Neighborhood Notes
Those with Cable TV in the Richmond Hill viewing area should tune in next Tuesday evening to see a program of interest.

Mrs. Keith Carson (Beverly Burr), a member of the York Central Consumers' Association will talk on location with Harvey Brown of Markham in his capacity as a beef producer, and Jim and Vicki Boynton of C. S. Boynton and Sons, Ltd., Victoria Square. The subject of this month's Consumer Program is "Beef — From The Hoof To The Plate."

The smorgasbord at Brown's Corners United Church, is now a memory — friends came from long distances to attend — Islington, Brantford, Burlington, Montreal and many from the Toronto area and right around home. A large party attended from B.C.'s sister church, Eastminster United, in Toronto. But the best thing was the co-operation of everyone right around home, from planning the event to the clean-up of the last dish.

The autumn decor provided by Adele Carruthers charmed everyone, and the candle-lit room was an inviting dining hall. And while the guests waited to be served there was music provided by Dorothy Reesor, Marguerite Jones and members of the children's choir.

Another old family name leaves the neighborhood. On Saturday Otto (Mike) McQuay hold an auction sale at the home where he was born. He has moved to property northeast of Metro. More on that later.

Friends were happy to see Mrs. Lillian Roberts of Vancouver in the neighborhood last week. Mrs. Roberts and her late husband were at M-F Farms for several years when Mr. Roberts was the accountant there.

Keith Hood tells us the Scarborough Chapter of Barbershoppers will go to Kansas City next summer to compete in the international competition to be held there. The chapter, of which he is a member, took first place in the Ontario competition held about two weeks ago in Toronto.

Friends were sorry to learn that Mrs. Cliff Moss and her sister Mrs. Rhoda Gilmour were involved in a serious accident on Highway 7 at Concession 5 last Monday evening. Mrs. Gilmour is in serious condition at North York General and Mrs. Moss was badly shaken up. We wish them a rapid recovery.

Stanley Patterson is making good progress at Sunnybrook Hospital, after a recent fall in which his neck was broken. He is now able to walk in little.

There were 22 tables of players at the third game of the present euchre series sponsored by Buttonville WI Friday night.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Earla Brammer, Mrs. Mildred Eddington, Mrs. Evelyn Woodcock, Mrs. Aileen Stiver, George Foster, Donald Brodie, Jim Eddington, and Matt Davie. Lucky draws went to Cecil Latham and Harvey Hill, and freezeout winners were Mrs. Kay Prentice and Cecil Latham Mrs. Stella Claughton and Bill Swain. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Rose Brodie, Mrs. Tim Peterson, Mrs. Jim Rodick, Mrs. Milton Sherman, Mrs. Ken Stots and Mrs. George Barker.

Among the grade 13 graduates who will attend graduation ceremonies at Thornlea Secondary School Friday evening are Wayne Stiver, now in the audio-visual course at Seneca College, Sharon Buchanan who is at University of Western Ontario, and Susan Tennyson, who is taking nursing education at a Toronto hospital.

Friends were happy to see Mr. James Dugan of Lachine, Quebec in the area last week.
