Commencement For Grade 13's and 12's
Saturday was the commencement for the graduating 13's and graduating 12's. We all from Bayview wish them the best of luck in their forecoming future. Learning will continue to some extent throughout your lifetime. You will learn more about yourself. You will learn to know the people you associate with, and you will learn to know more and more about the people closest to you, through new experiences. You will learn more about the world and about life. We should not seek learnings that are beyond our reach, but neither should we aim so low, that we make little growth over a lifetime.

MR. AND MRS. CHRISTOPHER HOPSON
Nassau Honeymoon For Hopsons

A honeymoon in Nassau followed the September wedding of Dianna Mary Elizabeth Sanlon, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sanlon, 200 Zella Crescent, Richmond Hill and Christopher Norman Hopson, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hopson, 76 Palmer Avenue, Richmond Hill.

The ceremony took place at Our Lady Queen of the World Roman Catholic Church, Richmond Hill at 4 pm with Father Joseph Nolan officiating.

The altar was decorated on each side with large baskets of yellow and apricot gladiolus, daisies and green ferns.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride and her attendants walked down the aisle to "Trumpets Jubilee" played by John Ingram.

The bride wore a full length gown of polyester satin. The bodice was polyester satin with Chantilly lace over it. The full length sleeves and cathedral train were also Chantilly lace. The gown was made by the bride. She carried a cascade bouquet of deep red roses, white carnations and baby's breath.

Maid of honor, Miss Linda Gordon, wore an apricot color gown. The gown was fashioned in the empire line and made of chiffon over rayon trimmed with white cotton lace around the collar, cuffs and hem. She carried a nosegay of yellow and gold color daisies with a sheaf of wheat placed in it.

Bridesmaids were Miss Donna Bellinger, Mrs. Mary Dodd and Miss Cathy Wilkinson (cousin of the bride). They were dressed in the same style gowns as the maid of honor, only Miss Bellinger and Miss Wilkinson wore yellow. Mrs. Dodd wore green. They also carried nosegays of yellow and gold daisies.

Flower girl, Theresa Fortier (cousin of the bride) wore a green smock style gown with double rows of white cotton lace around the sleeves and hem. She too carried a nosegay of daisies, only on a smaller scale. Her gown was also made by the bride.

Best man was Steve Hopson, brother of the groom, and ushers were Tom Kernohan, Richard Hopson, brother of the groom, and Tom Sanlon, brother of the bride. All male attendants were dressed alike in brown tuxedos, beige shirts and brown ties.

The reception was held at the Black Hawk Motor Inn, Richmond Hill, with 100 people attending for a roast beef dinner. The mother of the bride received the guests in a full length gown of pink peau de soie bottom and pink lace top (made by the bride). She wore a corsage of white sweetheart roses.

The groom's mother received the guests in a full length gown of yellow chiffon with a mauve flower design. She wore a corsage of yellow roses and pink carnations.

For the reception the tables were covered with white table cloths and had six long stem red roses as centre pieces (donated by Jack Gordon). The three-tier white wedding cake was decorated with white daisies and cherubs topped with a cherub sitting in an upside down bell. The cake was made by food services students at Don Head Secondary School.

After dinner about 80 more people came to the reception and at about 7:30 to start dancing. The bride and her father had the first dance to "Daddy's Little Girl", then the bride and groom and the attendants danced to "You Make Me So Very Happy".

For a going away outfit the bride wore a brown pant suit with white accessories and a corsage of rust colored daisies. The groom wore a brown western style suit with brown shirt and tie. For their last dance the bride and groom chose the song "Raindrops".

Wedding gifts were received from as far away as Hawaii, California and England, and guests came from as far away as Cheltenham, England, Ottawa and Port Rowan.

Neighborhood Notes
Last week was really for the birds! However, the fog didn't deter many people from attending the Carrville Turkey Supper Wednesday night. We are sorry the dense fog prevented many others from attending and are grateful so many did manage to come.

You know, it is hard to put into words the amount of help the workers received from the several age groups. Behind the scenes were the unsung heroes and heroes. Thank you so much for your assistance.

To dispel further gloom, we had a wonderful Halloween Costume Party at the Carrville United Church Saturday evening. Considerable ingenuity was displayed in the diversified haberdashery.

