School News
As most of the local schools report no special activities are happening at this time, they are no doubt preparing for the oral communication contests soon to be in the limelight. This of course will be followed by the interschool science fairs.
Woodland Sr. Public reports they will be having a visitation from seven teachers from Joseph Gould Public in Uxbridge, under the Durham Board of Education tomorrow morning.
Then there is the E. J. Sand Valentine Skating Party Thursday evening of next week at the school rink, weather permitting. Should there be no ice, this event will be rescheduled for February 22. The cost is 50c per person and this gets you a donut, hot chocolate and a chance at a pair of NHL hockey tickets, plus the skating. There is a $2 maximum cost per family.
Ladies Club
Doncaster Community Ladies Club's February meeting is set for Thursday of next week at 8 pm at the home of President Mrs. Susan Merk, 116 Morgan Avenue. The ladies will engage in handicrafts under the direction of Mrs. Jean Carle, also of Morgan Avenue.
As usual all local ladies are invited to join in this group. Would newcomers please call Mrs. Merk for a list of items to bring to use in the handicraft work, at 889-6654.
CGIT
Things are "a-poppin'" at the Thornhill CGIT group. Although they had two scheduled toboggan parties postponed they looked forward to the visit of a cosmetician from "Beauty Counselors." The mothers of the girls were invited to enjoy this demonstration of beauty techniques. The girls and their guests enjoyed tea and cookies, following the event on Wednesday of this week.
The girls are now well into their mission studies project where they learn of living conditions of people in other parts of the world—particularly the underdeveloped areas. They also contemplate means which may result in helping the millions of impoverished people. Incidentally, the girls continue to sponsor a foster child in the far east. He is 15-year-old Wang Chen Jung, and the support is made possible through the Christian Children's Fund.
Cubs and Scouts
The 2nd Thornhill Cubs, Scouts and Venturers will enjoy their annual father and son banquet Thursday of next week. A feature at this event will be a display of items produced by the members to be shown in the York Summit Scout Hobby Show, coming later this month.
Neighborhood Notes
Birthdays go out to Jeffrey Edwards, who will be 13 years old tomorrow, and to Mark Baby, 4 Lafayette Place, who marks his 14th birthday Saturday; Robert Browning, 37 Clark Avenue; Clark Dekker, 54 Dawn Hill Trail and Raymond Barker, 17 Courtham Avenue, celebrate birthdays.
Robert will be 15, Clark marks his 10th and Raymond his third.
Clothing Centre
Helpmate Information Clothing Centre, located at Thornhill United Church, offers good, clean, up-to-date clothing and various nursery requirements at extremely low cost for the needy. You are invited to visit this centre any Tuesday from 9:30 to 12 noon. Should this be inconvenient for you, please call Mrs. Jean Bryce at 889-5102 for special arrangements.

Obituary

FRED GUMMERSAL
The deepest sympathy of this community is extended to Dorothy Gummursal, whose husband Fred was killed in a motor accident Friday of last week at Keele and Highway 7 and to the young family.
The Gummersals had been longtime residents of Yongehurst before moving recently with their family to a new home on Springhead Gardens in the new development of B.A.I.F. Dorothy was the North Richvale news correspondent of "The Liberal" for a time. She is at present becoming very active in the Curtain Club as well as being director of the Richmond Hill Social Planning Council and on the executive of the newly-formed historical society.
Mr. Gummersal has also been active in the community particularly in Scout and Cub work.
Highlights
The public meeting at Roselawn Public School January 31 on "The Yonge South Corridor" was extremely well attended with many opinions voiced by local citizens. It is hoped these interested residents will continue to provide their views and suggestions at all public meetings held for their benefit in the future.
Another good assembly was also held last week at Don Head School when the Citizens Advisory Committee presented aims and purpose, accepting proposals from interested citizens and representatives of ratepayers groups who strongly participated in this meeting.
There was good communication throughout the evening which drew to a close after the new executive had been announced—refreshments were available to those remaining.
Theatre
The Curtain Club opened February 1 to a packed house with Ed Albee's play, "Everything in the Garden". This drama festival entry was extremely well received—a big hand to the stars, Tony Miller and Iris Stringer also director Derek Miller. Sets were excellent, too.

Be sure to get your tickets before the last performance February 16. These are still available for Wednesday and Thursday from Peggy Gosling at 884-7932, instead of from Dorothy Gummursal.
Lionettes
The Lionettes' Dance will be held at the Lions Hall, Spruce Avenue, February 16 from 9 pm until 1 am. Tickets are $7 per couple including buffet. They may be obtained from Edna French at 889-3780. Come and see the new "face-lift" the hall has had through the hard work of the Lions. They have done an excellent job of converting it into something along the lines of an "Olde English Inn." It has all the atmosphere you could wish for on an occasion of fun and good fellowship, so join them on Saturday week. There will be door prizes galore and bar privileges.
A reminder about the regular Sunday bingos held in this hall. They start at 7:30 pm with a $100 jackpot.
Church News
At St. Mary Immaculate Roman Catholic, Dufferin and Yonge, Richmond Hill, there will be a Canadian Red Cross Blood Clinic February 21.
Other coming events are the renewal programs at the Cenacle, Lawrence and Bayview, February 22-24, "Effective Living Weekend" designed for both men and women March 1-3, Social Awareness Retreat, a general one. Also of interest to the ladies of the CWL, March 9, "First Confessions"; April 29, confirmation and May 5, First Communion.
Ushers are required for Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon masses.
A reminder to save articles for the rummage sale which will be announced soon.
Skiing is being enjoyed by the club despite seeming lack of snow everywhere. Those machines keep on producing it whenever necessary as long as it's cold enough.
At Emmanuel Anglican, MacKay Drive, the rector, Rev. John Coneybear, presided over the annual vestry meeting Sunday, which was well attended by concerned members. Following the business session, time was allowed for questions,

