Legion Tournament Hosts 32 Teams

Thirty-two teams from Canada and the United States will be taking to the ice March 18 for the seventh annual Richmond Hill Legion Midget Hockey Tournament which will run to March 24.

A total of 500 boys between the ages of 14 and 16 will be participating with those resident outside of a 90-mile radius of the municipality to be billeted with local families.

The Canadian Legion will supply free meals and local transportation throughout the week.

Each team is guaranteed a minimum of two games. First game winners proceed to "A" competition, loser to "B" competition. Eight games will be played each day culminating in a grand championship game to be played at 2 pm on the Sunday.

Described by hockey league scouts as "the finest midget hockey showcase in North America", many of the participants of previous Richmond Hill tournament have been drafted to Junior "A", NHL and WHA teams.

Others have progressed to scholarships in Canadian and American Colleges, and the RMC, Kingston.

Past winners of the tournament are: Humber Valley Aces (1968); Barrie Co-Ops (1969); Scarborough Lions (1970); Barrie Co-Ops (1971); Fosters Firebirds (1972); Toronto Butterbeeps (1973).

The tournament is operated by Minor Athletic Tournaments Incorporated, a non-profit organization, in conjunction with the Royal Canadian Legion of Richmond Hill.

Participating teams this year are—

Halifax, Nova Scotia; Sydney, Nova Scotia; Kentville, Nova Scotia; Hull, Quebec; Grosse Point, Michigan; Detroit, Michigan (Caesars); St. Clair Shores, Michigan; Fraser, Michigan; Ottawa; Windsor; LeVack; Fort Erie; St. Catharines; Kitchener; Sudbury; Leamington; Georgetown; Barrie; Peterboro; Hamilton; Burlington; Oakville; Sarnia; Kingston; Oshawa; Whitby; Newmarket; Richmond Hill; Toronto Butter-Beeps; Downsview; and Etobicoke.

Hill Rink Takes Invitational Spiel Fourth Event

Thanks to the committee of Gary Hillaby, Bill Boynton, Bob Peck, Marion Schurman, Leigh Finlay, Kelly Hicks, Mary Weis, Donna Buchanan and Dianne Diggins under the leadership of John Stephenson the Third Annual Invitational Bonselpiel was successfully completed last weekend.

Herb and Pat Thomson, Kathy and Don Broyslaw, Peter and Mary Weale, Dalt and Shirley Hicks, Dave and Olive Pulchinski and Robert Moore should also be thanked for billeting out of town curlers for the two-day four-game spiel.

Of the four events, a Richmond Hill rink skipped by Robert Stenhouse and consisting of vice-skip Niki Batty, second Bill Boynton and lead Barb Brayshaw, captured the fourth event. D. Foster from Donalda won the first event, with S. Greig of Brantford runner-up.
 A rink from Queens skipped by M. McDonald beat out T. Taikamoto from East York in the second event, while third event honors went to W. English and his rink from Weston.

Last week it wasn't mentioned that Wayne Hind-march skipped Jack Shropshire's second game in Barrie when they won the first event. Jack was taken to the hospital following some pains, but returned for the final game.

Is there any significance in the fact that his younger front end of Danny and Wayne chose double sleeping bags for prizes while Jack and Jerry were content with electric grills?

In Colts competition at Port Perry recently Mike Mulcahey with Dick Augustine, Bill Oliver and Chuck Landry won their first two games but were beaten in the district finals by Oshawa.

This year's record for distance travelled to a bonspiel must be held by Dave and Olive Pulchinski, Don and Kathy Brayshaw, Grant and Cathy Cats. They visited Cochrane to participate in the Winter Carnival Bonspiel.

Don apparently forgot his swim suit so had to renege on his promise to take part in the Polar Bear swim in the 20 degrees below zero weather. But our curlers did manage to have their photograph taken with the local Indian chief.

Dave, Kathy Broyslaw,
