Big Winner In Oak Ridges Hockey Draw

A happy winner is Carol Simmons of Thornhill shown receiving a cheque for $225.50 at the November 50-50 Lucky Draw of the Oak Ridges Minor Hockey Association. Drawing the lucky ticket was Ted Clague (left) who is president of the association. It was made November 25 at Bond Lake Arena. Proceeds of the monthly draw go into the Oak Ridges Association.

Sil's decree about unnecessary penalties was borne out last season when he coached the Richmond Hill Minor Midgets to a successful season. "We had a ruling whereby any of our players who drew a misconduct was told to go right to the dressing room. Our method of impressing our rule was to have the dressing room key at the bench and hand it to the particular player."

As evidence that this somewhat novel disciplinary measure was effective and was taken in good spirit came at the end of the season. "The coaching staff got together and presented the kids with miniature dressing room keys. They got a kick out of it."

Sil then added the post-script by displaying a large dressing room key mounted on a wooden plaque which the team had presented to him.

"That made the whole season worthwhile in itself," said Sil.

One of Sil's present players on the Kings is a familiar figure to him in that it's his son, Val Steffan. Val is currently out with cartilage damage but hopes to be back soon.

HARD WORK

"I think we'll come along if we work hard and play that 60 minutes of hockey," Sil paid credit to his assistants on the team in the person of Barry Bingham and Bill Woloski who are "doing one heck of a job. I'm lucky to have them."

The interview ended shortly after as Sil got back to working out his line-ups for the two games he was facing that night; one a bantam, the other a junior.

I wished him luck but just in case I handed him back the bullets as I left. You never know.

Brockton Midgets Unbeaten Down Schomberg And Stroud

The Oak Ridges Alex Brockton Midgets kept their unbeaten season record intact with 3-2 and 7-1 wins over Schomberg and Stroud respectively last week.

They now have nine wins and two ties in as many starts. It was the two goal and two assist effort of Dale Roffey showing the way in the 7-1 win over Stroud at Stroud Saturday.

Right behind with two goals of his own was Al Heintzman with singles going to Bill Metcalfe, Pete McConnell, and Steve Colinson. McConnell also drew two assists with Colinson getting the other one.

Dan Pincombe was in goal for Oak Ridges. The same Roffey also came up with two key goals against Schomberg December 5 at home with Jim Gerber checking in with the other one.

Frank Wood was in net for Oak Ridges. The Oak Ridges Lions Club Juveniles put together goals by Brent Orser and Albert Shaw to the King City 2-2 December 4.

They then went on to carry out a 5-2 win against Stroud Friday night and then edged King 1-0 Saturday at King.

That 2-2 tie saw assists going to Larry Gueran, Larry VanDyke, Al Heintzman and Cam Cummins. The 5-2 win against Stroud was led by Gueran who rapped home three goals and an assist Al Heintzman and John Wood scored the other goals.

Other assists went to Heintzman, Wood and Albert Shaw. It was Shaw getting the only goal on an assist from Steve Ashby in the 1-0 win against King.

Bantam action saw Oak Ridges walloping Stroud 7-1 Saturday night with Terry Robinson playing outstandingly in the nets. Included among the goals scorers was Tony Roffey with two and Glen Wright with one. Assists went to Doug Jones, Karl Taylor and Ted Clague.

It was Harold DeGeer's turn to shine December 5 as the Oak Ridges team downed Sharon 4-1. Tony Roffey scored twice with single goals going to Glen Wright and Doug Jones. Single as-

Nats Win By 6-2, 7-1 Over Weston, Whitby

Two power play goals Sunday started the Vaughan Nationals off to a running start and they went on to take the measure of Weston Dodgers 6-2 and maintain their first place lead in the scrambling Provincial Junior "A" Hockey League race.

Popping in those goals were Brian Wilton on a deflected shot from the point and the other by Brian Burch.

The Nats ran into a double penalty late in the period and Weston's Gary Farrell got one of the goals back on a tip-in on a pass from Jim Coville.

Then came the final period as the Vaughan line of Ray Koopman, Warren Holmes and Vic Grisdale dominated play with Grisdale scoring twice with singles going to Koopman and Holmes. Rick Know scored the other goal for Weston.

Kevin Walton was in the nets for Vaughan in both games.

The Nats will be on the road for the next two weeks playing in Whitby tonight (Thursday) and Sunday in Richmond Hill.

Nats Lose Seneca Still In First

The Vaughan Nationals maintained their precarious perch atop the Provincial Junior "A" hockey league Monday night despite losing a 6-4 game to the onrushing Seneca Flyers.

But the Flyers still have a game in hand over the Nationals having played 22 games for 32 points. Vaughan has 33 points.

Tom Butt, Paul Foley, Dan Shearer, Bob Schneider, Mike Keating and Joe Tonelli scored for Seneca.

Doug Sellars, Brian Burch, Brian Wilton and Warren Holmes scored for Vaughan.