Neighborhood Notes
On February 18, the York County Board of Education will be having a special meeting to discuss junior kindergarten. This meeting will be open to the public and will begin at 8 pm at 22 Church Street, Aurora. No decisions will be made at this meeting.
The Bayview Fairways junior kindergarten committee met informally this week with some local school trustees and with Public School Principal Dan McCaw. The purpose of the meeting was to exchange ideas on the feasibility of a junior kindergarten programme at Bayview Fairways Public School. According to a recent survey of the subdivision, Bayview Fairways residents support the idea of a junior kindergarten programme.
The monthly meeting of the Bayview Fairways Ratepayers Association executive will be held on February 7 at 8:30 pm at 65 Dawn Hill Trail. Any association member is welcome to attend. The annual general meeting is scheduled for April.
Anyone who is concerned about the very dangerous situation at New Leslie and Steeles Avenue, where there are no traffic lights, should call or write to Donald Deacon M.L.A., York Centre.

Obituary

Cecil Russell
The community was saddened last Sunday evening to hear of the passing of Cecil Russell formerly of Proctor Avenue, who had recently moved to Willowdale. Mr. Russell was a resident of Doncaster for about 30 years and was very active with the old Doncaster Ratepayers' Association. He served in the Royal Canadian Navy during World War II and his last occupation was with the TTC. He entered North York General Hospital New Year's Day following a fall which complicated a serious lung condition from which he suffered.
After a couple of gloomy weeks in intensive care, Mr. Russell appeared to be recovering satisfactorily when he succumbed.
He leaves his wife Eileen, son Paul and daughter, Mrs. Ann Bryers now of Melbourne, Australia.
The funeral service was held at the Ring Funeral Home in Thornhill.
Sympathy of the community is extended to his family.

New Services Office

Opened By Danson
A new constituency service office has been opened by Barney Danson, MP for York North, at 5509 Yonge Street in Willowdale. This is on the east side of Yonge, one block south of Finch Avenue.
The office is staffed by Mrs. Betty Priddle of Thornhill and the telephone number is 221-5327. Mr. Danson will be on hand on weekends to meet constituents personally and appointments may be arranged through Mrs. Priddle. Residents of York North who have problems relating to the federal government are urged to telephone the office and drop in to discuss them. All urgent messages are immediately transferred to Mr. Danson in Ottawa.

Thornhill Secondary Drama Club Pleases Large Audience

Thursday night of last week the gymnasium of the Thornhill Secondary School was two-thirds full of excited people buzzing with anticipation. There were many more than were expected, for chairs were being hurriedly taken into the room.
Word must have circulated that the drama club was producing something worth going to see. It was the second night of the show. So many students turned out, as well as friends and relations of the cast!
The play was a farce "The Matchmaker" by Thornton Wilder. The play was the basis of the very successful musical "Hello, Dolly." Because of this the first item on the program was a medley of tunes from the musical, played by the school band. They did an excellent piece of work under the conductor, Eugene Lazar, and were heartily applauded.
DIFFERENT CASTS
The cast for the play was different, to a large extent, on the two nights. So what happened the first night can only be judged by the attendance on the second. It must have been well done. On the Thursday the drama club certainly put it over.
They were enjoying their part as the actors, and the audience was most responsive. There was no fumbling over lines and the words could be heard right to the last row. The properties, sets, costumes, were all well done. The numerous committees must have worked hard and the co-ordinator even harder.
WELL PERFORMED
Perhaps there were hitches, but none of the audience was aware of them, except the choir didn't sing as had been advertised. There had been some mix-up about dates and too many of the members of the choir were unavailable. So this part of the program had to be cancelled.
It was a good show, well performed. Isaac Pfaff was the director.

CONSUMER BUY-LINE
Ontario
Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations

Where to go for Consumer Information
Buying a retirement haven in another country? Trying to obtain a mortgage on your home? Worrying about the safety of the boiler in your apartment building?
Believe it or not, all these things have something in common. They are part of the wide-ranging responsibilities of the Ontario Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations.
The Ministry, which was established in 1966, functions to protect you, the consumer, by regulating and supervising many business transactions in the province.

- Public Contact
This Ministry probably has more direct contact with the Consumer than any other. This contact is achieved in a number of ways:
- The Registrar-General deals directly with you when you want a copy of your birth certificate.
  - The Consumer Protection Bureau will listen to you if you have a complaint or question about a particular business or door-to-door salesman.
  - The Technical Standards Division sees to your safety by regulating and inspecting elevators, commercial boilers and gas distribution systems in both apartments and businesses.
  - Certain sections such as the Ontario Securities Commission and the Companies Branch, help you by administering Acts that promote an honest and open financial environment for both business and consumers.

- Consumer Protection Bureau
Some of the ways the Consumer Protection Bureau protects you are:
- Insisting on the registration of door-to-door sellers selling anything from baby pictures to asphalt driveways.
  - Insisting on the full disclosure of all credit costs.
  - Outlawing referral selling, where the salesman tells you he will give you a discount on goods if you get others to buy.

Buying or Selling Real Estate?
The purchase of a home and property is likely the largest expenditure you will ever make. For your protection, real estate and business brokers and salesmen must be registered before doing business, pass examinations and be bonded.
As for your retirement haven, the Ministry also regulates the promotion and sale of foreign property to Ontario residents, making sure an accurate description of the property and terms of sale is provided to the buyer.

Insurance
The Office of the Superintendent of Insurance and Registrar of Loan and Trust Companies is responsible for the general supervision of all insurance, loan and trust agents, brokers and adjusters operating in Ontario. The branch protects you by determining the financial stability of these companies through auditing inspectors.
