Ecumenical Service On Sunday Starts World Week Of Prayer

Christians in Richmond Hill are to mark the beginning of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity with a special service to be held at 8 p.m. Sunday at St. Mary's Anglican Church, Yonge Street South at Vaughan Road. Participating in the service will be representatives of the Anglican, Baptist, Roman Catholic, Lutheran, Presbyterian and United Churches of the community. Preaching the sermon will be Dr. Clifford Elliott, senior minister of the Metropolitan United Church in Toronto, well known radio preacher and community leader. Leading the music will be the Richmond Hill Ecumenical Choir under direction of Edward Luka.

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is marked throughout the world by Christians who gather to pray for "The unity which Christ wills for His Church". The service is arranged by the local ministerial association and jointly sponsored by the Canadian Catholic Conference and the Canadian Council of Churches. The offering received will go toward world development and relief projects jointly sponsored by the participating churches. For further information please contact Dr. Robert Smith at Richmond Hill United Church, 884-1301 or at 884-1675.

YRP Snowmobile Patrol, More Spot Checks

Chief Bruce Crawford of York Regional Police said this week that he is taking a hard look at the possibility of full-time traffic checks, as a result of a record year for traffic deaths in the region. A total of 53 people died in 42 fatal accidents, compared with 36 last year in 31 fatal accidents. During December the police conducted nightly spot checks, and went through the month accident free. The increasing number of snowmobile fatalities will also mean the institution of snowmobile patrols on Lake Simcoe, the chief said.

The chief said full-time checks would hamper other police activity and would be expensive. However, during the past year, police speeded up their radar operations and also used stop watches to clock speeders, but the fatality rate still jumped by almost 50 percent. Chief Crawford said he would be asking for a substantial increase in personnel in 1974. Present police strength is 236.

Convicted Men Blame Unrequited Love

Love isn't such a splendid thing when it ends and lands you in court. So three men found in Richmond Hill January 4. One man living out of town came here in September one afternoon to try and get his wife back and get her away from a boyfriend. But he ended up being charged with impaired car and control, malicious damage over $200 and refusing a breathalyzer test.

The boyfriend had his motorcycle damaged to the tune of $200 plus when the husband used a car as a smashing tool. The boyfriend was charged with impairment, failing a breathalyzer test and mischief when he retaliated in unspecified fashion against the husband's vehicle.

husband was the instigator in the incident.

Separation from his wife three years ago and subsequent mental hospital treatment for the resulting breakdown was the root of the trouble for an Oak Ridges man facing a November assault with bodily harm charge.

BRINGING IN BOY
The father of several children pleaded guilty to common assault but Judge Pearce adjourned the case to hear more evidence another day. He wanted the complainant brought to court, he being a 14-year-old school boy who hadn't obeyed an order to appear.

The unhappy accused man said he'd been baited in the neighborhood about the treat-

Area Fires Caused By Old Standbys

Two old standbys, cardboard boxes piled on top of a furnace and children playing with matches, resulted in two area fires last week. In Richmond Hill, $5,000 smoke damage was done to both Bryna Distributing and Fabric Fair, 23 Industrial Road, after fire broke out in the furnace room at the former January 13, about 7:30 a.m.

Chief Robert Kennedy of Richmond Hill Fire Department, said the blaze was held in check by a sprinkler system.

In Vaughan, only $200 damage was done to the home of Mrs. Catherine Mele, 28 Vaughan Boulevard, in a fire that broke out at 12:25 p.m. January 9. Children playing with matches were blamed.

Court News

HUSBAND FINED $175.
The court didn't find out what happened to the wife. But Provincial Judge Russell Pearce settled it all with a $175 fine or 30 days jail with four weeks to pay for the husband on an impairment conviction. The rest of the charges were withdrawn by Crown Attorney Dennis Morris with the mutual agreement of all parties. The husband promised to make restitution to the boyfriend for the damage, promised to work with Alcoholics Anonymous for his drinking problem.

