Rams' Takeuchi Charged Assault

A charge of assault causing bodily harm has been laid against Richmond Hill Rams' hockey player Ernie Takeuchi of Thornhill. It resulted from an incident February 10 during a game between Richmond Hill and North Bay at the North Bay Memorial Gardens Arena in which a spectator was injured during a fight. A discretionary bench warrant was issued for Takeuchi. He is to appear in North Bay Provincial Court in April.

RICHMOND HILL CURLING CLUB

By RON TAYLOR - 884-7817
Local Rinks Were Runners Up In 13th Annual Sinners Brier

Jack Shropshire, recuperating in the hospital, was unable to skip his rink in defense of his last year's victory in the 13th Annual Sinners "Brier" held at the club Saturday of last week. However, Gerry Morlock took over and skipped the rink of Grant Cats, Dan Milford and Wayne Hindmarch to a second place win, a few points behind the over all winner P. Rautus of Avonlea.

Gord Tonner of our club, with Hank Vos, Walt Hamilton and Don Brayshaw were third place finishers. Gord was down three coming home in his second game with last rock and managed a five-ender to keep him in the running. Len Thompson of Avonlea was fourth with Clarence Beach and George Mitchell both of Richmond Hill finishing fifth and sixth respectively.

GREATEST DISTANCE
George Beattie, a former member now living in Richmond, Virginia, came up for this popular 3-6 end game spiel. A rink from Atikokan was recognized as the rink travelling the greatest distance.

Entertainment throughout the day was provided by Pete Howard on the organ. Dancing to music supplied by a disc jockey wound up this successful event. Each year a portable television set is raffled off, compliments of Art Gibson and Danforth Radio. Tom Hardcastle sold the winning ticket but the winner is unknown at this time.

This bonspiel appears to become more serious each year as the calibre of curling improves. The fun and comradeship still prevails. Maybe next year Ernie Dubkowski and Len Lee will be fortunate enough to be on a winning rink. Maybe a few lessons from their wives are in order.

DUDES-DANDIES SPIEL
The Dudes and Dandies Spiel was held recently with two games on Tuesday and one on Wednesday with a final game for those who qualified.

The winner of the Dudes (leads and seconds) first event was Shirley Lockhart and her rink of Donna Smith, Gene Greenham and Marlene Augustine. Runner-up was Joanne Stephenson and her rink of Edith Diggins, Sue Supra and Vera Myers.

The first event for the Dandies (voices and skips) was won by Elaine Elliott's rink of Pat Thomson, Kay Copeland and Terri Powell.

The second event for the Dudes was won by Fran Anderson, Mary Pryzdial and Betty Wright skipped by Blanche Leslie. Runner-up was Helen Awde and her rink of Colleen Alexson, Bev Major and Chic Chalmers.

The Dandies' second event was won by Doris Vance and her rink of Keitha Matheson, Marilyn Howard and Mark Mellon. Runner-up was Jean Coneybeare with Ruth Ellison, Ruth Taylor and Doreen McEers.

COOKSTOWN BONSPIEL
The Cookstown Curling Club held its first mixed invitational bonspiel and after five games the rink of Mary White, Wayne Hindmarch and Lynn Paton skipped by Jim Anderson had the distinct honor of winning the trophy. At the Whitby Curling Club in a seven-year-filly spiel, Edith Diggins skipped her rink of Sue Bailey, Colleen Alexson and Claire Wood to high one game winners in the 2-10 end event. Frank Ellison continues to improve as he and his wife Ruth, along with Will and Win Simpson were runners-up in the third event at the Burlington Golf and Curling Club. Frank and his team won four out of six games in the 30 rink competition.

It is interesting to note all teams who compete in these out-of-town spiels all report good prizes, hospitality and food.

Unfortunately, due to a lack of challenge from the older club members a junior and senior challenge spiel failed to materialize Sunday, but thanks to interested parents and other club members the juniors were able to hold a 2-6 end fun day of curling.