"Shes" looked like "hes" and "hes" looked like "shes". Some looked like "its" while others looked like the indescribable. It was a lot of fun.

With all the unfavorable events that have transpired in some parts of the world, it is imperative to have a sense of humor and to pass it along to our fellow men. It is unfortunate that armaments and dishonesty have been instrumental in preventing so many in some parts of the world from enjoying their share of good clean fun.

If some of you readers would like to help in this very worthy cause, please telephone Mrs. Ella Bradford at 889-4078, or Mrs. Carrie Read at 889-6774. Oh, I almost forgot. Draw tickets are available on a hand crafted quilt.

Best wishes go to Gordon Read who celebrated his birthday on October 27.

GORMLEY MISSIONARY CHURCH
Celebrating our Centennial
(1873-1973)

Weekend Of Word And Praise

This weekend is an important one for the congregation of Gormley Missionary Church as it celebrates its Centennial. Guest speaker for the happy occasion will be President Dr. Charles Seidenspiener, Emmanuel Bible College, Kitchener and special music will be provided by Director of Music Fred Lehman, Bethany, Missionary Church Kitchener and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baker and Mrs. Musicians and singers of Orilla (Friday and Saturday evenings only).

Friday is family night with the program starting at 7:30 pm. The theme will be "Our Victorious Lord Jesus Christ".

Saturday at the same time will be youth night with the theme "Our Abiding Lord Jesus Christ".

There will be three services Sunday: morning worship at 11 am with the theme "Our Reigning Lord Jesus Christ"; afternoon service at 2:30 pm with the theme "Our Worthy Lord Jesus Christ". At this service there will be a homecoming fellowship, praise and worship around the Lord's Table. The concluding service will be held at 7:30 pm with the theme "Our Coming Lord Jesus Christ".

A light lunch is being provided at noon for the convenience of visiting friends and a cordial invitation is extended to join the congregation in celebrating this milestone in its history of service to the community.

It was in 1873 that the present church site was donated by John Leary and the first church erected. It was about 28 feet by 40 feet and of white frame construction, made from timber donated by Mr. Leary from his farm and George Collard, the sawyer and head carpenter. It was heated by two big iron box stoves and lit by oil lamps.

For the first 10 years the church operated as a Union Church before being taken over in 1883 by a Mennonite congregation. Among the early preachers were John Steckley and Menno Bowman, both of whom have descendants in the present congregation.

A membership list was compiled in 1891 with charter members, being Mr. and Mrs. David Hoover, Mrs. Moses Weber, Mrs. John Conner, Mrs. Tobias Wideman, Mrs. Daniel Doner, and Mrs. Elizabeth Hunt (sister of David Hoover). This was the beginning of the present Gormley Missionary Church.

Additional land was deeded to the church for $1 by George Leary, son of the original donor, to enable the original church building to be replaced in 1931 by a larger brick building.

The congregation continued to outgrow the facilities, and in May, 1966, a major extension to the 1931 building was completed and dedicated.

The Gormley Missionary Church is located on the Stouffville Sideroad between Don Mills and Bayview. Its present minister is Rev. Eldon Boettger.

Extinguishing Fires Only Part Of Job For Local Firefighters

It's not all putting out fires for members of Richmond Hill Fire Department.

Besides attending their usual quota of brush fires, the local firefighters were called on to rescue a woman from a stalled elevator in an apartment block at 170 Bayview Avenue, October 29.

Mrs. B. Tucker, a resident of the building, was in the elevator by herself about 6:50 am when it stopped.

Firemen were unable to get the door open, and an elevator repairman had to be called.

Jamming of the elevator is believed to have been due to an electrical fault.

The local department also had to put out the flames in a couple of vacant houses and in a car, which had been abandoned.

The houses were at Pugsley and Rosevelt Avenue.

The fires, which were believed to have been started by children, caused minimal damage before being extinguished.

Heavy damage was done in the car fire, which occurred on Hillside Drive. The car was thought to have been stolen.

In King Township 50 horses were led to safety in a $40,500 barn fire October 22.

The fire occurred at the farm of Joseph Clark, Concession 2, and was discovered in a hayloft by Robert Webb, a hired hand.

He turned in the alarm and the Aurora Fire Department answered the call.

