

Dynes Eliminated 4-0 By Welland

The Richmond Hill Dynes Jewellers just couldn't cope with an old nemesis by the name of Kenny Rhora Wednesday night of last week in Welland.

Result: Rhora rang down the Jewellers' 1973 season with a 4-0 shutout over them in Welland.

The loss gave the Welland Dycks the best-of-three OASA Senior "A" Playoffs by two games to one, Welland won the opener 4-0 behind Rhora and then the Jewellers came back to even the series with a 14-inning 6-5 win.

The Jewellers were never really in the game at all against Rhora as he held them to three hits while fanning 16 and walking only two in the nine-inning game.

Loser was Wally Dick who got off to a disastrous first inning and that was the tip-off of the entire game. Wally, who had tossed the last 14 games with only two losses, allowed only seven hits, while walking two and striking out 10.

The first inning saw Dick's first pitch hitting lead-off batter Paul Roach. Larry Christie followed with a single and both runners advanced on a sacrifice. Ted DeRuiter's single loaded the bases.

This set the scene for Brian Angelo who singled home two runners to put Welland in front 2-0. The same play saw DeRuiter thrown out at the plate. John Buchner struck out to end the inning.

The Jewellers only real threat of the game came in that same first inning when Bob Smith singled with two out and Dave Russell walked. Rhora then struck out the ever-dangerous Bruce Staughton to end the inning.

Richmond Hill posed another mild threat in the third on Mickey Hancock's single but that also petered out as Rhora got the next three in easy fashion.

Welland's third run came in the third inning as Frank Stewart led off with a home-run.

Their final one came in the seventh as Stewart did it again with two men out.

The Toronto and District Major Fastball League Awards Night will be held October 19 at Fairbanks Park.

Harry Allard. Panasiuk shot a three under par 69 to edge Gary Bowerman, Al Balding and Ken Fulton by one stroke to win the top cash purse in the $3,000 event. A total of $2,133 was turned over by the golf promoters to the York Central Association for the Mentally Retarded.

Another Win For Panasiuk

Bob Panasiuk of Windsor stroked a three under par 69 September 26 to win the annual Rolling Hills Pro-Am Golf Tournament.

He led second place finishers Gary Bowerman, Al Balding and Ken Fulton by one stroke. The latter three finished with two under par 70's.

One under par with 71's were Doug Bruton, Bob Breen, Dave Clayton, Moe Norman, Herb Holtzscheller and Ken Girard, former pro of the Summit Golf and Country Club, Richmond Hill. Over $3,000 in prize money went to the pros and $2,600 in amateur prizes plus a $800 color television door prize which went to Al Balding. It was donated by Jerry Marvin of Colorama TV.

It was Balding leading an outstanding team of amateur partners to the team even championship. His team compiled 165 quota points and consisted of Eric Hanson, Paul Gilbert and Fred Cope.

Second prize went to Glen Phillips with 161 and his amateur team of Frank Pender, Carl Calhoun, and Jim McConnell of Glen Eagles.

Rams Rebound With Wins North York, Downsview

The Richmond Hill Rams shook off a lacklustre opening game loss to Vaughan Nationals Tuesday night of last week to rack up two straight 5-4 and 3-2 wins over North York Rangers and Downsview Beavers in Provincial Junior "A" hockey action.

Sunday night's game saw the Rams take an early 2-0 lead against Downsview and hold onto it to win by 3-2 despite some anxious moments.

It was the debut of Richmond Hill Goalie Doug Brumwell and it was a fairly impressive one as he played a cool hand throughout the 60 minutes.

HALBURTON NATIVE Brumwell, a product of Bobaygeon Midgets and still of midget age, was particularly sharp in the early going and, along with some luck, kept the always-dangerous Beavers off the score sheet until the early minutes of the third period.

Newcomer Ernie Takeuchi led the Rams' offensive with two goals with returnee Bob Bangay getting the other one. Rolie Tessier and Scott Densen scored the others.

Tyndall in particular had a rough night as far as Brumwell was concerned.

On two occasions he had two clear-cut breakaways only to muff them as an unperturbed Brumwell just held his ground and let Tyndall fake himself right off the puck.

The Rams, with Mike Hartman and Takeuchi leading the way offensively, played an aggressive game most of the way.

One of the more aggressive types was Chunky Rick Febbo, a pick-up from Aurora Tigers, who was crunching opponents throughout the game.

Febbo also showed that he could handle his fists when he tangled with John Bower near the end of the game. Febbo won the fight decisively but bloodied his knuckles in the process and had to retire to the dressing room for repairs.

LEADING 2-0 Richmond Hill went into the third period leading 2-0 only to have Tessier charge over the blue line and fire a high, hard shot which deflected off Brumwell's arm and back into the twines. The time was 1:56.

This sparked the Beavers who carried the play until the 7:48 mark when a quick break saw Steve Glover check in on the Beavers' net, push the puck out to Takeuchi who crushed it on Eric Neskanen and slapped it home.

The Beavers kept pressing and at 11:57 Scott Densen picked up a loose puck off a blocked shot and whipped it behind Brumwell before he could even move.

Richmond Hill, led by the outstanding play of Billy Stephenson and Jack Guest, held off the Beavers the rest of the way.

Stephenson was injured early in the game but returned for the final period. Another injured member was Febbo. He also came back to play a strong game.

Missing from the lineup with a slight injury was Dave "Digger" Dunkley.