WON WATCHES
A junior rink competing at Avonlea in a 3-8 end invitational spiel Saturday missed the main event trophy by a mere one quarter point. But the rink of Donna Buchanan lead, Gary Hillaby second, Mary Weiss vice and skip Kevin Roberts won Timex watches for their excellent effort.

Possibly the biggest event of the year for the Richmond Hill Curling Club will be this weekend when the business girls will host the Business Girls Provincial play-offs from Friday evening to Sunday afternoon. This is quite an honor for the club and a great challenge for the committee responsible for its organization.

The skips are Helen Baird of Sarnia, Marilyn Farrell of Walkerton, Jeanette Everett of St. Catharines, Brenda Martin of North Bay, Fay Taylor of Thornhill, Norrie Smith of Leaside, May Hinson of Peterboro and Carol Lewis of Kingston. They will assemble with their rinks at the Black Hawk Motor Inn and will be escorted to the curling club where Mayor William Lazenby will throw the first official rock.

The teams will have a reception at the club after their first game on Friday evening. Cocktails and dinner will follow the games on Saturday. The finals will be held on Sunday afternoon.

If you plan to see some or all of this top notch curling, get there early. Bleacher seats are apparently being brought in and waiters have volunteered their services for the day.

See you there March 8, 9, 10.

Hill Badmintoners League Champions

The Richmond Hill Badminton walloped St. Clements 22-2 last week to win the Toronto Interchurch Badminton League title. It was strictly no contest as Richmond Hill started off by winning the men's doubles, number one pair, and continued the winning streak to take all the men's doubles. Richmond Hill dropped only one game out of six in the ladies doubles.

The scores were as follows: Men's Doubles-Cam Cairncross and Larry Marchbank winning 15-4, 15-5; Randy Carlson and Gary Ford 15-4, 15-1; Doug Andrews and Bob White 18-15, 15-11. Ladies' Doubles-Enid Grant and Joan Freeman splitting 15-12, 14-17; Jill Johnson and Hilda Baxter winning 15-7, 15-2; Carol McDonald and Lil McCallum winning 15-3, 15-0. Mixed Doubles - Jill Johnson and Cam Cairncross winning 15-11, 15-10; Enid Grant and Randy Carlson winning 15-6, 15-8; Hilda Baxter and Gary Ford winning 15-6, 15-10; Joan Freeman and Larry Marchbank splitting 6-15, 18-15; Carol McDonald and Doug Andres winning 15-11, 15-4; Lil McCallum and Bob White winning 15-12, 15-4.

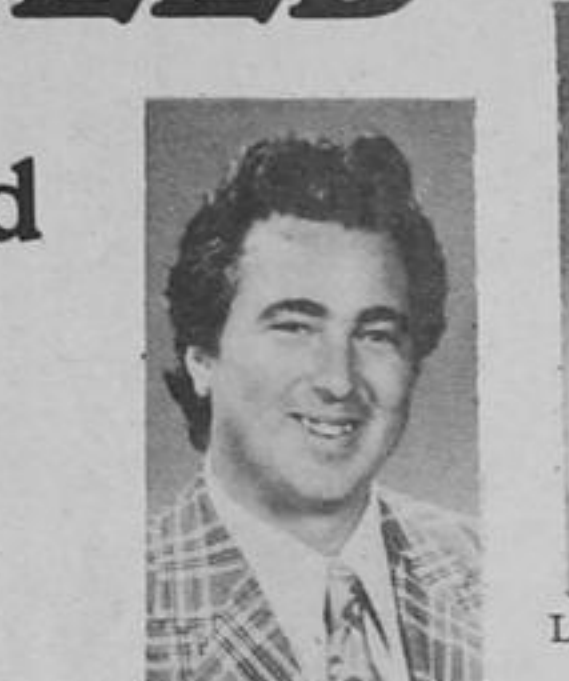

The previous week saw the Richmond Hill club downing Aurora for the second time this season to be the only club in the league to do so. They downed Aurora 16-8 at Langstaff Secondary School. It was a big win for Richmond Hill as Aurora had previously only been defeated once while Richmond Hill had dropped two games. That win left Richmond Hill and Aurora tied for first with 14 points apiece.
