Church News
 World Day of Prayer Service will be held Friday of this week at 2 pm at Union Villa for Brown's Corners UCW, Victoria Square United, Headford, St. Philip's Anglican, Central United and Bethesda, Unionville; and Hagerman Mennonite Church.

Mrs. John Buchanan is the key woman for this service. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Hilde Toll, a dedicated churchwoman who has served as chairwoman of Toronto Conference UCW's, a wife, mother and grandmother, who also finds time to assist her husband, LeRoy Toll with his photography business.

During the service children will be cared for by babysitters, and tea will be served at the conclusion.

Neighborhood Notes
 Congratulations to Janice Parton who recently passed her Preliminary Rudiments of Theory at the Royal Conservatory of Music with 96%.

Friends are happy to see Mrs. Marguerite Jones again after a long hospitalization which began shortly after Christmas. She is back again working with Brown's Corners Junior Choir.

The Ray Grants and the Carman Bowdys are holidaying in the Caribbean and South America at present. Murray and Sandra (Burr) Carson are also enjoying a Caribbean vacation.

Sharon Buchanan is home from Western University for Reading Week and will write final exams in about six weeks time.

There were 25 members of the Alfred Miller family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mingay of Markham Saturday of last week to celebrate five family birthdays — among them Mrs. Millers, Bob Millers and Jack Tribbles.

The Charles Hoppers and the Frank Bournes returned from a trip to Florida last weekend.

On Saturday Mrs. Fred Leaf and Lynda entertained at a supper party following the diamond wedding anniversary celebration for Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Weatherill which was held at St. Andrew's United Church, Markham. Among the Leaf guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hird, Mrs. Tom Harding, Miss Blanche Flumerfelt, Mrs. George Shallhorn, Mrs. Oswald Lee, all of Toronto; Mrs. James McLaren, San Francisco; Mrs. James Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Miller of Aurora; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Benson and Bill, Jr. of Toronto; and Rev. Roscoe Chapin, Unionville.

Buttonville WI members held a delightful family party Wednesday night of last week at Buttonville WI Hall. Members and their families attended. Hostesses were Mrs. Ken Stots, Mrs. Russell Boyington and members of the social committee. Following a sumptuous dinner there was a game of cards. Winners were Mrs. Bill Baker, Ron Godel, Mrs. Stots and Miss Mary Rodick, Miss Rhea Scott, Joe Robinson and Mrs. Boyington.

York Centre Provincial Liberals plan a fun family evening to be held at Victoria Square community hall Friday of next week at 7 pm. There will be a country-style roast beef dinner before a brief annual meeting. Then comes square dancing led by Frank Barkey of Clarendon. All for $5. Don Deacon MLA, York Centre, is now deputy-leader of the Liberal Party in Ontario and his constituents are giving him support.

SHARON—East Gwillimbury will receive a $645,000 grant under the Neighborhood Improvement Program, it has been announced. The township will have to add $215,000 to this amount. The grant money can be used up to 50% for sewers, water and drainage, but a low to medium income and assessment area must be designated by bylaw to be rehabilitated.
