MARGARET HOUGHTON
MINOR ATOMS
Poly-Converters 5
Delco Tool/SPM 1
Gary Petrinec's Poly-Converters trounced Bill Graham's Delco 5-1 for their win of the season. It was a team effort, with goals scored by Larry DeMarco from Number 15, Mike Havery, Joe Danckert, Dave Foster from Robert Sinkus, and Robbie Maxwell.

Delco's single answer was scored as the second period opened, by Gary Quenneville.

7-Up 1, Tudor Glen 0
A crucial game for Steve Andrews' 7-Up and Bob Goodyear's Tudor Glen was a 1-0 win for the uncola boys. Ed Brown from Dave Sobiski notched the game's only marker at the midpoint of the first period. Both goalies deserve mention, Ryan Foster in the 7-Up net, Chris Gove for Tudor Glen.

Willowdale Rotary 1
Walmarc Wood 0
Another hard-fought game with a 1-0 score was Ron Arcangeli's Willowdale move into first place over Gerry Day's Walmarc Wood.

A scoreless, hard-fought game was played until the final minute when Mike Darby skated in for the marker. Richard Quirk was in nets for Willowdale, Kevin Day deserves a mention for Walmarc.

Normac Kitchens 1
Shoppers' Drug Mart 0
Two teams playing great hockey resulted in a 1-0 win for Normac over Shoppers' Drug Mart. David Hopley scored the game's only goal, and once again the goalies did a great job. Duhee Lee was in the net for Normac. New goalie Ted Frost played a great game for Shoppers.

York Fire 3, DeMarco 1
York Fire seems to have regained their momentum with a 3-1 win over DeMarco this week. DeMarco's Bryon Disera skated off with the games' opener before anyone was watching. Todd McKnight found the net twice in 10 seconds, assisted on one by Scott Gray. Scoreless hockey through the second period with everyone's hopes high, was followed by Eric Stephenson's insurance with Peter Linton assisting. N. S. Smith 3, Deluca 2.

N. S. Smith won their first game 3-2 over Deluca, with Tim Maxwell scoring twice, Marty Caughlin from John McPherson and Dave Morris scored for Smith late in the first.

Kevin Foster from Colin Bell answered to tie it up. Maxwell's first marker put Smith ahead. Ross Maudslayi tied it again for Deluca, assisted by Foster. Maxwell then scored the winning goal with Bailey Abramovitz getting an assist.

PEEWEE
Marshall's Shell 2
Canac Kitchens 1
Two goals by Marshall's Rory Allen doubled Canac Kitchens 2-1. Stephen Boyd, Tony Bird and Brian Jones assisted. The sole Canac answer came from Stewart Breithaupt, assisted by Shawn Ridout.

Disera 3, Stan Cook 2
An exciting game between Disera and Stan Cook was Disera's first win. Cook's Keith Sutch opened. Robin Culley answered for Disera early in the first period. Edward Kerr-Taylor from Ed O'Brien put Disera ahead.

Late in the second period Disera's Scott Fotheringham from O'Brien and Kerr-Taylor scored. Sutch scored his second goal for Stan Cook.

Buckler Insurance 3
Goodwood Sand 1
Two goals by Mark Jonak put Buckler ahead in the first period. Bobby Smith assisted on the first. Paul Murphy narrowed the difference, assisted by Garry James and Carl Levy. Warren Thompson, from Scott Brooke finished off the game.

SQUIRTS

Boutique-Bridge Money Maker For Hospital Auxiliary

The largest branch in the auxiliary with about 80 members, Thornhill Branch of YCHA held a very successful boutique and bridge on Thornhill United Church November 14. The program began with dessert and coffee, and proceeds will be going to assist in improving facilities and services in the rapidly expanding York Central Hospital. Psychiatric and extended care services will be included in the large addition now under way at the hospital on Vaughan Road in Richmond Hill.
