

Anthony Kramreither of Arnold Avenue, Thornhill, president and executive producer of Burg Production Limited, is shown (top centre) speaking recently at the Ontario Science Centre's Great Hall where a reception was held for four of the Nobel Prize winners who are the subject of the firm's episodes in the film series "Nobel". Also at the reception was Dr. Linus Pauling of the United States (top left), 1954 Nobel winner in chemistry and 1962 winner for peace. Having a chat (lower left) are Dr. Gerhard Herzberg of the National Research Council, Ottawa, refugee and Canada's first winner in the natural sciences, 1971 Nobel Laureate in chemistry; and Dr. Dennis Gabor, Hungarian native and English citizen, 1971 physics winner who invented and developed holography, making possible three-dimensional photography. Terry Kramreither (at right), student at Thornhill Secondary School, carries a gold Nobel medallion on a pillow for guests at the reception to see.

Thornhill Producer Of Nobel Film

By HAL BLAINE

A Vienna born and educated long-time Thornhill resident is well on its way toward his ambition of making Canada known in the international film world.

Anthony Kramreither of 217 Arnold Avenue is an experienced Canadian and international actor, television personality and producer who recently turned his talents to being president of Burg Production Limited, a company formed for the purpose of producing film series for television and producing feature films.

Kramreither is currently busy with his most successful and ambitious production to date, a 13-week series of half-hour television films based on the lives of living

INTERNATIONAL GROUP

The film series on the Nobel Prize winners is being done in co-operation with another Canadian firm, Tele-Metropole Inc. of Montreal and Evs Australia PTY Limited. For world-wide distribution it will be a co-production of Radio Sweden, Stockholm; Office de Radio-diffusion Television Francaise, Paris; and Bavaria Atelier Gesellschaft MBH, Munich.

Burg Production's filming schedule for 1974-75 includes Canadian novelist John Craig's recent work "In Council Rooms Apart". Other works to be filmed are "The Immigrants", a TV series in co-production with interests in France, Germany and Switzerland; "The Siren Song", a motion picture film in co-production with Bavaria, Germany; "The Big Gamble", a motion picture film in co-production with NDF, Germany. The firm is also negotiating for a co-production agreement between Canadian and German governments.

20 THORNHILL YEARS

Tony Kramreither and wife Paula have lived 20 years in Thornhill, 6½ years in their present home on Arnold Avenue. They have six children born in Canada.

Kramreither graduated in 1950 with honors from the Academy of Arts in Vienna. He acted in different theatres in Vienna, Salzburg and Berlin. He played 25 major parts and appeared on 200 radio shows. He directed several plays there in Europe, including Brecht, Buechner, Gorki and Schiller.

CANADIAN CAREER

In Canada he continued his career as an actor with three leading parts in the television series Cannonball which was produced by Robert Maxwell Ruby Abel and W. J. Sullivan. Then he played 30 major parts on Canadian television under the direction of Ron Weyman, Harvey Hart, George McGowan, Paul Almond and Eric Till. Under Harry Horner's direction he acted in the series RCMP. He also had major parts in the series Scarlet Hill and Seaway under Abner Riberman and John Berry. He appeared in the series Wojek, Quentin Durgens, Forest Ranger and Hatches Mill.

For two years Kramreither was co-host on a weekly television show Around The World on CFTO in Toronto and was the writer-host on CFTL, London, Ontario.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

In the feature film Change Of Mind he played the part of Dr. Bornear for the Sagittarius Production. He had the lead in the first Canadian-Romanian co-production Silent Friends filmed in Romania and was involved in the production of this as well. In the 90-minute CBC film Night he played Gibbs. He was guest star in one of the episodes in Adventures In Rainbow Country.

Kramreither co-starred in German TV-Films Heisser Heisser Sand (Hot Sand) filmed in Morocco and Augenzeugen Muesen Blin Sein (Eyewitnesses Must Be Blind) in Munich. In the feature film The Reincarnate (Meridian Films) he played the part of H. Van Brook. Lately for the CBC film drama Kalinsky's Justice he played the part of 28-year-old Slika and 50-year-old Hartman. He co-starred in the German TV film Der Richter (The Judge) and Der Leuchtturm (The Lighthouse).

OTHER SERIES SUBJECTS

Besides the four guest Nobel Prize winners at the recent Burg Production reception here, other winners appearing in the series Nobel will include Charles Huggins, Hannes Alfvén, Alfred Kastler, Andre Lwoff, Rene Cassin, Manfred Eigen, Will Bratt and Heinrich Boll. Burg Productions is incorporated in Ontario.

The Nobel series is directed by Seymour Berns, national president of the Television Academy in 1969-70 and board chairman in 1970-71. Max von Sidow will narrate the series. He is a Swedish star of international renown who has worked closely with the very famous Ingmar Bergman.

THORNHILL MINOR HOCKEY ASSOCIATION

Thornhill Minor Bantams Tie Barrie 2 To 2

By JIM BROWNING

MINOR BANTAMS

Thornhill 2, Barrie 2

The H & S Reliance Minor Bantams let a valuable point slip way when Barrie tied up the game in the last minute at Centennial Arena Saturday.

The Thunderbirds took the lead in the first minute as Paul Moffat poked the puck loose and Scott Howson picked it up at the boards, skated across the goal, and slipped it in the corner of the net.

Bill Buckler made it 2-0 banging in Jim Bell's rebound. Thornhill continued to play aggressive hockey with the defence having a strong game. Utility man David Eason was particularly effective while killing penalties.

Two lapses in the last few minutes deprived the team of the victory for which it had worked so hard. The forwards gave up back-checking and a lost stick gave Barrie a three on one chance that they made no mistake on. Barrie then tied the game with only seconds left.

