Hail to 1974. May it live up to your highest hopes.
Church News
 At Brown's Corners United the last of Christmas came Sunday night, December 23, when the CGIT presented the annual Vesper Service. Readers were Cheryl Tenyson, Kathy Cunningham and Gina Allen, with Susan Parton as Candelighter.

There were skits by Katherine Rumney, Karl Bewell, Julie Brumwell and Susie Gibbons, Carol Wood and Sue Racicot. Taking part in the pageant of the Christ Child were Glen Donaldson, Brian Carr and Philip Webster as the three kings; Gerry Reesor as the shepherd and Peggie Brumwell as the angel. Mary and Joseph were portrayed by Explorer members. Mrs. Joy Crawford played the organ. Mrs. Lloyd Tenyson and Mrs. John Buchanan organized the CGIT program and Mrs. Kenneth Stiver supervised Explorers.

 On Christmas Sunday William Clayton Churchill, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Churchill (nee Gayle Jones) was baptized in a service conducted by Rev. Allen Hallett. The baby is the grandson of Clayton and Marguerite Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Churchill of Thornhill.

 Sunday at Brown's Corners United there will be a luncheon following the morning service to which members of the congregation are invited.

A brief program is also planned.
 On Wednesday of next week members of the Brown's Corners UCW will cater at a snowmobile meet to be held at Massey Ferguson Farms.
Neighborhood Notes
 Guests at the Russell Boyington home on Christmas day were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Colton and their three children. At New Year's the Coltons travelled to Erie, Pennsylvania, to visit family there.

Euchre players take note. The first game of the winter series sponsored by the Buttonville WI will be played at Buttonville Hall Friday at 8 p.m.
 Come and meet your neighbors and enjoy a good game and refreshments.
 Sharon Buchanan spent the Christmas holidays at home and returns now to Western University at London.
 Mrs. Sidney English spent Christmas with the Gray family and also visited with the Bartrams at King.

Ken and Lois Bennett were at Kearney in Muskoka for Christmas and the New Year on a winter holiday. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clark played hosts to Mrs. William Clark and other members of the family.
 Mr. and Mrs. Alf Miller planned to hold open house on New Year's Eve, and were dining with the Paul Mingays on New Year's Day.
 Mrs. Bill Baker entertained members of her family on Christmas, and spent New Year's Day with family members.
