46th Hartman Goal, Rams Win

The Richmond Hill Rams won the hockey game but they lost at least one of the fights in somewhat spectacular fashion Tuesday night of this week.

Score of the game was Rams over Whitby Knob Hill by 4-3 in a Provincial Junior "A" contest.

Score of a fight between the Rams Jack Guest and Whitby's Steve Young was a clear-cut shutout, or rather, knockout for Young.

posely fired the puck into the seats and was nailed for delaying the game. Rams' Captain Stephenson was upset about this and said so in as many words. He received a misconduct penalty from the referee.

This would have left the Rams two men short (Pedersen and a sixth attacker for Whitby) but for some reason, the referee decided not to penalize Pedersen despite the fact it had already been announced over the PA system. Stephenson still got a misconduct for apparently protesting a penalty that turned out not to be one at all.

It all helped the Rams who concluded the game at full strength. Ah, sweet mysteries of life.

Rick Febbo, incidentally, received a misconduct himself in the final minutes following a fight with Kevin Lang. Lang got the decision on this one by a fall on top of Febbo.

Richmond Hill also had a goal called back when the puck was kicked in by Jim Graham during a goalmouth scramble in the third period with Rickman right out of the picture.

Three of the four Richmond Hill goals were scored while they had a one-man advantage. Whitby reversed things on one occasion when Dave "Digger" Dunkley lost the puck at the blueline giving Nicholson a clear path to Stankiewicz. He put the feint on Stankiewicz and fired the puck home as he went by.
