. For the losers it means moth balls. In this game between the top and bottom clubs, the champs were paced by John Adam's four homer and one triple performance as they clobbered the lowly Shell gang.

A&M FISH AND CHIPS 17
Copper Kettle 10

Had Copper Kettle won this one, it would have presented problems for the league officials who must commence the playoffs this week. With a win the Kettle Kids would have held the last playoff spot while the Outlaws in fifth place would have been only two points behind with two games in hand.

As it now stands, the Outlaws and Kettle are tied in points. However the Outlaws got the fourth spot by virtue of the two games in hand, one being Marshall's. The Outlaws are pitted against the TV boys while A&M meet Music School.

THORNHILL MUSIC SCHOOL vs. The Outlaws

This game was cancelled due to insufficient players on hand. There's no significance in re-scheduling the contest.

MINOR SQUIRT BOYS
Saunders Publishing 9
Pacific Loners 6

A three-run homer by Jim Restrick, combined with good pitching by Jonathan Angel, sparked the defending champions and this year's league champs to victory over the Loners who wound up with the final playoff spot.

This week the same two teams meet in the semi-finals Seymour's Texaco 38
House of Chiu 24

This win for Seymour's stole second place back from the House which only held it briefly. These clubs were to meet this week in the second semi-final set.

Kevin Goble led the slug fest for the winners, piling up two homers, four singles and a double. Peter Webb homered, tripled twice, double, singled and walked for the losers.

FRAMUS GUITARS 26
Kelson Plumbing 19

In a "nothing game" David Gardiner powered the Strummers to a clear victory over the Plumbers, who never did get that "defensive leak" fixed. Joe Fudge starred in a losing cause. Both these teams now pack it in for another year.

THORNHILL FLORIST 8
George Metz Real Estate 7

The league champs squeaked past the last place

EXHIBITION PLAY
Pinecrest Speedway
All-Stars 5
Thornhill Florist (Squirts) 4

Last week we reported the contest between Pinecrest Speedway minor squirt All-Stars clobbering the PSA squad. This time the All-Stars went against the powerful squirt league leaders and were hard pressed to squeeze out a come-from-behind win over the Florists.

Thornhill Theatre Group To Audition Parts For Two Plays

The Thornhill Theatre of the Performing Arts is expanding, drawing members from Richmond Hill to Willowdale. It is also becoming more ambitious in its plans for the coming season.

In the past, the group has concentrated on preparation for one major performance in the spring. This year it will also be staging a Christmas holiday performance for children.

The season will start with a social evening September 6 at Thornlea Secondary School on Bayview Avenue south of Highway 7 to get together with new and prospective members. All people interested in the performing arts are invited.

Auditions for the big show, "Guys And Dolls" to be presented April 29 to May 10 at Hart House Theatre will be held on September 13 and will run each Thursday until all parts are cast.

Membership fees remain at $15, reports Publicity Chairman Jean Weiland of Santa Barbara Road in Willowdale, and these must be paid before auditioning for any part.

For the children, the Thornhill Theatre will be presenting a musical version of "Cinderella" at Thornlea Secondary on December 29 and 30. Members will have a choice of which show they want to do, and small parts can be taken in both shows, but a lead in one will not be asked to have a lead in the other, giving a greater number of people an opportunity to have leads and keep more people busy.

Acting is not the only concern of the group, however. There will be plenty of work for those interested in building sets, doing make-up, and other aspects of theatrical production.

Thornhill Theatre has attracted a number of secondary school students, reports Membership Convener Brenda Spearing of Benson Avenue, Willowdale. The students welcome the opportunity to train with the group which is semi-professional but non-profit in operation.

The group is having an open dance on November 10 at Fairview Mall to raise money to defray expenses. There will be a buffet and bar and an opportunity for the public to meet the members.

Anyone interested in joining the group this year can call Brenda Spearing at 884-8704. For information about the dance, call Jean Weiland at 225-5818.

Gibson House

Over 40 water color paintings of the rugged scenery of Algonquin Park, the Haliburton Highlands and the Madawaska Valley will be on display in the lower gallery at Willowdale's Gibson House Museum September 6 to 30.

The artist, Charles Lamb is a graduate of Ontario College of Art where he studied under J. E. H. Macdonald, William Beatty and Emanuel Han. He has sketched with the late A. Y. Jackson and A. J. Casson of the original Group of Seven.

Mr. Lamb has also painted in the British Isles, France, Holland and Jasper Park. He has exhibited with the Royal Canadian Academy, the Ontario Society of Artists and the Ontario Society of Painters in Water Color.

In the upper gallery of the exhibition wing of Gibson House the William Moll Bercey exhibit will continue through the fall months. The exhibition explains the 1794 setting of Bercey and his German Settlers in the German Mills area of the Town of Markham.

On display are various artifacts such as maps, paintings and farm implements.

Gibson House is located behind the Willowdale Post Office at 5172 Yonge Street and is open from 9:30 am to 5 pm Monday through Saturday and from noon until 5 pm Sundays. Admission is 25c for children and 50c for adults.
