A RASHER OF NOTES, NOW

One of these days I'll tell you all about it. Right now you'll just have to take my word that skibobbing is the coming outdoor sport at the moment. It's, well, like skiing with a seat. Never

My informant tells me that "Happy Howard the Ski Bum" at the King Valley Ski Centre at Jane Street and King Sideroad is currently renting skibobs to all comers and throws in free instructions with it. The skibobs are apparently very popular with school classes. Drop out yourself and do some skibobbing, if you'll pardon the expression.

DROP IN It's not exactly sport (I don't think) but it is interesting so I'll tell you about it. The YWCA is sponsoring a drop-in centre every Friday night from 7:30 to 10:30 pm for boys and girls in the 12 to 14 years bracket. It's called "Birth Of A Drop-in" and the locale is at the YWCA quarters at 25 Yonge Street North.

The evening will consist of music, ping-pong and etc., and everything is free. Basically the idea is for the youngsters to decide on their own program. Along to oversee the scene is youth worker Jim Murray. Drop around and drop in.

TAKE A CHANCE

The action in the regular schedule of the Provincial Junior "A" race is rounding up with Rams playing their final pre-playoff game this Sunday against North Bay at North Bay.

A novel twist this season is the decision for the top four teams to draw to see which of the next four teams they go against in the opening round. The idea is to avoid the temptation to jockey for positions. Reckon it does. As you can see by the standings it's still anyone's race up top.

ONE FINAL NOTE

There's been a hockey tournament of sorts going on between local public schools at the Grade 6 and 8 level the past week. The grand finale will be held at the Mill Pond this Saturday morning starting at 11:30 am . . . in conjunction with the Winter Carnival. Drop around and support the youngsters.