The barn was completely destroyed, as was one horse, which ran back into the building after first being led out.

Tractors kept Vaughan firemen busy last week.

An overflow of gas from the tank to a hot manifold, caused $600 damage to a tractor belonging to Herb Weatherall, Woodbridge, October 26.

That same day, firemen put out a fire in a tractor belonging to Don Williamson, RR 1, Maple.

The fire, which was started by a short in the wiring system, caused $500 damage.

Newmarket also came close to having a major fire on its hands Monday morning (October 29).

The fire occurred in a car which was being repaired at the Fina Service Station, Millard Avenue and Yonge Street, about 11 o'clock.

An employee of the station said that gas-soaked seats in the car, which had been in an accident, were set on fire by sparks from a cutter's torch.

The fire, which burned the car down to a shapeless piece of tin, sent clouds of black smoke billowing across Highway 11 as station attendants fought to keep it from spreading to the rest of the station before firemen arrived to put it out.

Parkway Corridor Planner's Problem

The province's proposal for a parkway corridor for the Southern York area has been a bone of contention among local and regional planners for more than a year.

Tonight (Thursday) at 7 pm on Cable 10, Vaughan Planning Director John Dewar discusses the difficulties which his department must face in dealing with this situation.

How can local planners go ahead with their jobs when the province remains unsure of the positioning of the corridor in this area, Mr. Dewar asks. And in the larger context, is the province really reacting to municipal planning proposals and plans?

