Arson At Abandoned House

An abandoned, two-storey, brick house was completely destroyed by fire Sunday night in Richmond Hill. Chief Robert Kennedy said the house, which was located at Yonge Street and Roosevelt Drive, had been deliberately set on fire. Firemen were at the scene for seven-and-a-half hours.

Rams Defeat Markham 5 To 3 Injury Battered But Leading League

A somewhat injury-battered crew of Richmond Hill Rams got going early Tuesday night to ram home four first period goals to down Markham Waxers 5-3 and move into a first place tie in the Provincial Junior "A" Hockey League race.

The Rams, sporting four new players from the Richmond Hill minor hockey system, outshot the visitors 38-23 and dominated most of the play with the exception of a second period letdown which saw Markham score all of its three goals on Brian Stankiewicz.

Rams playing a heady, checking-game forcing the play and restricting the Waxers to just three shots while testing Huckle through 12.

"You're always happy when you win a big game, and especially so with your big guns sitting it out," said Brimblecombe.

The Rams dominated the first period of the game skating off with a 4-1 lead on goals by Stuart at 3:27 from Rob Yotoff and Alan Potts; Dynes at 5:24 from Stuart; and Hartman's first at 8:14 from Bob Bangay. Gord Ullman got one back from Markham at 13:29 but Bangay came right back at 13:40 to score on a pass from Hartman.

High scoring winger Mike Hartman showed the way with two goals with singles going to Dave Stuart, Bob Bangay, and Bob Dynes. Dynes was one of the four players brought up for the game and it was his first goal in a Ram sweater. Dynes is a member of the Richmond Hill Minor Midgets. Also sweating up were Tony Robinson and Mike Gallagher of the Legion Midgets and Tom Lamb of the juveniles.

Markham took the play away from Richmond Hill in the second period and managed to get within one goal at the 12:50 mark on tallies by Dan Glugosh and Cec Hofstetter.

The Waxers pressed for the tying mark and Stankiewicz, under pressure, flipped a clearing shot which travelled over the Markham blueline.

More Urban Parks

When regional municipalities have assumed all the new powers they will have responsibility for 38 areas of local administration formerly handled by the Provincial Government. The transfer of powers was first announced in September by Treasurer White.

Wider Local Power

Plans of redevelopment won't need to go to the Municipal Board any longer but will go directly to Minister White. The municipalities will be allowed to require an acre of any development site area for every 120 dwelling units instead of having only the existing five per cent park land reserve.

MISSING REGULARS

Coach Brimblecombe was oozing praise for the four minor leaguers who filled the injury gap. "It speaks well for our minor system," noted Brimblecombe. "The kids performed fine. I was especially happy with young Dynes."

THE DIGGER

But it was regulars Dave "Digger" Dunkley and Dave Stuart who carried the major share of the load for the staggering Rams. "There's no doubt about it," said Brimblecombe, "those two guys are doing it."

Conflict Admitted Police Resignation

Detective Art Haney of the Richmond Hill Division of York Regional Police, has resigned from the force, Chief Bruce Crawford announced at a meeting of the police commission Tuesday night of last week.

The chief said he found it "extremely difficult" to explain the resignation of Haney, other than to say that, in a force the size of York's, "one would always find conflict of some kind among the employees."

Such a situation existed with Haney, but the chief said he learned about it too late to do anything about it.

He said he had talked to those concerned and tried to rectify the matter, but Haney had remained adamant.

"I regret sincerely losing this officer — he's a good one," the chief said.

He said the conflict had not been between him and Haney.

Haney's resignation was accepted with regret by the meeting.