Ever tougher on the truck driving husband was the six months loss of driving license that went with the impaired damage accident conviction. The Crown Attorney said the charges against the boyfriend were being withdrawn because the ment for his breakdown and grabbed a grocery boy at the store when the boy repeated his teasing.

A Markham man arrested for impaired driving on Highway 7 in October told the judge the reason for the offense was that he'd been turned out that day by the Stouffville woman he loved and she was unhappy on his way home.

"I love her, your honor," he said, noting a perfectly clean driving record for over 30 years.

DRIVER WAS DRUNK
"With that amount in you, you were drunk," retorted the judge.

The Crown Attorney said the accused driver was found weaving along at 20 mph in a 30 mph zone and had a breathalyzer reading of 2.10. Convicted and fined $175

NEWMARKET: Trinity United Church Sunday began celebrations marking the congregation's 150th anniversary. Trinity traces its history back to the town's first Methodist Church built in 1824. The Quaker Meeting House on the west side of Yonge Street dates back to 1810 and became the town's oldest religious meeting place when it was brought into the enlarged town in 1971.

Forecast Grain, Meat, Milk Price Increases In 1974

A continuing strong world demand for grain might through to 1975 (even with good crops) was forecast at the Farm Outlook Conference at Guelph recently.

Pork prices are expected to hold through the first six months of this year, with an American price of around $55, and then weaken some.

Forecasting beef prices was more uncertain since the American market is still not normal after the price freeze, the Canadian surcharge may be changed and greater demand in 1974, and the supply will be increased also. Last year there was a big jump in the number of producers entering the Group I pool and feed supplies are in good shape this winter in both quantity and quality. Artificial insemination services were higher in the fall.

At the annual meeting of the Milk Marketing Board held last week at the Royal York Hotel in Toronto, a substantial increase in price to the consumer was forecast.

FARM NEWS

the figures on cattle being fed and their weights are not very precise. Some price increase is expected but a lot of doubts were expressed.

Milk, a main York product, is expected to be in

On Tuesday of this week the York Crop Improvement meeting was held at the East Gwillimbury Community Centre where farm costs were discussed in full detail. A detailed report will be given later.

Formerly At Temperanceville

Earle Stotesbury Indian Missionary

Rev. Earle Stotesbury ministered to the United Churches at Temperanceville and Vandrof for some time before leaving in 1971 to go to the Saugeen Indian Reserve near Southampton.

Mr. Stotesbury also served as town mayor and justice of the peace. He bought a summer resort in the Qu'appelle Valley in order to have his winters free for the two terms he spent at Florida Christian College.

The resort was wiped out by a flood and he then enrolled in St. Andrew's College, University of Saskatchewan, from where he graduated in 1956. He was ordained later that year.

HONORARY CHIEF
He has had a deep interest throughout his career in Indian welfare and was originator of the Good Samaritan Plan, a scheme to integrate Indians of Western Canada. This is now a national plan. He was a founding member of the Indian-Eskimo Association and when he left Saskatchewan and the Indians of the south of that province made him an honorary chief.

He then came back to the Temperanceville-Wesley charge in Ontario, making his home in Aurora. He is married and has three sons. His hobby is beekeeping.

Bayview Secondary Dance Saturday Features Flying Circus

This Saturday there will be a dance at the school, featuring Flying Circus. Tickets will be $2 without a student card and $1.50 with a card. Come out and show your appreciation to this group for coming to our school.

EXAMS
Year Fives are at the tail end of their exams which could determine a most important Thursday of this week.

Writing exams is something out of the ordinary for those who attend Bayview, but if we put our minds to it, we'll have conquered the hardest part.

SECOND SEMESTER JUST AROUND THE CORNER
The second half of this school year is rapidly approaching. It's hard to believe we've come such a long way in such a short time.

With the arrival of Semester Two, course selections are at hand and I sincerely hope everyone will make wise decisions after serious consideration.
