Bridal Shower

A surprise bridal shower was held at the home of Mrs. Det Palmer, Church Street, for Edrey Thacker. Edrey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Thacker of Netherford Road. Co-hostesses for the shower on September 27 were Mrs.

Beautiful Autumn Colors Feature Two Senior Bus Trips

It takes an awful lot of rain and fog to dampen the spirits of the senior citizens of Vaughan, who, last week enjoyed two color tours to the north.

Tuesday 48 seniors and friends, their hostess Mrs. Louise Cooper and Travelways Tour Driver Bill Richardson headed out on the first lap of a two-day tour through the Haliburton-Algonquin Park — Muskoka area with a stop at the Rock Haven in Peterboro for an excellent smorgasbord dinner. With a coffee stop at Bancroft, the bus headed north into a riot of color, and out of the fog and mist that had prevailed in the morning.

Although everyone had been pessimistic about the quality and quantity of color this year, there were several on the trip who still insist that the color was the best they had ever seen.

The newer modern highway through Algonquin Park was, like some aspects of 'progress', just a bit disappointing, with all the trees that had overhung the old road years ago, cut back for some distance. This evidently discourages the wildlife from venturing too near the traffic, and the only sight of anything alive at all was a couple of crows and one or two porcupines which were spotted.

The accommodation for the night at the Hidden Valley Holiday Inn left nothing to be desired except the advertised coffee shop which turned out to be non-existent. The surroundings of the 'Inn', even in the rain and mist were just about as beautiful as anything we have ever seen. Nestled in a valley with its own lake and surrounded with a blaze of color that even the drizzle couldn't minimize, this was a spot that everyone hated to leave.

Before leaving the Huntsville area, the bus headed to the top of the lookout spot where the panoramic view of Huntsville and the surrounding area, even at an early hour in the morning, was breathtaking. With everyone safely back on the bus, even those who found climbing over the wet rocks fascinating we headed back to the south and enjoyed dinner at Sloane's in Gravenhurst.

A lot of country was covered between the lunch stop and the stop at the Lakeview Dairy for supper, including Couchiching Park in Orillia, Horseshoe Valley Ski Resort and country roads that managed to lose and confuse nearly all but Harry Burnfield of Kleinburg who went to school as a boy in the area of the ski resort. After spending nearly an hour at the Sears Shopping Plaza in Barrie and stopping for supper, the bus encountered the only heavy rain of the entire trip, almost home to Vaughan.

The one-day tour headed out earlier in the morning Thursday with hostess Mrs. Marj Robson and Travelways Tour Driver Jim McGovern and 43 passengers. This tour began with threats of rain and fog, but enjoyed a bit of sun and fair weather along the way as well as the excellent singing of their driver to help pass the time.

This tour travelled north to Barrie and veered to the northwest to cross from Georgian Bay to Gravenhurst along the winding Highways 660 and 69 to arrive again at Sloane's for dinner. They then covered the same highlights in Huntsville and along the north shores of the Lake of Bays and stopped as well at the lookout at Dorset.

They also enjoyed their supper at the Lakeview in Barrie and arrived home just after dark.

There are no trips or tours on the agenda for the immediate future in the way of one day outings, although some interest has been shown in a bus again this year to the Royal Winter Fair, and someone suggested

IN THE VILLAGE OF MAPLE

Phyllis Field and Mrs. Det. Palmer. About 36 area women gathered to honor Edrey and gave her many useful household items. The color theme for the evening was yellow and white and the decorations, cake and her corsage were all in these colors.

Edrey will be married to James Grant Cruikshank of Toronto Saturday at 4:30 pm at Maple United Church. The couple will take up residence in Oak Ridges.

Arthritis Society

The Arthritis Campaign is pretty well over now but the children are in for a special treat. The Magicians are returning, Harry Douglas and his magicians and Clowns will be at Joseph Gibbons School, October 19 at 7:30 pm. This is the same group that performed two years ago and was so thoroughly enjoyed by adults and children. Tickets will be on sale only at the door and admission is 75c for adults and children. All of the proceeds will help the Arthritis Society and its various projects.

