Senior Citizens
The senior citizens held their general meeting for October at Thornhill Presbyterian Church. It opened with O Canada with Mrs. Hilda Jessup at the piano. The first matter of business was the eucure. Prizes were contributed by Dominion Stores, GEM, Miracle Mart, Trailways, the Royal Orchard Restaurant and members.

The Christmas Dinner menu was decided on—turkey—but the time has not been arranged yet. The entertainment will probably be a humorous film.

A trip to the Ice Capades was arranged for November 14 starting from the Towne and Country Square. Blue seats were the choice at $2.75. Non-members will be accepted to fill any empty places on the bus. These will cost $1 each. The Royal Winter Fair was also considered but no action taken, pending more information.

More copies of "The Voice" of the United Senior Citizens are to be requested.

Mrs. Matty Wismer and Mrs. Florence Dean will again be auditors.

Three new members were welcomed: Mrs. Paula Karman and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilkinson. The meeting adjourned and the members enjoyed a cup of tea and biscuits.

Women's Institute

The October meeting of the WI was held at Mrs. Elsie Middleton's, Markham Road. The motto for the meeting was "He who works with nature, works with God."

Each member in answer to the roll call had to tell of something she could do to stop pollution. The answers were divergent and original.

The delegates to the area conference at the Royal York are to be Mrs. Alvin Thompson and Mrs. Grace Sayers.

The report on the trip to visit the Eroland Lee Home in St. George, which the Institutes have recently bought, was that they had a very interesting time. They picnicked at outside tables for lunch. Then they drove along the Hamilton Mountain Scenic Route. The trees were gorgeous!!!

It was decided to make a donation towards the furnishing of the Eroland Lee Home. The Christmas meeting is to take the form of dinner at the Richmond Hill Motor Inn.

Coming Events

The German Mills School graduates are arranging a reunion in June, 1974. To assist them in financing this occasion the members of the committee are holding a card party: progressive eucure, bridge, or what ever you prefer, at the Parish Hall, Holy Trinity Church, Brooke Street, November 1 at 8 pm.

Tickets which pay for prizes and refreshments all proceeds go to the re-union budget) are $1. Please buy in advance or let the committee know that you are going to attend before hand. Make contact by telephoning Miss Jane McLaren 889-2746, Mrs. Alvin Robinson 889-3528, or Mrs. Alfred Weaver 221-2602.

The annual meeting of the Vaughan Historical Society is scheduled for Wednesday at 7 pm. The banquet will be served by the Vellore WI in the Vellore Hall.

The program will consist of pictures on from Cave to Condominium. Also there will be old lantern slides which were used overseas to build up immigration. Jack McBride will present both items.

Only 90 persons can be accommodated for the dinner so those wishing to attend (members have first chance) must buy their tickets as soon as possible. Andrew Snider at 832-2504 is looking after the tickets for the Thornhill area. Cost is $3.75 per person.

The Town of Markham Public Libraries are introducing a Saturday happening — the 7-11 Club. Each Saturday morning from November 3 to March 6 there will be different programs to interest this age group. You may attend at Markham Centennial Library at 10:30 or Unionville Centennial Library at 11 am.

I was speaking to Mrs. Elaine Watters of the Welcome Wagon. She tells me that there is an average of 15 people enrolling each week. It is well worth enrolling.

Not only does the hostess give newcomers all kinds of information about Thornhill and what is doing, but there are also monthly meetings of particular interest, clubs etc. and presents!

The regular meeting takes place on the fourth Wednesday but you should contact her first so she can explain about it.

The Footlights Club and the Cantabile Choir will present an evening of fun and laughter for all on November 9 and 10. Curtain time is 8 pm.

Tickets are $1.50 each and are available from Mrs. Enid Corbett at 889-7218 or from members of the east or the choir.

Mrs. Nan Wright of Paul Street has just returned from a holiday in the Canary Islands. She flew by Iberian Airways from Montreal to Tenerife via Madrid. In the three weeks she enjoyed the brilliant sunshine and the blazing colors of the Islands' scenery. She was on and off four planes and five buses before she reached home again!

Ed Percival of Elgin Avenue decided he wanted a change. So he volunteered for CESO and received, in due course of time, an assignment in Brazil. It was to help a construction company to reorganize and to introduce them to more up-to-date methods. The job is in Sao Paulo, a city of eight million inhabitants!

Mrs. Percival flew out with him and stayed for three weeks. They were sent to a hotel which supplies bed and breakfast — delicious breakfast menus with four kinds of tropical fruit, etc. They found the city fascinating: the lights at night; the walks and explorations which always produced something of interest. They also went to Rio for a weekend and to Brazilia for another.

