Travelaugh
Travelling southbound on Highway 69 near Sudbury last week, I stopped in at a small gas-bar, snack shop and restaurant to buy some tid bits to chew on while driving.

It was a small store filled with merchandise of all sorts including some groceries, with a young girl at the cash. I selected two bags of pretzels and at the cash, asked the girl to give me a Crispy Crunch chocolate bar. She handed me the one bar, then tossed in another plus two books of matches, summarizing the sale as an even $1.00. She promptly snatched the one dollar bill I was holding in my hand and thanked me for shopping there.

I'm still not sure if the girl was an expert at salesmanship or "highway" robbery. I'm just glad that I hadn't held up a ten dollar bill or she would no doubt have filled a shopping bag with things I didn't want just to make it an even sale.

Donna and I recently attended the annual convention of the Mechanical Contractor's Association - this year held at Hidden Valley near Huntsville. We had our girls farmed out to various friends while we enjoyed a weekend of business and fun. We travelled back to Toronto early in the Sunday afternoon so as to avoid the weekend traffic, all the way from Huntsville down to East York and back to Maple, only to have a car pull right out in front of us as we drove along Major Mackenzie Drive. Whatta smash! Far from being a "travelaugh", we're just glad the occupants of our car are okay.

On Wednesday, October 24, Jean Campbell, Mavis Smylie and myself braved the crowds and traffic and ventured forth to the great Hadassah Bazaar held in the Automotive Building at the CNE. We had a large time. The crowds WERE large but everyone was friendly. And the bargains were terrific. About 50% of the merchandise for sale was new. Sales help was plentiful and prices were approximately half of retail price. Can't wait 'til next year!

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Burt of King Sideroad recently became great-grandparents for the first time as their granddaughter Linda (Mrs. Alan Hickey) of Willowdale gave birth to a daughter Lisa Ann. Congratulations!

Oak Ridges Lions Entertain Senior Citizens

Delicious food and a congenial atmosphere featured the recent dinner in the Lions Den, Bond Lake Arena, when Oak Ridges Lions entertained 47 members of the community's senior citizens club. Guest speaker of the evening was Brigadier Archibald McCorquindale of the Salvation Army's House of Concord, where boys and young men are given a second chance after a brush with the law. The Lions recognized the army's great contribution to society by making a donation toward the rehabilitation centre being established at the House of Concord. Some of the Lions and their guests are seen in a happy mood in the picture above.

Church Notes

Our Annual Turkey Supper was held on October 24, with well over 350 persons partaking of the delicious food prepared by the ladies of the congregation. Convener Mrs. Wilfred James, President Mrs. Everett Phillips and their committee would like to thank all who came, all who worked so hard and contributed in any way to make it the success that it was. Our supper has become a tradition, we look forward to seeing you all again next year.

Sunday, the men of the congregation will be taking the service in the absence of Rev. Arthur Thomson, who will be attending the anniversary service at Wesley United Church, Windsor. Friends who would like to contribute, are reminded of the drive for good, clean used clothing and boots and shoes to be held at the church on November 5. As usual the articles collected, will go to Rev. Earle Stobesbury for his work on the Saugeen Indian Reserve.

Seniors Enjoy Dinner

Forty-seven senior citizens were dinner guests of Oak Ridges Lions October 23. According to Captain Ed Hawman, the meal, prepared by Pegasus Catering, was delicious and everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Guest speaker Brigadier Archibald McCorquindale of the House of Concord gave an excellent speech on the part the senior citizens play in the community today. He issued an invitation to the seniors to visit the House of Concord for a tour and dinner, which they hope to accept in the near future.

The Lions made a donation towards the new rehabilitation centre at the House of Concord.

Mrs. Gertrude Connor thanked the Lions on behalf of the seniors for the wonderful evening they all had.

Now's the time to clear

90th Birthday

Mrs. Ethel Ferguson, King City Lodge, celebrated her 90th birthday Sunday with her family at the home of her eldest daughter, Mrs. Fred Curtis and Mr. Curtis. Helping her celebrate this milestone were Mr. and Mrs. Watson Ferguson and Mrs. Charles Gordon and granddaughter Miss Cheryl Gordon, all of King City.

Mrs. Ferguson is in comparatively good health and spends many happy hours reading.

She would like to thank all who so kindly remembered her by cards, gifts, phone calls and visits.

out your closets, attics and basements. The seniors are holding a rummage sale November 10 from 10 am to 5 pm. Take your contributions to the Wheelhouse.

Tickets are still available for the 50/50 draw at 50¢ each or three for $1. The draw will be held November 22.

The senior citizens' club is always open to new members and they would like to see everyone in the area, who is 60 or over, come and join. There are plenty of activities from now until Christmas and they have even more planned for the New Year.

Church News
St. Paul's United CGIT group is sponsoring the musical "Tell It As It Is," performed by the CGIT group from St. Matthew's United, Richmond Hill, November 3 at 7:30 pm. The musical will appeal to all ages. There will be refreshments and a silver collection will be received.

The Ladies' Guild Cookbook of Our Lady of the Annunciation is now available at $2 per copy. Call Mrs. Menen at 773-5878.

Miss Velma Brillinger from Gormley gave a talk and showed slides on missionary work in Rhodesia and Zambia in the Brethren In Christ Church, Aubrey Avenue, October 21. Miss Brillinger has worked in these African countries for the past 20 years.

Pioneer girls at this church began October 22 at 7:30 pm and will meet regularly once a week.

YWCA
The two local Take-A-Break groups have now amalgamated and meet Thursdays in the hall at Bond Lake Arena from 1:30 to 3:30 pm. The cost is 50¢ per session which covers baby-sitting and coffee. The program until Christmas will include dried flower and weed arrangements, appropriate toy buying for children, candle making, a talk on food buying by a member of the Consumers' Association, gift ideas for husbands, Christmas Crafts and recipes and helping your children be creative using everyday household objects.

Minor Softball
The Oak Ridges and District Minor Softball Association held a banquet for representative teams October 24. Every boy received a trophy. Three trophies were awarded to each team for the most valuable, most improved and most sportsmanlike players. The coaches and managers of each team were presented with plaques, as was President Al Bestard. The boys of each team - midget, bantam, pee-wee and squirt - honored their coaches and managers with mementos.

Invited guests were the sponsors of the teams: Gord

Angvine, Franklin Life Midgets; Don Williams, Oak Ridges Merchant Bantams; Alex Brockton, the Brockton Pee-wees; Lion President Bill Mayer, Lions Club Squirts; OASA Convener Glen Phillips, Parks & Recreation Director Al White; Capt. Ed. Hawman, long time leader in Oak Ridges hall activity; Richmond Hill Liberal Sports Editor Fred Simpson and Frank Kirkman, donor of the Kirkman Award given to the boy who represented Oak Ridges with outstanding ability and sportsmanship.

The boys are picked from the four representative teams by a player vote. This year's winner was John Lenneville.
