Helen Robinson

The community lost a dear friend last week, with the death of Helen Robinson who passed away at York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill, October 2.

Wherever good things were happening, there was Helen.

She was a tireless worker in the community, and had served as president of Buttonville WI. She was one of the prime movers in the organization of the YCHA, two years before the hospital was built, and served as president of that auxiliary, president of the hospital region, and chairman of the Buttonville Branch of YCHA.

Her work at Holy Trinity Church, Thornhill, was legend.

She and her husband Joe and sons Roy and Bill kept a hospitable home where old and new friends were always welcome.

The community is the poorer for her passing.

On Wednesday and Thursday of last week friends streamed to the Robinson home on Bayview Avenue to pay their last respects.

A funeral service was held Friday at Holy Trinity Church, with interment at Thornhill.

Surviving are her husband Joe, sons Roy and Bill, and a small granddaughter, Dawn.

Neighborhood Notes

More on Markham Fair — entitled some of the things I missed that I wish I had seen! — Six-year-old Raymond Brown's collection of leaves which won a fourth prize in the school exhibits; Ray Grant and Harvey Brown competing in the cross-cut log cutting contest — they didn't win, I'm told, but they sawed their log in one minute, 13 seconds.

Last week I forgot to mention that there were two beautiful oils in the art section by Helen Speckert. Helen's father was the architect who built the Brown's Corners United Church extension in 1960-61. He died a short time later.

And Archie Little's Gee Gaw Whimmy Diddles were a joy!

Mary and Mill Sherman are home in Markham after almost a month at Owen Sound. During that time Mary's aunt, Mrs. George Beatty, died.

Mrs. Bill Baker has returned from Windsor where she visited her brother while he was in hospital.

Friends were sorry to learn last week that Stan Patterson was badly injured in a fall. His neck was broken and he is at Sunnybrook Hospital in intensive care. We wish him a quick recovery.

Last Thursday Buttonville WI catered for a roast beef dinner when an Agincourt Bowling Club held a banquet and meeting.

As a side event, WI members celebrated the birthday of President Rose Baker, with a birthday cake and ice cream.

Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Binington have been holidaying at Jersey in the Channel Islands.

NEWMARKET: Official ground breaking ceremonies were conducted recently for the new addition to York County Hospital. The addition will cost $15 million and will be built to the east of the present hospital.