Local Aquatic Club Swimmers Impress But Lose To Peterboro

Richmond Hill Aquatic Club members gave great individual performances in Sunday's meet with Peterboro "Y" but the club's lack of depth was apparent in the overall score.

Peterboro won the joust. Swim meets are judged on the first six places which finds small club like Richmond Hill badly outnumbered. However, several Hill swimmers won or placed in their event.

Glenn Patten was in especially good form placing first in the 100 metre free style, 100 metre backstroke and 100 metre fly for 11-12 years olds. He also placed a close second in the 100 metre breaststroke.

Other swimmers who placed were: Mandy Lloyd, 1st 100 metre free style, 1st 100 metre fly, 2nd, 100 metre back, 13-14 years.

Phil Moore, 1st 100 metre back stroke, 2nd 100 metre freestyle, 3rd 100 metre fly, open; Neil Miller, 1st 100 metre free style, 2nd 100 metre back stroke, open; Garry Gentry, 2nd in the 100 metre freestyle, 100 metre back stroke and 100 metre fly, 13-14 years.

Stephen Davey, 1st 100 metre breast stroke, 11-12 years; Bonnie Branch, 2nd 100 metre back stroke, 3rd 100 metre free style, 11-12 years; Bill Fulghum, 2nd 100 metre breast stroke, 13-14 years; Birgit Pfening, 2nd 100 metre free style, 13-14 years; Kelli Patten, 2nd 100 metre breast stroke, 11-12 years.

Wendy Klein, 2nd 100 metre breast stroke, 11-12 years; Chris Arbuckle, 3rd 100 metre free style, 11-12 years; Barb Dickson, 3rd 50 metre breast stroke, 10 and under; Dawn Dowling, 3rd 100 metre breast stroke, 11-12 years; Barbara Arbuckle, 3rd 100 metre fly, 13-14 years.

In the 400 metre medley relay for 13-14 years old girls, the Richmond Hill team of Barbara Arbuckle, Ann McIlwaine, Mandy Lloyd and Birgit Pfening, placed first.

As an indication of the calibre of the opposition, Peterboro Y brought along 10-year-old Chris Engelke, a Canadian record holder in his age group for the 100 metre free style.

Lab Trials, Turkey Shoot, Cold Creek

Retrievers from Ontario and neighboring New York State compete for ribbons, Sunday at Cold Creek Conservation Area.

Field training trials open to registered retrievers start at 10 a.m. The dogs will compete in puppy, junior, qualifying and open class competition. The trials are sponsored by the Labrador Owners' Association of Toronto.

The same day, Cold Creek hosts the last of this year's Christmas Turkey Shoots. A special 50 target trap shoot starts off the program at 10:30 am with a turkey going to top scorer. In addition, two prizes will be awarded for hidden scores. The shoot is sponsored by the Black Spruce Sportsmen's Association.

Relay competitions get underway from 1 pm to 4 pm. Twelve gauge shotguns without compensators are required. Ammunition and targets will be supplied. Participants not owning shotguns will have free use of available club firearms. Shooting in relays competitors will fire at six inch targets at 35 yards with a turkey going to the winner of each relay. There is a $1.00 charge per relay in addition to the regular parking fee.

Cold Creek reports that "high power" action is over for the season. The centre fire range closed on December 1.

Cold Creek is located midway between Bolton and Nobleton on Concession 11 approximately three miles north of the King Sideroad. The area is operated by the Metro Conservation Authority.

For more information please contact Metro Conservation at 630-9780.

Surf Marine 4
W. A. Stephenson 2
Wayne McCartney wielded the big stick for Surf getting all four tallies. Doug Michell had two assists and James Vermeulen one. Mike Cruise and Bob Frater were the sharpshooters for Stephenson with assists going to Frater Dave Collins and Jim Dunkley.

Village Pizza 7
Little Fords 2
Village's win came on a pair of tallies each by Roland Proulx and Neil Clack with singles by John Thurston, Doug Whitting and Steve Wilson. Assists were by Clack, John Peden (2), Thurston and Wilson.

Zenio Ferrone and Bob Adams, helped by Ferrone, scored for Littles.

BAIF 5
Bowden Lumber 3
Fred Worm and Wayne Henderson flipped the puck into the net twice each for BAIF and Paul Henderson once. Paul also had two assists, Mike Trebench, Allen Cheney, Chuck Lawrence and Terry Fortier one each.

Scoring for Bowdens were Wayne Whitaker with two and Eric Thompson with one. Earning assists were Dave Bourque, Richard Kern and Mike Briscoe.

AURORA: Alliance Building Corp., Toronto, will build an industrial and commercial complex on Yonge Street South here and is negotiating for a 10-acre industrial site in Newmarket. Alliance recently bought the 188-acre farm immediately south of Aurora's new industrial park and plans office building and commercial development on the Yonge Street frontage and light industrial development to the east.