During the evening, the Arthritis Society Poster Contest winners will be presented with their prizes.

George Bailey Senior Public School

Monday Nov. 5, Dec. 3, January 3 and 4, and February 15 are days in which the school will be closed for the students but the teachers will be in attendance at Professional Development Days, November 5 the George Bailey teachers will be working together with the other teachers in Area 3, York County at the Rose-lawn School. On the other days they will be meeting to discuss and formulate curriculum, etc.

Friday Nov. 23, the staff and students will be going to the Ontario Science Centre. First they will see a film, "Inook And The Sun" and then tour the centre for a brief time. In the afternoon, they will go to a matinee performance of a youth concert by the Toronto Symphony. Probably the students will be a bit late coming back to the school so special arrangements will have to be made for the students on the first bus trip. The cost for the film is 50c and $1 for the concert.

Transportation costs will be completely covered by the York County Board of Education.

Perry-Bowden

Living In Guelph After Honeymoon In Bermuda

A honeymoon in Bermuda followed the September 7 wedding of Mary Elizabeth Bowden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowden 21 Birch Avenue, Richmond Hill, and Thomas William Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Perry of Maple.

The ceremony took place in St. Stephen's Anglican Church in Maple with Rev. Dr. Ramsay Armitage officiating.

The pews were decorated with hurricane candleabra with four yellow candles and trimmed with yellow bows, white daisies and baby's breath. There was a large gathering basket on a stand beside the altar with yellow gadiolals, white daisies and baby's breath, also a smaller gathering basket of yellow gadiolals, white daisies and baby's breath on the holy table.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride and attendants walked down the aisle to the strains of the "Theme From Romeo and Juliet" played by Robert Long, and soloist Judy Thompson sang "A Time For Love".

The bride wore a full length ivory peau de soie gown with a chapel train falling from the waist. The gown had a bodice and full length sleeves of Alencion lace trimmed with seed pearls. The gown had a border of matching lace, and her veil was in three tiers of ivory illusion scalloped and trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a dream-boat shaped bouquet of Woburn Abbey roses, yellow carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath. Her headpiece was a matching floral arrangement.

Maid of honor, Patricia Craig, a cousin of the bride, wore a yellow gown with batteau neckline and capelet. It had flounces at the hem, and her sash was of yellow print, matching the bridesmaids. She wore large yellow Milan straw hat and carried a wicker basket of yellow roses, white daisies and baby's breath trimmed with long yellow streamers.

Bridesmaids were Brenda Perry and Kim Perry, sisters of the groom. They were dressed alike in yellow print gowns with yellow sash, similar in style to that worn by the maid of honor, matching hats, and carried baskets of flowers.

Best man was Bruce Dodson, and ushers were Ted Perry, brother of the groom, and Allen, Bob and Frank Bowden, brothers of the bride.

During the signing of the register, soloist Judy Thompson sang "There is Love", accompanying herself on the guitar. About 125 guests attended the reception at the Tri-Bell Four Winds Club. The mother of the bride wore an empire line gown in hot pink polyester suede crepe. The gown had a coat effect, accented by matching lace headed with pink pearls and matching accessories. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of white sweetheart roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

The groom's mother received wearing a floor length gown of pale blue jersey knit. The full skirt was softly gathered at the empire waist and held by a dome of hod beads. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of white sweetheart roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Also in the receiving line was the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Milton Rykman who wore a full length gown in capri polyester crepe with silk chiffon sleeves, a wedding ring rolled collar and sheer inset edged with embroidery and pearls accented the bodice. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of bridal pink sweetheart roses.

For the reception the dining room was decorated with standards of white gadiolals, white daisies and baby's breath. Each table was decorated with a hurricane lamp lit with yellow candles and a ring of white and yellow daisies at the base. The three-tiered white wedding cake was trimmed with daisies and topped with Woburn Abbey roses and a ring of white and yellow daisies around the base. The guests enjoyed a cold plate dinner and were entertained with music and dancing for the evening.

The families of bride and groom are long-time residents of the area. Both graduated from Langstaff Secondary School and are now living in Guelph where the groom is a student at the University of Guelph.

