

MPs Provided Home Offices

A $2,200,000 federal fund was established in December to give Members of Parliament offices and staff in their local constituencies. More than 90 MPs are reported to have already decided to set up offices.

An MP can neither have a 2,400-a-year office rental allowance or take free space in a local federal building. Most are taking the money, paying many federal buildings are closed on weekends when they want to use their offices.

The MP can also have up to $6,000 a year for office staff. The MPs aren't supposed to be able to touch the money themselves. It is to be paid by the House of Commons when statements for purchases, rentals and salaries are received.

If an MP overspends the allowance, he or she must make up the difference out of pocket. More than one office may be opened and any number of staff may be hired. The idea is to make MPs more accessible to constituents. It is expected the lives of MPs' spouses will be less hectic as they no longer will have to serve as secretaries at home.

Neighborhood Notes

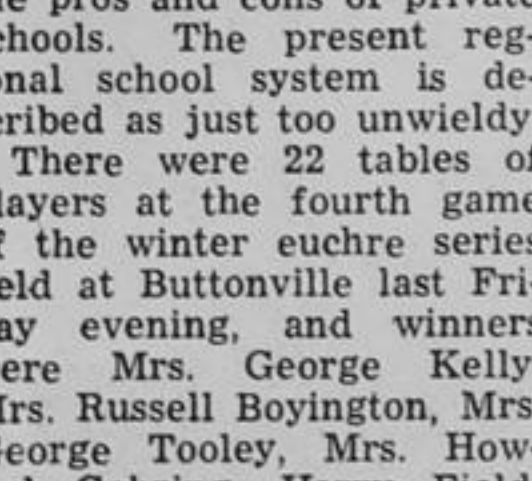

Pussywillows in the garden. Can spring be far behind?
Last Sunday Mrs. William Clark was at the United Church in Aurora for the christening of her great-grandchildren, the twin son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Macklin. Bob is the son of Jack and Betty Macklin.
World Day Of Prayer
The World Day of Prayer service at Union Villa March 1, at 2 p.m. is under the auspices of Brown's Corners United Church this year, with Mrs. John Buchanan as Key Woman. Participating churches are St. Phillips Anglican, Central United and Bethesda Lutheran of Unionville; Ebenezer United, Milliken; Headford and Victoria Square United; and the Mennonite Church of Hagerman's Corners.
Mrs. Hilde Toll of Toronto will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Toll is the immediate past president of the Toronto Conference U.C.W., an area which extends from Toronto to Cochrane and represents 426 churches. She grew up at Whitby, is a busy wife and mother, and an active woman, a member of Parkdale United. She also finds time to manage her husband's photography business.
At the World's Day of Prayer service baby-sitting will be provided and a social hour will be held in the main lounge after the service. Everyone in the area is invited.

Neighborhood Notes

Secondary school students and their parents are growing discouraged at the continued teachers' strike. There are definite rumblings around the neighborhood, and some parents are discussing the pros and cons of private schools. The present regional school system is described as just too unwieldy. There were 22 tables of players at the fourth game of the winter euchre series held at Buttonville last Friday evening, and winners were Mrs. George Kelly, Mrs. Russell Boyington, Mrs. George Tooley, Mrs. Howard Gehring, Harry Fieldhouse, Bert Nichols, Jim Eddington and George Tooley.
Mrs. Evelyn Brewer and Mrs. Bea Thomson won lucky draw prizes, and the freezeout was won by Cecil Latham, Mrs. Kay Prentice, Mrs. Jessie Grainger and Harry Brammer.
Hostesses were Walter Craig, Mrs. George Kelly, Mrs. Russell Burr, Mrs. Russell Boyington, Mrs. John Donaldson and Miss Cora Brodie.

NEWMARKET—Latest plans for the downtown community centre are to retain the Rusto warehouse as one wing, with a new building connecting it to the arena. Six tennis courts are planned but there will be no ball diamond on the Holland Riverbank site due to lack of space.
