Reduce Fee For Sunday School Bus

Churches which provide their own buses to pick up and transport children to and from Sunday school have been paying full commercial rates for the registration fee while school board providing their own buses have been granted reduced rates. This is now changed according to an announcement by Premier William Davis recently.

Sunday school buses, generally used only one day per week, will now be charged only a $2. annual registration fee per vehicle.

This change has brought Ontario into line with several other provinces and many of the United States.

The Premier noted that church leaders had pointed out to him that public transportation in suburban areas on Sundays is either non-existent or quite inadequate to serve the education program of churches. As a result many churches have found it necessary to provide their own buses thereby assuming a severe financial burden.

Neighborhood Notes

Mrs. Margaret Foster (nee Williams) celebrated her birthday March 12; Susan Purvis turned 16 on the 16th, Jeannie Read had her seventh on the 17th and Mrs. Carrie Williams joined the birthday crowd on the 18th. We send very best wishes to all of you.

Church News

Last Thursday the stewards of Carrville United Church got together at Mrs. Carrie Read's home to make some plans for the future. One important event which happened March 20 was the congregational fun night. George Veitch volunteered to take charge of the organizing.

Other plans were discussed. One item in particular involves paints, paint brushes and sore muscles. No one member appeared overly enthusiastic, but the job has to be done and it won't get done by itself, so there is only one alternative left — just do it.

Don't forget to take some paper bags along when you go shopping. Some stores are running short and bag prices have gone way up. If something isn't done soon food prices will have to be increased to compensate for the bag price.
