MINOR HOCKEY ASSOCIATION

Thornhill Minor Bantams Flatten Aurora 6-1

By JIM BROWNING (Week of December 16-23) CLUB 400

December 22 winners were C. K. Chapman (329), M. Fitzgerald (152), E. DeLotto (18), Peel Block Co. 72, P. J. Elder (345).

MINOR PEEWEES

Thornhill 5, Orillia 5

Orillia opened the scoring with three unanswered goals in the first period before Fisher Bros. counted. Drilla scored the only goal of the second period and the opening goal of the third period to take a 5-1 lead.

Paul Howson then scored a true hat trick with three consecutive counters. Thornhill's fourth goal was scored with a sixth attacker on the ice. The power play which resulted in this goal consisted of Forwards Pearson, Seeley, Howson and Sim with Defencemen Dan Anderson and Stephen Mallett.

Kurt Pearson scored the tying goal with just 14 seconds left to play.

Richmond Hill 2, Thornhill 0

The starting lineup for this game comprised the five defencemen - Anderson, Mallett, Rennicks, Roberts and Wiltshire. Fisher Bros. were unable to score on early breakaways by Pearson and Howson. Richmond Hill scored their first in the second period when they were short-handed and their second in the third period.

MAJOR PEEWEES

Thornhill 6

Goulding Park 0

Christmas came early for Roy Foy with four goals and one assist December 22. Robbie Spittle had one goal and three assists. Randy Barr had a goal and an assist. Mark Haggerty and Curtis Laing each earned an assist. Joey Hurlbut in net for the Thunderbirds recorded the shutout.

MINOR BANTAMS

Thornhill 6, Aurora 1

The line of Howson, Moffatt, and Foy single handedly destroyed the Aurora hockey club. As they successfully killed all of Thornhill's penalties and scored five big goals, they controlled the entire game from start to finish.

The sweetest goal of the game was a solo effort from Eric Coyne, as he checked the puck loose at the blue line and went in, skillfully stick handling the puck past the outstretched goalie.

Scott Howson performed the hat trick scoring three goals while Paul Moffatt scored two.

MAJOR BANTAMS

Thornhill 4, Barrie 3

Thornhill OMHA Bantams demonstrating an inspired comeback ability this week hustled their way to a 4-3 win over a tough Barrie team and with the victory achieved seven points of a possible eight offered in their past four games.

With 2:39 remaining in the final period Barrie scored to tie the game at 3-3 and raise some doubt as to whether the local heroes could go ahead again for the two point victory before time ran out. Following the face-off the play went to the right side of the Barrie net where aggressive forechecking by left winger Matt Nicholls recovered the puck for Thornhill. He passed to centre Pat Bertrand who relayed it to Scott Cowie in the slot. Cowie pulled the trigger to beat the Barrie goalie and this highly productive line, eight goals in the past four games, had scored their fourth goal of this exciting game.

Cowie was also the marksman on goal number one from Matt Nicholls although the architect was defenceman David Barr who originated the play with a determined rush from deep in his own end.

Thornhill appeared to dominate the game because of solid workmanlike checking and excellent goaltending by netminder David Howson. Early in the second period the determined and always resourceful defenceman Scott Burkhardt saved the farm when he physically destroyed a dangerous three on one Barrie rush that looked like a certain goal. Blueliner David Lovett was constant in his work throughout the whole game.

A hooking penalty to a Barrie defenceman at 12:32 of the second period established the setting for the prettiest goal of the game. Matt Nicholls recovered the puck to the right of the Barrie net, stickhandled past one defender, saw Bertrand in the clear at the right post and passed it through the crease. Bertrand's quick shot made the score 2-0.

After left winger Mike McLaughlin, on a strong individual effort, had blasted one off the crossbar, Barrie, who their manager describes as an up and down hockey team, came back to score with 11:40 remaining in the third.

Then Thornhill replied again as Pat Bertrand put in the clear by Matt Nicholls lashed one over the Barrie goalie's left shoulder. Barry McEwan looked very impressive in smothering a series of Barrie counter attacks as they attempted to recover from their two goal

240 At Royal Orchard Public School Christmas Music Show

By MARGARET GOVAN Thornhill Correspondent

In spite of the driving snow outside, an audience of 240 turned out for the Senior Students' Christmas Show at Royal Orchard Public School on December 20. Included as part of the program were the Music Makers, a community band from the Thornhill area composed of students from grade three to nine.

A major difficulty cropped up when it was discovered that two drummers from this band were snowed in! But this was remedied by Berry Lanzetta taken over. He is a former student of Royal Orchard who came out to be part of the audience! The Royal Orchard band included 70 students who for the past three months have taken instruction in their own spare time.

2 BANDS ALTERNATE

The two bands opened by playing alternate selections. Tony Mulla, a student from C. W. Jeffries High School, conducted the Music Makers. Bill Buchan, the senior vocal teacher of Royal Orchard Road School, conducted the school band.

The program was made up of traditional Christmas songs such as "We Wish You a Merry Christmas", "Swinging Old St. Nick", and carols in which the audience joined in. Non-Christmas favorites included Fiale to the New World Symphony, Rainy Days and Mondays, Glen Miller's Moonlight Serenade and more.

Featured were Royal Orchard's Joanne Crone playing a flute selection which she had arranged herself. Robert Bicheski and the saxophone section he teaches (Robert is a Grade eight student at Royal Orchard). These were two trio arrangements. Also the Royal Orchard trombone quartet played a four part arrangement of Aora Lee.

BANDS COMBINE

After the intermission the two bands were combined to perform selections from the Activities

The Drum Corps held its first practice January 2 with registration at Langstaff Secondary School, Garden Avenue. They boys will meet there regularly Wednesdays at 7:30 pm.

Richvale Minor Hockey League held its big lucky draw of the season December 23 at the old arena. Lucky winner of the snowmobile was Mike Sades from Toronto. Seller of this ticket was Robert Cashin of Dundas Road, who instead of the 10-speed bike chose to take the alternative prize of a $100 gift certificate to outfit himself with new hockey equipment, which he proudly displayed this week to his teammates on the "Atoms".

Second prize, a 10-speed bike, went to Lynne Bate from Willowdale.

Congratulations to all three, but especially to Robert, for his efforts in fund raising on behalf of his hockey league.

House league games continued as usual throughout the holidays, with almost full attendance.

Some of the boys watched the Richmond Hill Midgets play a Swedish team during the Christmas week. It was very exciting, they report.