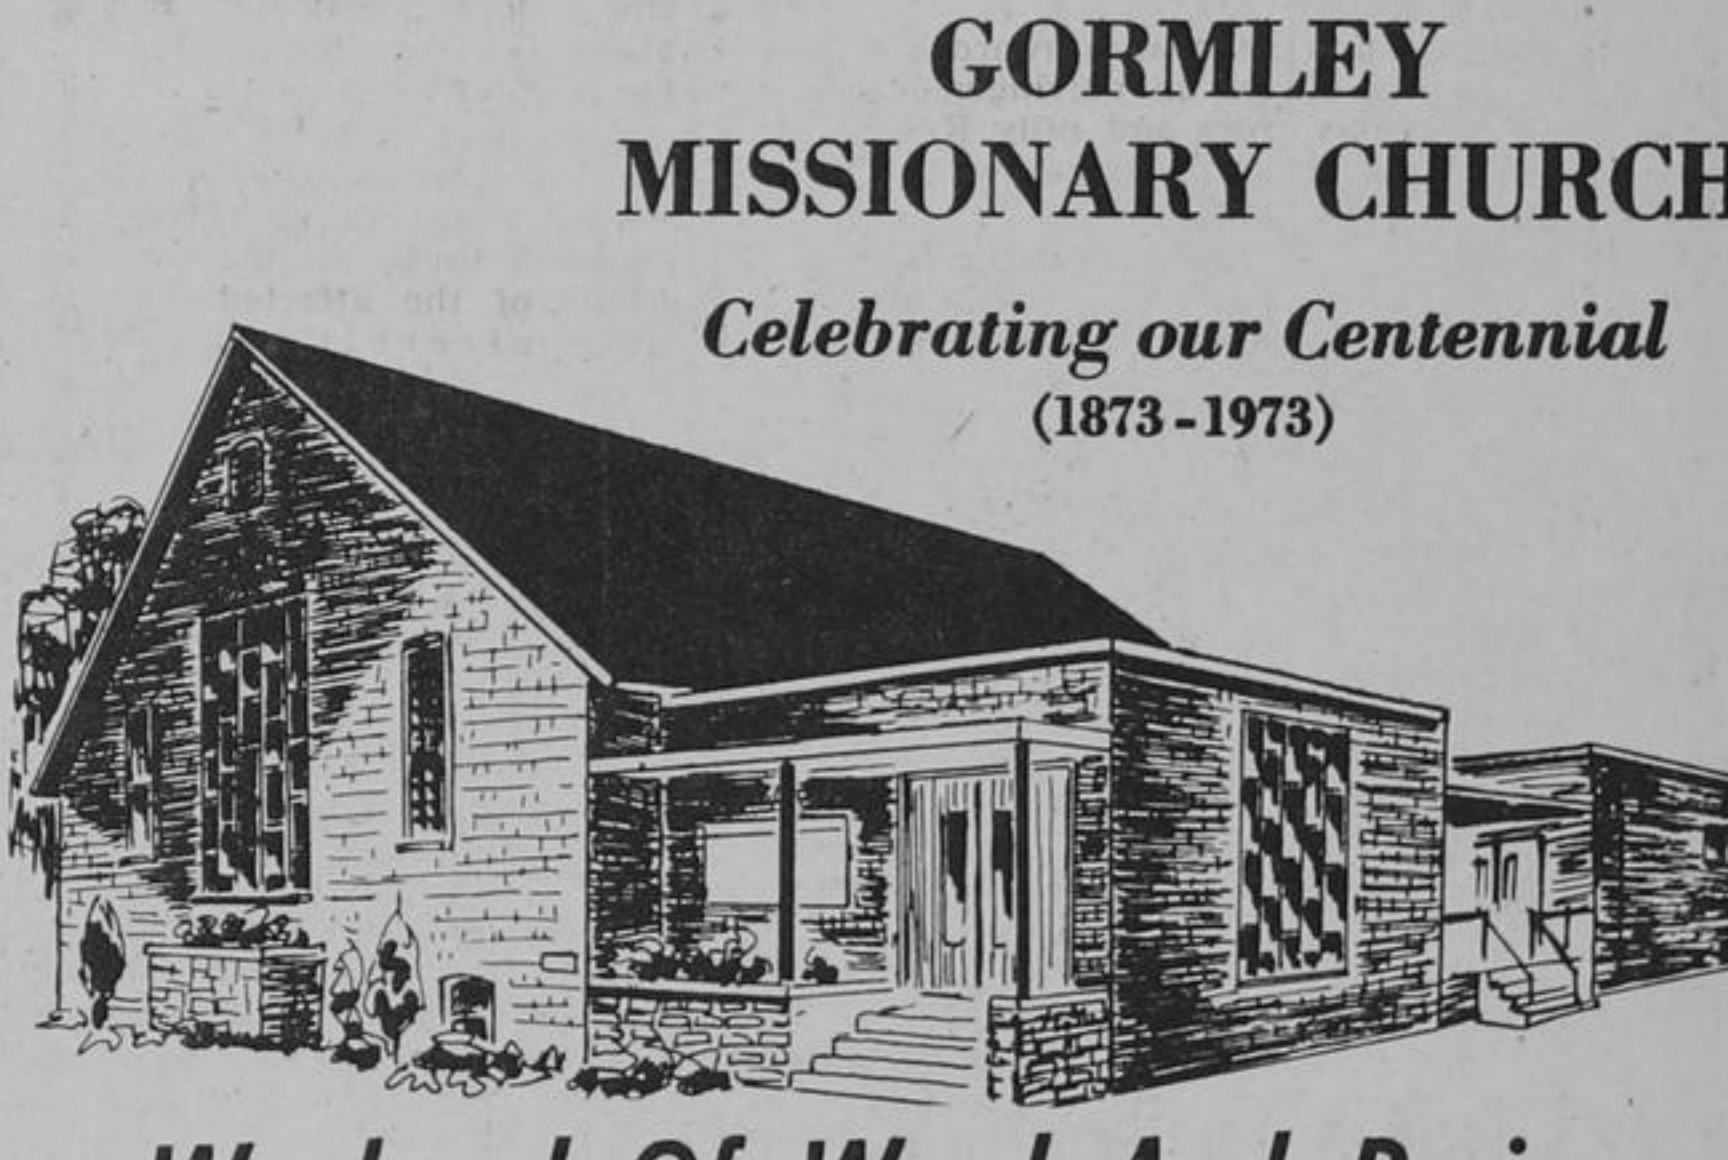

The proposed Highway 407 and the Middleport to Pickering Hydro Transmission Line Corridor will both exert enormous pressures on existing planning proposals. Where will they go, and when will they come into being?

How can area residents make themselves heard at the higher levels of government?

These are a few of the questions that will be put to Mr. Dewar on the Channel 10 "The York Region — Planning And You" Series as it continues to look at the parkway corridor — the good, the bad and the beautiful.

This special program will be repeated at the top of each hour until midnight.
