Neighborhood Notes

Sympathy is expressed to Rev. Alvin Winger and family in the passing of Mrs. Winger on Thursday morning at Parkview Home, Stouffville. Mrs. Winger, who was in her 86th year, was a lifelong resident of Gormley, and until the past few months enjoyed excellent health. She rested at the Marshall Funeral Home in Richmond Hill. The service on Sunday afternoon at Heise Hill Church was largely attended and was a silent token in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Winger.

Mrs. Sam Doner, also a lifelong Gormley resident, who is in her 88th year, fell at Parkview Home, Stouffville Thursday night and broke her hip. Mrs. Doner was taken by ambulance to Centenary Hospital, West Hill, where surgery was performed late that night. Raymond Holmes, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Holmes, was rushed to Centenary Hospital where an emergency appendectomy was done during Thursday night.

Cecil Banks slipped at work on Thursday and broke his hip, so he had surgery in Centenary Hospital. Rev. and Mrs. Eldon Boettger have returned from a holiday in the Maritime Provinces.

Miss Cheryl Hood enjoyed a week's holiday in Calgary, Alberta.

Rev. and Mrs. Grant Sloss of Kitchener and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McDowell of Markham had dinner Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. David Sloss for their grandson Andrew's second birthday.

Miss Elizabeth Dreisbach and several friends of Stanford University, Palo Alto, California holidayed with her aunt Mrs. Granet Franey.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Sudeyko of Downsview visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Metro Sudeyko.

Miss Blanche Cassel of Preston visited on Sunday with her aunts, Misses Freda, Blanche and Ruth Henderson.

Mrs. Elva Climenhage of Stevensville spent the weekend with Mrs. Garnet Franey.

Mrs. Milsted and Charleen were dinner guests Monday evening with Dr. and Mrs. Dan Edmundson of Agincourt.

Proposed School Locations Vetoed

York County Board of Education last week turned down three proposed school sites, including one in the new BAIF Subdivision in Richmond Hill.

Two of the proposed sites would be the result of proposed amendments to the Town of Vaughan Official Plan in the Woodbridge area.

The board agreed with staff that the potential 193 elementary pupils and the expected 70 secondary school students resulting could be accommodated in the Woodbridge public and high schools.

The BAIF project calls for a proposed condominium on 3,730 acres between Wel-drick Road and BAIF Boulevard.

The condominium would have 62 units with a projected elementary school enrolment of 36 pupils and a projected secondary enrolment of 15.

It was felt that temporary accommodation at Ross Doan Public School and Roselawn Senior Public School could be provided until the construction of a new elementary school was justified.
