Legion Reports

Midget Tourney Face-Off Monday

After more than four months of planning, the countdown begins to the opening face-off on Monday at 9:30 a.m. of the Seventh Annual Legion Midget Hockey Tourney.

For seven days about 50 tournament workers will labor, and on the eight they will rest, (they hope). School will be out, the teams will be in, and midget hockey will be the talk of the town — if it isn't already.

On a recent Sunday morning before church, twenty-one members of the tourney committee gathered at the Legion Hall to discuss final details. Tournament President Marshall Amos cast a glance at his colleagues and asked around the table for reports.

Secretary-General Russ Andrews reported on advertising and correspondence; Vice-President Harold Barnett on arena co-ordination and opening ceremonies. George Wood reported on billeting; Don Bromley and Eric Chapman on publicity; Dick Hutchinson and Harold O'Rourke on ticket sales; Wes Berseth on security. Lionel Gleason reported as referee-in-chief; Paul Ducharme, Kim Mabley and Stan Thornington reported as hosts for players and equipment storage; Walt Donkin for transportation of incoming teams; George Haviland on information booth; Sterling Reid on signs; John Clephan on statistics.

Ken Addley advised as OMHA representative, and Al (The Voice) Webster pondered over a large board which resembled a permutation on the treble chance in British soccer pools.

The only lady representative present, Dorothy Fitzgerald, reported that eight girls of Legion Squadron 778 Air Cadets will be on hand to assist with programs.

Following the meeting a generous cold lunch was served courtesy of Legion Ways and Means Chairman Tom McKeage, Frank Barrot, and their most obedient crew of two ladies. Most of the committee then left to attend church; taking a path which led directly past the arena where the Legion midgets just happened to be facing off against Orillia at the time.

At the time of going to press, many people both here in Richmond Hill and in the Maritimes, were saddened by an edict laid down which may exclude three Nova Scotia teams from participating in the tourney.

Apparently due to interstate difficulties in the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association, about 50 young players may be denied the opportunity of visiting Richmond Hill. Cause of the difficulty is not clear at this time, but the last telephone query received here indicated that the Halifax Chronicle Herald was very interested in getting to the bottom of it. One thing is certain, if the Maritimers are able to resolve the problem with the powers that be, the welcome mat is always open here in Richmond Hill.

For those members interested in the wearing of the green on the eve of the tourney, there will be a St. Patrick's Day Dance and Buffet at the Legion Hall this Saturday evening. The following, March 22, there is to be a millionaires night complete with dance and more food. Color Guard Member Paul White also reports a special color guard dance and buffet is planned for March 30, for those having strength remaining after tournament week.

The Legion sick board presently includes the names of Fred Mailey, a patient in Scarborough Centennial Hospital; Color Guard Member Bert Taylor, at home; and the honorable Frank Barber, a patient in York Central Hospital.

Finally, we predict the Legion Midgets will take the grand championship in six straight games if they stick-handle according to the ancient Roman motto, "Nil desperandum illegitimus carborundum".

ONTARIO'S NEW TAX CREDIT SYSTEM:

2 out of 3 Ontario residents who file income tax returns this year will share $300 million in tax credits.

(Even if they don't pay income tax!)

Families, pensioners, roomers, boarders, the handicapped and others will benefit. Ontario's new Tax Credit System provides for three separate credits, and here's how they work:

1. People who own or rent (including roomers and boarders) may share in the Property Tax Credit.
2. People who fill out a Federal income tax return may share in the Sales Tax Credit.
3. People over 65 may share in the Pensioner Tax Credit.

You must fill out a Federal income tax return. The new purple Ontario Tax Credit Form comes attached inside it. So even if you don't pay income tax, you should still file a Federal income tax return with the Ontario Tax Credit Form this year.

We want you to get your fair share of Ontario's tax credits.
