Neighborhood Notes

Friends were sorry to learn of Mrs. Elmore Hill's recent illness. Her daughter, Mrs. George Charity of South Porcupine who has been visiting for the past few weeks, delayed her trip home to be with her mother.

The Shermans were at Owen Sound last weekend to attend the funeral of Mrs. Milton Sherman's mother on Monday.

It was with regret that friends learned of the death of Jack Grant of 14th Avenue last week. He was a brother of Andrew Grant and Mrs. Clarke Young of Unionville. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Steffler of Brussels were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reid last weekend, and spent some time with the Donald Reesors and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craig on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Weatherill who farmed for many years on Kennedy Road near 17th Avenue and are now at the Village Squire in Markham, will celebrate their 60th Wedding Anniversary on Saturday of next week and invite friends to attend an Open House that day, from 2-5 pm at St. Andrew's United, Markham.

On Friday morning 11 members of the YCHA met at the home of the new chairman, Mrs. Betty Ashley, for coffee and a brief meeting.

Plans were discussed for a spring benefit to be held at Buttonville WI Hall in April. Members were asked to save Dominion Store tapes for the purchase of wheel chairs, etc., at the hospital. Volunteers are needed to assist in the continuing care unit to help feed patients between 4:30 and 5:30 pm.

Church News
Brown's Corners UCW Wednesday of last week were at the home of Mrs. Garnet Stewart for their February meeting. Mrs. Walter Craig conducted the program and spoke on the new mission study: "Mission Impossible." Mrs. Sidney English accompanied singing and Mrs. Edgar Fuller was co-hostess.

The Pairs and Spares (Brown's Corners United Couple's Club) will hold a bowling party at the Markham Bowling Alley on Saturday night at 7:43 pm. All those interested would be welcomed.

If you like pancakes Brown's Corners will be the place to be on the night of Shrove Tuesday February 26. The Happy Timers will serve pancakes with maple syrup and the best sausages you ever tasted.

New Address But RC

Board Not Moving

As of March 1, the York County Roman Catholic School Board offices will be located at 21 Dufferin Street, Richmond Hill.

The board is not moving from its present location. But renumbering of Yonge Street in the town has necessitated the change of mailing address which has been 75 Yonge Street North, Richmond Hill. This was explained to the board at its February 5 meeting by Superintendent John Zupanic.

THORNHILL BOILER
Business Administrator Percy Laframboise reported that it had been decided to replace the damaged boiler at St. Luke's School in Thornhill and recommended accepting a tender of $6,950 from Richmond Burners, Richmond Hill.

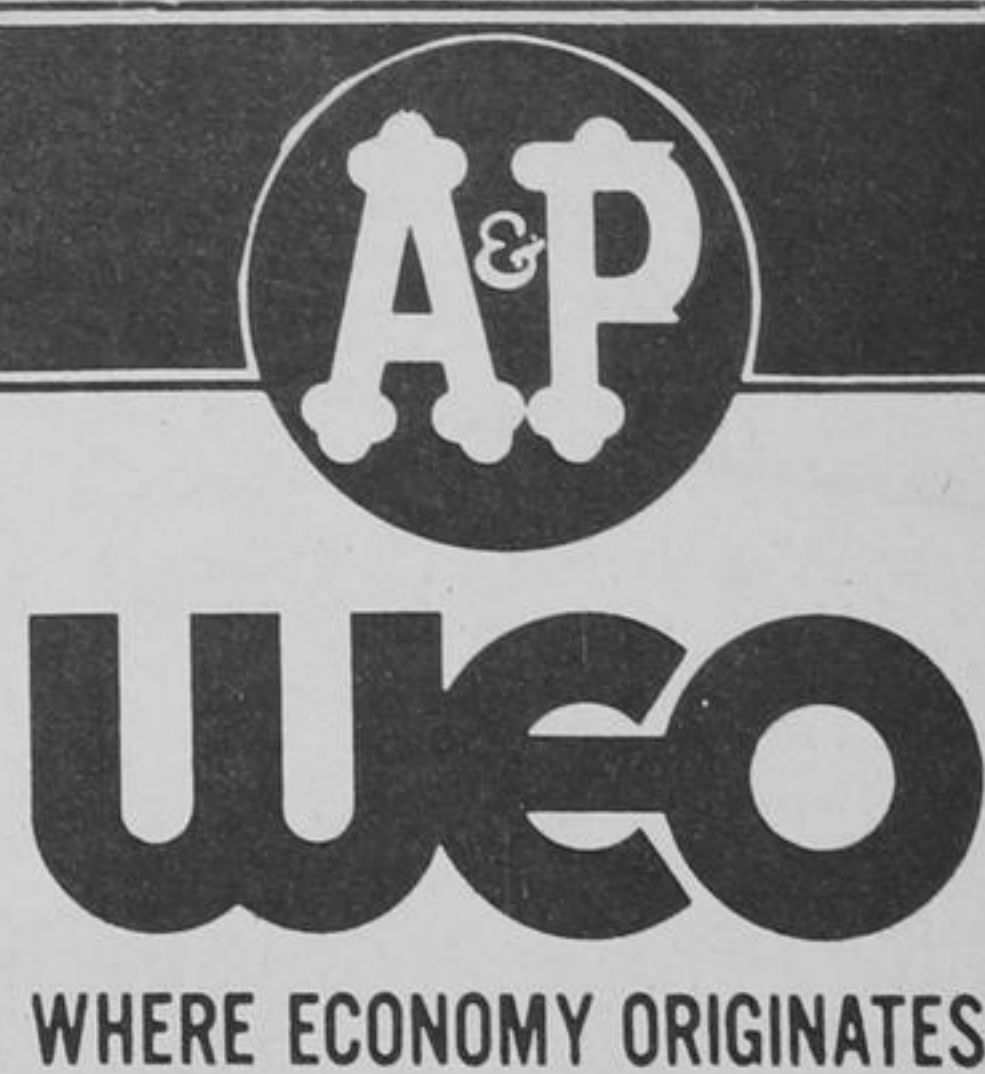

Four tenders were received but only two had individual tubes which can be replaced in an hour or less, quite easily, and this was the lower of the two. The administrator forecast a life of at least 20 years for the boiler and of the heavy unit to feed the gas which is also being installed.

He also reported that an access to Ste. Margaret Mary School in Pine Grove from the west is now assured. When Trossach Circle is developed as part of a new subdivision, the new access will be available. It will allow vehicles to come into the schoolyard at the same level rather than having to climb the very steep hill.

UNIONVILLE PORTABLE
He said interim approval of the portable for John XXIII School, Unionville, has been received from the ministry. Final approval will take about a month, but the board can now proceed to order the portable. The cost from the supplier of recent portables has risen to $9,300, he said, of which $7,000 is recoverable in grants.