DICKSON'S HILL — There was an estimated $100,000 damage recently when fire damaged the Pavemaster of Canada Limited factory on Highway 48 here and destroyed the parts room. The fire was spotted at noon hour while owner Arnold Heron and his seven employees were at lunch.

NEWMARKET: A move has been made by Councilor Aubrey Smith, a downtown merchant, to have the responsibility for downtown parking meters turned over to York Regional Police and the present meterman reassigned to other town duties.

CONCORD NEWS

Neighborhood Notes

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lake, Highway 7, have just returned from a very enjoyable trip to the east coast. En route they visited Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Olley, former residents of Concord, who moved to Pleasantville, Nova Scotia, two years ago. The Lakes had beautiful weather for their holiday, so beautiful that it rained only once.

Congratulations to Erna McCutcheon who became a grandmother October 1. Erna's daughter-in-law gave birth to a baby daughter.

Birthdays

Belated birthday wishes go to Edward Kerr-Taylor of Laurie Road, who was 12 years old September 28.

Very belated birthday greetings are sent to Bill Lake, Highway 7, for September 16.

Hockey

A final reminder to all our young hockey players who have not yet registered for this season: registration forms for Maple Arena can be picked up at Bowes' Superpet Gas Station, corner of Dufferin Street and Highway 7. These forms may be mailed to A. G. Taylor at 28 Malaren Road, Maple. His telephone number is 832-2525. Games start Saturday.

New Seating Maple Arena

Vaughan Town Council has approved the tender of White Strip Construction of Concord for the installation of new seating accommodation for 638 spectators at Maple Arena. This seating replaces that provided when the building was constructed which has proven to be unsatisfactory for an arena.

Although the $45,389.37 tender was slightly higher than that of the lowest bidder — West York Construction, $45,250 — council chose the former as White Strip promised to complete the work by December 30 this year, while West York stated a completion date of January 31, 1974.

There will be no interruption of activities at the arena during the holiday season.

The new seating will be of precast concrete beam spans supported on cement block walls, the area under the seats being enclosed.

What Makes A Tree Grow?

Beautiful fall weather on the morning of the last day of September enticed about 30 people to the Boyd Conservation Area to enjoy a 2 1/2 hour forestry tour. They learned about trees, their characteristics and habits of growth, under the direction of Leader John Griffiths of the Ministry of Natural Resources in Maple.

In the picture above Mr. Griffiths is determining the age of a tree by counting the rings on a core he had extracted from the tree with an increment borer.

Keep your winter lawn alive and well

John Bradshaw's 3 basic steps

John Bradshaw:

"This guide covers both Fall and Winter. What you do in Fall will help preserve and improve next year's lawn.

Follow my guide, and use the products I recommend. I always use them myself, and they work very well indeed."

Stamp out crabgrass now

"Yes, you can stamp out up to 100% of next year's crabgrass right now.

Apply CIL Lawn Doctor at 20 lb. per 1000 sq. ft.

Apply CIL Lawn Doctor* once between now and mid-October. If you plan to seed this Fall, delay treatment until Spring and feed lawn with CIL Golfgreen.

Rake away trash and leaves before application. After treatment leave lawn uncut and unwatered for one week. Then soak it in well.

In my experience this CIL Lawn Doctor is the best thing on the market. There's nothing to touch it."

Last and vital— Winterize

"Keep your lawn good-looking and healthy next year. CIL Winterizer, applied as soon as you get two or three days of really cool weather, will help prevent lawn damage from snow mold, winter-kill and plain starvation.

Special Fall tasks

"Whether you plan to use CIL Lawn Doctor or not, it's important to rake all dead leaves and trash from the lawn. Dead organic matter helps breed fungi that can kill grass.

Spike deep for healthy root growth.

It's also a very good idea to spike the whole lawn with 4" deep holes 3-4" apart. This lets food, air and water down to the roots.

You may also want to remove bumps and hollows. Don't do it with a roller. Lift the sod, removing the soil that causes the bump. Put the excess soil under the sod in hollow areas."
