Senior Citizens
 Three Vaughan Senior Citizens are in York Central Hospital. Mrs. Lulu Leese of Church is slowly improving and hopes to soon be out of the intensive care unit. Mrs. Marian Boves and Mrs. Gladys Maginn are in the same room and both have disabled themselves for a while due to falls. A speedy recovery is hoped for, and best wishes from all of the senior citizens.

The seniors of the Maple Club have a busy spring schedule ahead of them with the next two Monday meetings taken up with a St. Patrick's Day Program March 11 and bowling at the community hall lanes March 18.
 For March 19, a bus has been chartered and tickets ordered for the Maple Leaf Garden's production of "Peter Pan", followed by supper at Old Ed's Restaurant. Any seniors in the area wishing to join with the Maple and Kleinburg people on this outing can call Mrs. Louise Cooper at 832-2408.
 Interest is high for a visit to the Legislature in early May, combined with another highlight or two. Although some arrangements have already been made, a conflict of dates has arisen. We
