Church News
Christmas Lights and even Christmas Trees are beginning to show up around the countryside and Christmas Programs are planned.

Next Sunday, the first Sunday of Advent, there will be a special service in the morning at Brown's Corners United Church, and beginning at 5:30 pm there will be a pot luck supper followed by the making of three decorations and a decoration party. At 8:30 pm there will be a carol sing around the tree to complete the evening.

The UCW will hold a pot luck luncheon and Christmas Program at the church December 5, with small gifts presented for a charitable organization.

Sunday December 9, at 11 am is White Gift Sunday, and December 23 the Christmas Service at 11 am and the CGIT Candlelight Service at 7:30 pm.

Neighborhood Notes
The Buttonville Branch of YCHA will hold a benefit sale of baking and hand-made articles and a euchre at Buttonville WI Hall, December 7 at 8 pm, with proceeds for York Central Hospital.

The Buttonville Women's Institute will hold a Christmas Luncheon and party at the hall, December 12 at noon.

All designed to celebrate the Christmas Season.

The Douglas Clarkes have left their home on Hughson Drive and have purchased a new home on Weber Drive in Carlton Village at Unionville.

Friends learned last weekend of the death of Mrs. Wm. McGimpsey at the Rosebank Nursing Home. Mrs. McGimpsey and her husband were well loved members of this community for many years. After her husband's death some years ago Mrs. McGimpsey lived with her daughter's family in Scarboro until her health failed.

She will long be remembered for her work in the Buttonville Women's Institute and at Brown's Corners United.

A funeral service was held at the Ogden Funeral Home, Sheppard Avenue, Agincourt, November 26, with Rev. Allen Hallett officiating.

Two community members are in hospital this week — Mrs. Reg. Allen was taken to Scarboro Centenary Hospital Friday of last week, and Bill Palmer is in York Central Hospital.

Last weekend Mrs. Don Reesor and Mrs. Marguerite Jones were at Cedar Glen, the United Church recreational centre, for a music seminar.

Mrs. George Kelly of Newmarket, the Buttonville WI historian, was guest speaker Wednesday of last week when WI members met at Buttonville hall for the regular meeting. Her topic was on old homes in the area, particularly the William Baker House on Buttonville Crescent West. Mrs. Richard Pralet presented a comprehensive report on the recent convention held by the Central Ontario Women's Institutes at the Royal York Hotel.

Hostesses were Miss Elizabeth French, Mrs. Tim Patterson and Mrs. Adam Brown. Next month's meeting will be held December 12 at the hall.

The Happy Timers (Unit 1, UCW) entertained senior members of Brown's Corners United at the Christian Education Room, November 21, for their regular meeting. A thought-provoking film was shown, followed by discussion, and a business meeting.

Hostesses Mrs. Harvey Brown and Mrs. Eleanor Walker planned the program and served delightful refreshments.