Friday night's game saw Robbie Yoteff, Rick Febbo, Alan Potts, Ernie Takeuchi and Dave Stuart doing the scoring.

For North York it was Rick Box, Graham Foley, Mitch Edwards, and Craig Chandler.

15 Cents A Copy

I'm sitting here looking at a copy of the Maple Leaf Gardens official hockey program. Its price is 15 cents and on its cover is a youthful picture of Gave Stewart. Remember him?

FRANK TATE

Maple Leaf - Buffalo Sabres hockey opener at Maple Leaf Gardens it will be his 59th straight season without a miss.

"I intend to be there all right," Frank was saying the other day in his living room surrounded by stacks and stacks of old Maple Leaf Hockey Programs. "That's if I'm around. When you get to be my age you don't take too much for granted although I feel just as good as ever."

BACK IN 1914

His first opener was back in 1914 at the Mutual Street ice palace and since that time they've followed with clock-work regularity. He hasn't missed a Maple Leaf opening game or a playoff game since the present structure was opened in the early thirties.

"I used to get to every home game but I've tailed off in the past few years. Guess, it's my age. The winters are getting too cold for me. I don't go too much when the weather's bad. Except for the playoffs, that is. I get to every game then."

Frank hasn't seen too many playoffs lately due to the rather unhappy plight of the latter-day Maple Leafs but he's expecting better things this season.

"I felt sorry for Johnny McLellan last year," he said of the then Maple Leaf coach. "He's a nice fellow and he wanted to win so badly. Just didn't have the material. They got some good young fellows this season and I think they'll do better."

It would take reams and reams of space to put down Frank's thoughts of all those Maple Leafs of the past as well as those of the other great teams. You name all the past greats such as Howie Morenz, Frank "King" Clancy, Eddie Shore, etc. Frank's seen them all. Many times. He even used to live beside a fellow by the name of Conn Smyth at Orchard Park. Of course, that's a long time ago.

Those names and those years have long since faded into the past but Frank still has his collection of old Maple Leaf programs to remind him of his many former treks to the Gardens.

Like the one I'm looking at, the one I mentioned at the beginning of this effort. Truthfully, I'm a sucker for nostalgia when I see programs like this. Where has all the time gone?

DO YOU REMEMBER?

Photique Bantams Lose To Stouffville

The Richmond Hill Photique Studio Bantams gave it the good try but dropped the championship to Stouffville in two straight games by 11-8 and 3-1.

The first game saw Paul Paul pitched a fine game with Stouffville coming up with an 11-8 win in Stouffville.

Back at Crosby it was Moreland back on the mound in a very close game with Stouffville again coming up with the big hits to win it 3-1.

Richmond Hill gave it a good try and over the entire season had a very impressive record going right through their 10-team league to the finals.

They also made a fine showing in tournament play winning one B trophy and going to the finals in three other tournaments.

In OASA playdowns our Bantams won their zone playoffs in the A bracket against tough competition.

Congratulations to the entire team and a special mention to Glenn Moreland who tossed about 95 percent of the games.

The following boys were the players who stayed with the team and gave it their very best:

Brian Charles, John Peden, Paul Philip, Mike Gallagher, Marc Brillinger, Dale Strang, Christ DeGeer, Glen Moreland, Jeff Moore, Mark Schiller, Ben Bourget, Doug Lewis, Peter Beatty and bat boy Trevor Schiller.

A special thank you to all the parents who followed and supported our boys this year and also to the fans of Crosby Park.

Dynes Jewellers True Champs According To Softball Official

The Richmond Hill Dynes Jewellers are the official Canadian Fastball titleholders of 1973.

At least according to the Canadian Fastball Association.

Not so to Ray Twinney of the Newmarket Rays who claim the title on the basis of a series win against Winnipeg in Newmarket in September.

To wit: Larry Skinner, executive director of the Canadian Fastball Association, based in Ottawa, said the series between Winnipeg Colonels and Newmarket Rays was an exhibition.

Richmond Hill won the official title, beating Dartmouth, N.S. Dairy Queens at Hull, Quebec early in September.

Tom Simms of Meaford, president of the Ontario Amateur Softball Association, has no qualms about the situation.

"Richmond Hill won the elimination tournament at Burlington to declare an Ontario winner and as far as the OASA is concerned, Dynes went on to win the Canadian Championship. We gave Newmarket permission to play an exhibition series against Winnipeg Colonels but it was only an exhibition and no title was at stake.

Casey Cripps, manager of the Richmond Hill Dynes stated:

"It's about time everybody forgot about it. We won the recognized championship. Newmarket wants to challenge us, but we don't intend to play them.

"Look at our record this season 77 wins and 18 losses. Newmarket has 45 wins and 18 losses. It will all be straightened out at the annual meeting of the association at Charlottetown, PEI in November."

Mr. Twinney, sponsor of the team, was quoted as saying he would put up $1,000 for a winner-take-all tournament against Richmond Hill Dynes to determine the Canadian fastball championship.

A group of Newmarket residents said they would add to Mr. Twinney's $1,000 challenge.

Newmarket Mayor Bob Forhan was contacted by a Newmarket businessman who said he and his colleagues had another $400 to add to the pot.

In reference to a Cripps' comment that Newmarket had a "Mickey Mouse" team Mr. Twinney said:

"Let's see who the Mickey Mouse team really is now. We don't have to play the Dynes — we've got the best ball team in Canada — but we want to settle Richmond Hill's hash once and for all."

End of story.