Thornhill 6, Richmond Hill 5

The H & S Reliance Minor Bantams stole a victory from Richmond Hill at The Hill Sunday. What started as a tough, tight checking game ended surprisingly as a rough, tight-checking high scoring game.

Richmond Hill opened the scoring and things looked bad for the Thunderbirds when they ran into two successive penalties. However, Paul Moffat harassed the defence into giving the puck to Scott Howson while they were a man short and he slid the puck past inside the far post.

Greg Wurga gave Thornhill the lead on a long slapshot only to have it tied with an equally long slapshot. Jim Bell regained the lead with a great, unassisted goal. He broke down the boards, cut in, and placed a good shot inside the far post. Richmond Hill again tied it at 3-3 with a lucky goal while enjoying a man advantage.

A pretty passing play from Moffat to Howson to Scott Martin put the team ahead only to have Richmond Hill tie it again. Moffat won the game seconds after on a pass from Howson and Eason. Jim Bell added an insurance goal which proved to be needed on a pass by Bill Buckler.

In the dying minutes, Richmond Hill received a penalty but they dominated play with aggressive hockey. Richmond Hill got one goal back to make it 6-5 and that was the game.

They removed their goalie in the last few seconds and Thornhill almost scored as the puck slid past the empty Richmond Hill net.

Thornhill 5, Aurora 1

The Glaverbel's bounced back on the winning track quickly after their loss in the Silver Stick as they defeated

(January 6)

Thornhill 2, Newmarket 1

This was a close, hard-fought and physically tough play hockey game as is usual when Thornhill and Newmarket meet.

The Glaverbel's fortunately had the scoring edge and came out the winners.

The first period was an end to end scoreless one with both teams having opportunities to score.

Mike Johns broke the ice midway through the second with a power play goal from Bill Sim. Newmarket came back with the tying goal before the period ended.

The third period continued on an even basis until Jim McLaughlin, with a great second effort, scored what proved to be the winner with an assist from Mark Steele.

Thornhill then held off a determined Newmarket team and went home smiling with another two points in their pocket.

The shoelace winner was Mike Johns.

MINOR PEEWEE

(January 5)

Orillia 1, Thornhill 0

The balloon burst for Fish-er Bros. minor peewees when they were defeated by Orillia 1-0. Orillia has greatly improved since the start of the season. Reality is what Thornhill found out about.

The hockey encountered in Grand Falls is far from the calibre in their own league. There are no scoring championships here and puck passing is a must if they are to advance in the upcoming OMHA playoffs.

MAJOR ATOM OMHA

(December 31)

Thornhill 4, Orillia 3

In three days we played back to back games with Orillia and both times we had home ice. This advantage seems to be real as we picked up three out of a possible four points.

First Period: The game started out as a typical Thornhill and Orillia game. Both teams played equally well. Thornhill opened the scoring with a pass from Steven Tschipper to Kevin Gobel who let go with a bullet-like drive that caught the extreme short side to go ahead 1 to 0. Unfortunately the lead was short lived as Orillia tied up the game in a scramble in front of the net with a Mickey Mouse shot to end the period.

Second Period: Both Thornhill and Orillia played good hockey. Close checking, hard hitting, but neither team seemed to be able to finish off their drives, until the 10:05 mark when Orillia picked up a stray pass, went in and scored on a beautiful shot to go ahead 2-1 and end the period.

Third Period: A quick goal by Orillia to go ahead 3-1 prompted our coach to change goalies. Regan Gorman came into the nets and in short order made two good saves and this it would seem is all our little heroes needed to spur them on to winning hockey. On a three way passing play, Ralph Brayson hit Rob (one hand) Humphries who rifled the puck at the Orillia netminder and Scott Daly, cruising in, waiting for the rebound, effortlessly flipped the puck into the far corner of the net to make the score read 3-2 for Orillia.

Orillia came right back forcing Regan Gorman to make many fine saves and on the last one Regan was injured and had to leave the game. Minutes later Thornhill, dismayed at the injury sustained by their goalie, scored, with Steven Tschipper passing to Goble who let one fly to tie up the game.

Orillia ran into two penalties and Thornhill wasted no time with Mike Sherwood passing to Tschipper, who shot right on the net, and the ever alert Troy Bradley picked up the rebound and scored to go ahead 4 to 3. Our opponents pulled their goalie but the fired up Thunderbirds held them back to take the win.

Play of the game — The absence of Frank Daly (our cheering section) and Flo Humphries' ever-ringing bell.

MAJOR BANTAM

(January 4)

Thornhill 3, Richmond Hill 2

The Thunderbirds were depleted by illness and injury for this game, but came away with a well-deserved win.

Late in the see-saw first period, Rick Buchan put Thornhill ahead, with assists going to Jason Hurlbut and Dave Lovett.

The lead was increased in the second period when Rick Booker, after diligent checking behind the Richmond Hill net, set up Ricky Herbert for the score. Early in the third, Pat Bertrand neatly beat the R.H. goalie after a passing play from Scott Cowie and David Barr.

In the last five minutes of play Richmond Hill came back strongly to score two goals, one on a power play. However, the steady play of Dave Howson in net throughout the game, and relentless checking by Thornhill preserved the win.

(January 5)

Camp Borden 2, Thornhill 1

A failure to capitalize on the many Borden Penalties resulted in this narrow loss for the Thunderbirds. Borden went ahead late in the first period and increased the lead early in the third.

A late spurt resulted in a goal by Jason Hurlbut on a passing play from Matt Nicholls and Bennett.