The people in the firm are very friendly and hospitable. They were taken to the seaport by car and looked after in all sorts of pleasant ways. Mr. Percival is joining a local tennis club, for the weather is perfect for playing just now. Later it will be very hot. He is not sure of when he will be coming home again. The assignments are usually six months in duration.

Mrs. Percival told me that in preparation for the trip they bought a couple of Portuguese language training records. And it worked. They were given a rudimentary vocabulary this way.

She may even go down again before he returns.

Church News
The Women of the Church, Christ the King Lutheran, held their October meeting Tuesday of last week. The subject for discussion was The Role of Women in Today's Society. It began with a questionnaire "How Liberalized Are You?" and this was followed by the discussion. Mrs. Jeanne Reed was hostess and looked after the refreshments.

The bazaar and bake sale is planned for November 3 from 1 to 3 pm at the church, Baythorn Drive and Royal Orchard Boulevard. There will be a tea room and a kiddie corner with a fish

The After-4 Program is going ahead at full speed. It meets in Thornhill United after school on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The program is fun and full of activity. Also the children can learn new skills, the ones they choose. Since it was late in getting underway, and the weather was so good, enrolment has not been up to last year.

Everyone is urged to come and also to bring a friend.

BOOK TALK
TOWN OF MARKHAM PUBLIC LIBRARIES

Best-Seller On PC Leader Robert Stanfield Examines His Political Mystique

STANFIELD: THE NEW CHARISMA — by Geoffrey Stevens. The best-selling book which analyzes the Conservative Party leader as a man and a politician by means of a thoughtful examination of his past, his principles and his personality. The author is the Globe and Mail's Ottawa columnist. (Non-fiction at Markham, Thornhill and Unionville).

MY YOUNG YEARS — by Arthur Rubinstein. The talents of Rubinstein as a pianist, writer and lover are formidable. In this book he describes his tragic-comic early life which swung between extremes — caviar one day, hunger the next — and he reveals with embarrassing candor his amorous ploys. The glory of making music with world renowned artists and composers is beautifully expressed. (Non-fiction at Markham, Thornhill and Unionville).

A THORN FOR THE FLESH — by Robert Boston. Painful emergence from boyhood to manhood is the subject of this raw, vigorous and often compelling novel about an American whose despair and fervent sense of involvement are the cause of traumatic events. (Fiction at Markham).

FAMILY COOKING ON LESS THAN FIVE DOLLARS A DAY — by Hanna H. Thomas. 150 delicious recipes to help homemakers cope with today's rapidly rising food costs. Simple directions are given for dishes from many foreign countries as well as from every part of North America. Recipes are categorized according to the cost of preparation. (Non-fiction at Thornhill).

JOURNEY THROUGH A LIGHTED ROOM — by Margaret Parton. The author's feelings about her life as an American reporter, journalist and foreign correspondent, veer from exultation to despair. With great skill she portrays the tumult of her family, professional and emotional life before winning acceptance of herself as a person, and as a career woman. (Non-fiction at Unionville).

The 170th Anniversary of Thornhill United began two Sundays ago with a memorial service at the old Methodist Cemetery, followed by a cavalcade of motors led by Rev. Alf McAllister dressed as a circuit rider on a horse. He was accompanied by half a dozen other riders. The morning service was a special communion.

On Tuesday evening and again on Friday the UCW had their share in the celebrations with a fashion show presented by Helen Mills Fashions and a box social.

Then Sunday the morning preacher was the Very Rev. A. B. Moore, former moderator of the United Church. He spoke on Remembering and Forgetting.

Afterward Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clark were introduced to the congregation by Allan Martindale. Mrs. Clark spoke of the late Ann Preston, their interest and their connection with her. They lived in Answell. Then she asked Mr. McAllister to dedicate a cross in memory of Ann. Mr. and Mrs. Clark were presenting the memorial cross to the church. Mr. McAllister did so and then Tom Harrington accepted it.

The cross was designed and created by Adlai Hardin of Lyme, Connecticut, a sculptor distinguished for his sensitive portrayal of religious figures and events.

The last of the celebrations was a service of worship conducted by The Chancellors at 7:30.

The E. J. Sand Home and School Association is looking forward to holding their first meeting of the new season November 6. However, they have a problem of an incomplete slate of officers.

At present the only posts filled are the social director, program director, grade mother and treasurer.

Normally all the new officers are elected before the end of the previous season. Nominations are open for all outstanding positions including that of president.

You can submit nominations to Past President Mrs. Pat Dandelle at 881-1688 or to the school at 889-2753.

Mrs. Beverly Anderson is the social director, grade mother is Mrs. Annette Wintjes and John Sloane is the treasurer.

If you have a talent, St. Luke's School can use it whether it be a little one, like supervising 40 children at lunch, or a big one, like typing library cards. Parents are now helping in the library, with lunch supervising and on excursions, but more help is needed in these areas.

Teachers are also looking for assistance in organizing materials in classrooms, and working with audio-visual equipment. They also require parents who will speak to small groups of pupils about the many jobs parents do from cooking to performing an appendectomy.

If you wish to offer your assistance please phone or send a note to the school.

Neighborhood Notes
Last week we reported that Mr. and Mrs. Paul Celsie of 12 Highland Park Boulevard, celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary October 15. This was their 60th wedding anniversary. We offer our sincere apologies and extend congratulations.

Birthday wishes are in order for Peter Wilson of 91 Morgan Avenue, Bruno Tommaso of 22 Morgan Avenue, Sylvia Hunt of 98 Clark Avenue, Karen Dysart of 115 Morgan Avenue and Tim Henry of 59 Green Line this week. Peter will be eight Saturday, Bruno will mark his 15th on Sunday, Sylvia will be 10 next Tuesday, Karen will be 18 and Tim will be 17.

Belated birthday greetings go to Darlene Harlick, 138 Henderson Avenue, who celebrated her fifth birthday last Saturday although she was officially five last Tuesday.

Cubs & Scouts
This evening six members of the 2nd Thornhill Cub Pack will advance to the Scout troop. The six new Scouts "Tenderfeet" are Steven Springs, Ross Maudsley, Leslie Dickson, Tom Baker, Glenn George and Todd McKnight. The ceremony will take place at Henderson Avenue Public School, their regular meeting place.

The 2nd Thornhill Cubs and Scouts reported selling a total of 10 bushels of apples on Apple Day, realizing $190 gross. The Venturers were not involved in this function.

Obituary

MRS. RUTH BAKER

Friends and former neighbors of Mrs. Ruth Baker, recently of Bowmanville, were saddened to learn of her passing October 20. Mrs. Baker died in the Oshawa General Hospital where she had been a patient since April 1973.

Born in Peterboro June 16, 1896, Mrs. Baker was in her 78th year.

She lived on Clarke Avenue in the Doncaster area for approximately 30 years with her husband, the late Jesse Baker, and was a long time member of the Doncaster Ladies' Club. She was also a valued member of the Weldon Road Baptist Church in the Richvale area.

She is survived by one son William Baker and daughters Mrs. Irene Grange, Mrs. Ruth Harris, Mrs. Mertle Bursey, Mrs. Ann Pauls, Mrs. Louisa Kirby and Miss Mabel Baker, and a brother Wellington Page.

The funeral was held October 23 in the Marshall Funeral Home, Richmond Hill with Rev. Bruce McSpadder officiating. Interment followed in the Baker-Cobe Cemetery, Vaughan. Pallbearers were William Grange, Rev. David Harris, Glenn Bursey, Neil Pauls, Fred Kirby and William Baker.

Tigers Challenge Williams At Aurora This Afternoon

Two thrilling football games ended in heart-breaking losses for Thornhill's Tigers last week. On Tuesday Bayview Secondary came out on top with a score of 10-7. Newmarket overcame the Tigers Friday, setting the score at 14-7. Let's see our fans on the Aurora field as the Tigers challenge G. W. Williams this afternoon.

Congratulations go to our senior soccer players who were victorious over Richmond Hill on Monday of last week. Their next game is here, tomorrow (Friday) versus Huron Heights.

Also on the 15th, the junior soccer team topped Thornlea by scoring two goals to Thornlea's one. A great victory ensued Friday as they downed Don Head with a score of 5-0. They went on to play King City at home Monday.

Our girls' field hockey team defeated Markham Thursday of last week with a score of 2-1. On Saturday they participated in a meet of Ontario teams at Sunnybrooke Park in Scarborough. They concluded the day with four ties, two losses and several bruises to their credit!

Our Senior Volleybells defeated Markham in two out of three games Thursday of last week. The juniors were unable to follow suit and lost their match by a small margin. Both teams continued on to meet Richmond Hill on October 23.

The North York and North Toronto Chess Championships are scheduled for the first weekend in December. Thornhill will play host to about 150 people.

The "Sadie" Friday night was a success. As well as providing the "Sounds of the 50's", "Father" presented an interesting narrative about typical teenage problems of the decade. The lead vocalist introduced the dancers to the rudiments of the twist. A good time was enjoyed by all!
